CHAPTER ONE

WARNING

He checked in at the reception bureau, asked for a suite on the upper floor of the hotel overlooking the sea. The porter accompanying him to his room noted a distant look in the guest's eyes.

Locking the door firmly, he noted with satisfaction the sound of the porter's footsteps dying away. In a few steps he was at the window, opened it, and was momentarily stunned by the sharp tang of the sea air.

It seemed so foolish, here he stood. Only days before, he was the envy of all his neighbours. His position at the Corporation, his beautiful home, his wife, his children, his future, all suddenly culminating in "this".

The whole thing had caught him unawares. A "leak" to the morning newspaper, then the news announcement on local T.V. at lunchtime — "Monetary Crash" — was the headline, and then later the reality came into sharp focus. He was in trouble.

A flood of thoughts battered his already overburdened mind. The debts, the mortgages, the half completed business deals, and the shame.

So this was the result.

One last thought forced itself into his consciousness — "What if there was a God?"

Only on three or four occasions during his lifetime had he been forced to ask this question.

Once as his runabout was drifting powerless, miles out to sea — he prayed — but of course it was only luck that another boat had spotted him towards dusk that evening.

The second occasion was when he and his wife had stood at the bedside of their dying son, after the plane crash. He had promised God that if the boy lived he would serve Him. Strange what one will do under pressure. Of course when the boy did recover, he put all that type of thinking away again.

And then there was that luncheon appointment with some of his business associates. Just about to turn into the restaurant, he had heard that funny old street preacher. There was something said that day that rooted him to the spot. He remembered, with embarrassment, the hot flush on his cheeks, the jibes and barracking of his friends, and finally, the curse word that escaped from his lips just to prove that he wasn't really interested.

What was it again?

"Prepare to meet thy God" . . . Yes, that was it. Quite ironic really. He wished that he had heard the whole message. That information was just what he needed . . . now.

Removing his jacket and tie, he laid an envelope addressed to his wife on the table, climbed on to the windowsill, and looked at the white-capped waves rolling up on the rocks far below. In a few moments it would all be over . . . or would it?

He jumped . . .

It was reported that night of course. There were so many others that it was not even a big headline. Just his name, and underneath the words "no suspicious circumstances".

Fiction? you ask.

Just ask any receptionist in New York who remembers the great depression of the 1930's. Clerks would hand the door key to the prospective guest and ask: "Sleeping, or jumping?"

(This book is being penned early 1978).

It will all happen again — only too soon.

Q. Can anyone know the outcome of all this confusion?

A. There is only one Book in the World that speaks with full authority on all of life's issues:

That is . . .

HOLY

BIBLE

Where did we come from?

What are we doing here?

Where are we going to?

This Book is the Word of God to us.

One third of the Book is devoted to prophecy, or telling of future events.

Amongst many signs that we see regularly reported by our newscasters are four that are outstanding:

1. The Sign of the Rise of the E.E.C. in Europe.
2. The Sign of Church Union under the W.C.C. banner.
3. The Sign of the Nation of Israel.
4. The Sign of Holy Spirit Power in the Churches today.

This Book is written as a manual to assist people in understanding these four signs and related subjects.

* * * *

Like Billy Sunday, the famous Evangelist of the early 1900's, I am determined that the reader will not have to regularly turn to a dictionary to understand what is being said.

WHO KNOWS THESE THINGS?

(a) The Wise will understand:

. . . "the wicked shall do wickedly and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand."
Dan. 12:10b.

A man who spends his time swearing, cursing, drinking, and generally ignoring God, cannot hope to understand, nor would he wish to.

The promise of understanding is given to the wise. Who are the wise?

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" Ps.111:10.

I remember baptising some folk in a river one day. At the conclusion of the service a woman asked me . . . "Are you the Mr Smith who speaks on prophetic subjects?"

I replied . . . "Well, I do speak on these subjects along with many others also."

She replied . . . "My son heard you speak, went home full of excitement to tell his father, who listened, then said . . . "What a lot of nonsense."

Without batting an eyelid, the boy replied . . . "That's okay Dad, Mr Smith read to us from the book of Daniel, where it said "None of the wicked would understand."

(b) The Prophets will know:

"Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets." Amos. 3:7.

Before the flood, He warned Noah.

Before the fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, he warned Abraham and Lot.

Before the terrible trouble which the Bible calls "Great Tribulation", He is telling His prophets to warn the people to get ready.

(c) In the book of Job, this question is asked:

"Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know Him not see His days?" Job. 24:1.

Possibly the answer is that many of those behind the pulpits in our churches either have never met their God, through Christ, or secondly, do not really believe He said what He meant, or meant what He said, in the Bible.

The same situation applied when the Lord Jesus came the first time. Of all the great students of the day, none were present when He came. Only two dear old saints, who took God literally at His Word, were around to admire God's greatest gift, Jesus. They were Simeon and Anna.

Regarding doctrine, God may be classed as an ultrafundamentalist. A belief that the basic truths of the Bible the virgin birth, resurrection etc. must not be doubted.

(d) As the world moves on towards that day, the two classes of people will become quite evident:

(i) The "They" Group — Non-Christian, Non-Born Again, Non-Converted.

(ii) The "Ye Brethren" Group — Real Christian, Born Again, Converted.

"For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

For when THEY shall say Peace and Safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon THEM as travail upon a woman with child, and THEY shall not escape.

But YE BRETHREN are not in darkness that that day should overtake YOU as a thief." 1 Thess. 5:2-4. (Emphasis my own)

At this point, you have my permission to stand and shout "Hallelujah".

(e) Many times folk will say to me . . . "How come you claim to know so much, yet even Jesus Himself doesn't know?"

Didn't He say, "But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son but the Father." Mark 13:32.

Please note that in the Gospel of Mark, Jesus is portrayed vividly as Son of Man, the true and faithful servant.

In Phil. 2:5-8, we are taught that our Lord Jesus Christ voluntarily laid down His rights to full equality with God the Father whilst here on earth. He did this for a period only, during which time He would experience all our human experiences, thus becoming a valid Saviour, who started at the bottom, and worked His way up.

It was in this humbled state that He confessed . . . "I do not know the date of my return to earth." Foreknowledge at that point was limited.

Today, however, He knows the date of His return. Just prior to going to the Cross, He prayed this prayer. "And now, oh Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was." (Jn. 17:5.)

Question: "Did He get the glory returned, and thus the prayer answered?"

Answer: "Yes He Did. He now knows that date of His return, and ladles out relevant information to His prophets as He wills." The prophets pass it on to the people.

Remember that the Lord Jesus Christ only said that people would not know the hour or the day. He did not mention weeks, months, or years.

Paul, the Apostle, says that as the information is ladled out, we will know that blessed day (1 Thess. 5:4.)

"But ye brethren are not in the darkness that that day should overtake you as a thief."

Have you ever been watching a T.V. programme, when someone has interrupted your train of thought by speaking. As the show continues, you cannot quite keep up with it as you missed a vital piece of information.

As we seek to pass on the latest revealed facts, you will clearly understand and give thanks to the Lord on this account.

WHO SAID CHRIST IS COMING AGAIN?

Who says He is not?

1. Satan.

2. The vast majority of ministers in training.

This is a natural result of the unbelief being taught in most Theological seminaries today. (I speak as one who has experienced this training.)

Who says He is?

1. The Prophets.

Daniel says . . . "And the stone that smote the image, became a great mountain and filled the whole earth." Dan. 2:35.b.

Who is the stone?

He is the one that Peter says "the builders disallowed, the same is made the Head of the Corner" 1 Pet: 2:7b — Christ Himself.

Zechariah says . . . "And His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives . . ." Zech. 14:4.a.

Whose feet?

Christ's feet.

2. Two men in White Clothes (probably Moses and Elijah) at Christ's ascension into heaven.

"Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven. This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven." Acts 1:11.

3. The Apostle Paul.

"For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trump of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first;

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1 Thess. 4:16-17.

Here Paul agrees perfectly with, and amplifies the words of the two men in white clothes.

4. The Apostle John says . . .

"Behold, He cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see Him . . ." Rev. 1:7.a.

5. The Lord Jesus Christ said . . .

"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am there ye may be also." Jn.14:3.

Who do you believe?

In the Old Testament there are over 300 references to Christ's comings (both first and second). Many have yet to be fulfilled and are therefore still future.

Please note that during the last 72 hours of Jesus' life on earth, 33 of these prophecies were literally fulfilled.

A man skilled in working out "odds", discovered that the chance of this being a coincidence is 1 in 33,554,432. Therefore, should I meet one who proudly claims to be an atheist, or in some other such category, I say . . . "You must be that '1' there, but the odds are 33¹/₂m. against you being correct."

Therefore it is no longer a sign of intelligence to claim unbelief. It is an admission of ignorance. You simply do not know enough.

NEBUCHADNEZZARS IMAGE WITH STONE SMITING FEET

CHRIST SPLITTING MT OF OLIVES

Without being deliberately rude, God said this same thing years ago . . .

"The fool (not intellectual giant) has said in his heart, there is no God." Ps. 53:1.a

The odds mentioned above are very conservative. I invite you, the reader, to work out your own odds, taking all detail into account, e.g. No. 3 referring to 30 pieces of silver. (See following list.)

ON THIS DAY 33 PROPHECIES FULFILLED

List of 33 Prophecies Fulfilled:

1. Psalm 41:9. Mark 14:10. Betrayed by a friend.

25. Isaiah 52:14. John 19:5,14. A broken man, yet King.
26. Psalm 22:31. Luke 23:4. Jesus declared faultless.
27. Psalm 31:5. Luke 23:46. He gives up His spirit.
28. Exodus 12:46. John 19:36. His bones not broken.
29. Isaiah 53:12. Luke 23:33. Numbered with transgressors.
30. Daniel 9:26. John 11:50-52. Jesus died not for Himself.

31. Genesis 3:15. John 19:18. Satan bruises Jesus' heel on cross.
32. Isaiah 53:9. Matthew 27:57-60. Laid in rich man's tomb.
33. Amos 8:9. Matthew 27:45. Darkness at crucifixion.

In order that you may really enjoy and understand these prophecies, find a friend to read the Old Testament passages whilst you read out the New. Together you will thrill at the detailed accuracy of scripture.

DOES THE BIBLE SPEAK OF THE E.E.C.?

It all started about the year 586 B.C. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon was lying in his bed dreaming. Rising in the morning, he called for his wise men and said . . . "Oh wise men, you will tell me two things:

1. What was it that I dreamed last night?
2. Tell me the meaning of the dream!"

The wise men huddled together, then a spokesman for the group said . . . "Oh King live forever (if you can make it). If you tell us the dream, we will tell you the meaning."

The King replied . . . "Listen chaps. I don't think you quite grasp the situation. If you don't give me the answers to my two questions I am going to have you cut into small pieces, and have your houses turned into manure heaps."

The wise men became very interested immediately. They said . . . "Brothers, we are in bad trouble. Who can tell the King his dream?"

As it happened they all thought of the same man simultaneously, a man of God called Daniel, who was gifted in the interpretation and understanding of all visions and dreams. (See Dan.1:17)

A word of encouragement to those readers who have a gift from God which you feel has not been recognised. Be patient, your day will come. In a very short time, all genuine Christians will be rushed off their feet with calls from anxious people seeking the Lord.

Daniel didn't rush in, saying, "Well done King. You've called the right man." No, he gave public glory to God, and sought time to find out the matter. He said, "There is a God in heaven that reveals secrets, and will tell you both the dream and its meaning."

The dream was simply the history of the World from about 586 B.C. down to the 1980's and beyond. It is perfect history, suited to be taught in schools.

The whole point of prophecy in this form is to give the believer a strong foundation for his or her faith.

Rev.19:10b says . . . "THE TESTIMONY OF JESUS IS THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY."

The testimony of any Christian is summed up in the words of the old hymn:

"Once I was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see."

No person can argue with personal experience, nor would any sensible man or woman try to disprove prophecy. That is why, since 1970 when I commenced to preach on these subjects, I have invited people to bring taperecorders to the meetings. Of the thousands who have attended these meetings, not one has tried to argue with any of God's prophetic utterances.

It was well written, "Let God be true, and every man a liar." Now, because Jesus was never lost, nor was He ever blind, He invites us to test His credibility by understanding the prophecies.

Daniel Ch. 2 gives us the view of World History as portrayed in the form of a great image. This image is made up of differing materials decreasing in value from head to toes. The metals equal the empires in order.

I discovered exactly the same thing in Daniel Ch.7. The empires are portrayed here as animals.

Here we have drawn a picture of the Image. Put notes from chapter 2 and chapter 7 together, and a very clear picture emerges:

HEAD OF GOLD — LION
BABYLON 605-539 B.C.

BREAST OF SILVER — BEAR
MEDO PERSIA 539-331 B.C.

THIGHS OF BRASS — LEOPARD
GREECE 331-168 B.C.

LEGS OF IRON — TERRIBLE BEAST
ROME 168 B.C. - 476 A.D.

FEET AND TOES — IRON & CLAY — BEAST (ANTICHRIST).
E.E.C. 1948-?

1. BABYLON — GOLD — LION

The head of gold is plainly Babylon, along with its King Nebuchadnezzar.

"Thou oh King, art a King of Kings . . .

. . . Thou art this head of gold." Dan. 2:37-38.

Nebuchadnezzar was a very important king in his day. He is likened to a lion in Daniel 7. He was responsible for the building of one of the seven wonders of the world — "The Hanging Gardens of Babylon." A giant city, built up with terraces of gardens, watered from a great reservoir above. He became so proud of this structure that, one evening as he viewed this masterpiece, a foolish thought came to him — I must be God! People should worship me.

NEBUCHADNEZZARS IMAGE (PLAIN)

The Lord in Heaven, looking down, said . . . "What a pity Nebuchadnezzar, you were doing so well too. I'll have to show you that you are not God."

The result was that he was driven out into the fields, ate grass like an ox, his hair grew like feathers, and his nails like bird's claws.

One day, at the end of seven years, standing in a field with a daisy hanging from his lips, he said with a shy smile . . . "I'm not really God, you know."

His grandson, Belshazzar, lost the empire. Whilst he and his friends were having a wild party in Babylon one night, the Medes and Persians captured the city and they became the next world empire.

2. MEDO-PERSIA — SILVER — BEAR

The bear was very strong. So was this empire. Two details are given for us to check out:

- (a) Bear raised up on one side — Any student of Persian history knows that the Medes gradually were taken over by the Persians. Medes go down — Persians come up.
- (b) The bear had three ribs in its mouth. An historian called Ptolemy tells us that there were a series of ten famous kings. There were three who were outstanding, however:
 - (i) Cyrus the Great of Persia
 - (ii) Xerxes 1st of Persia 3 ribs in bear's mouth.
 - (iii) Darius of the Medes

3. GREECE — BRASS — LEOPARD

The leopard is very quick to seize its prey, and so was Alexander of whom it speaks. He fought his main battles from 334 B.C. - 323 B.C. (B.C. is calculated backwards.) He was very ill and coughed blood as he rode to victory on a white horse. At the age of 32 he was killed in a drunken orgy by four jealous generals, called Satraps. They murdered his wife, along with his son and heir, and divided the empire into four divisions:

- (a) Ptolemy — Egypt
- (b) Seleucus — Babylonia
- (c) Antigonus — Syria and Asia minor
- (d) Antipater — Macedonia and Greece

The interesting detail about this leopard was that it had four heads (see Dan. 7.) prophesied about 200 years before this happened. Miraculous? I think so.

4. ROME — IRON — TERRIBLE BEAST

This empire was said to be worse than all the others. The beast which ruled it had iron teeth, and iron feet, with which he stamped on everything.

Our Lord Jesus Christ was born during the Roman era, and was crucified by a Roman crucifixion.

Those who saw the Film "Barabbas" will remember seeing strong, fit young men being trained to go out and murder each other to satisfy the blood lust of the crazy Caesars.

The detail is seen in the two legs of iron, representing the eastern and western sections of the empire, which ran side by side for hundreds of years.

* * * *

The Image is not finished, but this brings us to the GAP PERIOD. Bible prophecy is full of gaps, and the wise student will allow for them.

A few examples:

- (a) To Israel, the Messiah was shown to be Suffering Servant and Reigning King. The gap between these two appearances has been nearly 2000 years long, but this is not clearly told us in scripture. This gap in between is called "The Church Age". This truth was lost on the Jews since Old Testament theology did not reveal a period like "The Church Age".
- (b) In Daniel, chapter 9, there is a gap between the 69th and 70th week — history shows this to be so.
- (c) There is a gap between "The acceptable year of the Lord" and "The day of vengeance of our God." (Isa. 61:2). Nearly 2000 years long.
- (d) A reference in Hosea 3:4,5 shows a gap between the two verses.
- (e) Again a gap between Hosea 5:15 and Ch. 6:1.
- (f) The great prophecy of Matthew 24 became intelligible only if this present age is considered to be a Gap Age, seen clearly between Daniel 9:26 and verse 27.
- (g) The Apostles recognised a gap awaiting the time when Acts 15:16, referring to Christ coming again to rebuild the tabernacle of David, and a great turning to God, should be fulfilled.
- (h) Israel's calendar showed large gaps between the feasts which adequately pre-figure the types of Salvation, Baptism in the Holy Spirit, and subsequent blessings of God to the believer.

- (i) Romans Ch. 9 to Romans Ch. 11 shows a clear gap. Note in particular the Olive tree picture in Ch. 11:
V.17 — Israel broken off. V.17 — Gentiles grafted in.
V.23-34 Israel grafted in again. The gap comes where the Gentiles are grafted in. Very fortunate for many of us.

PRAISE GOD FOR THE GAPS.

IT WAS IN THE GAP I RECEIVED MY SALVATION.

* * * *

Meanwhile, back to The Image:

In this gap period there has never been another western world empire. A number of men tried to set themselves up, but failed.

Men of Power in the Gap:

- 1. A man called Charlemagne attempted to be King of the old Roman Empire. It didn't work. We give him an "F" for failure.
- 2. Later, a Frenchman called Napoleon. He even had his own private coronation, but was stopped whilst crossing the English channel to conquer Britain. A man with one arm and one eye was responsible for this, and so we give poor Napoleon an "F".
- 3. When I was a boy we used to draw this man's face on a concrete wall and throw stones at it. He did very well with his conquests, murdered six million Jews etc, but instead of conquering the world, blew his brains out in a bunker, and so Hitler receives his "F".

There has never been a world empire since Rome.

The last part of The Image has started to come to power however. It is called by a number of names. The E.E.C. The European Economic Community, but most people know it as "The Common Market."

I remember it was a winter's evening in 1970. I had returned from the school where I had been teaching, and after the evening meal was doing a job which all good husbands enjoy doing — helping my wife by drying the dishes. A Christian friend and fellow teacher, named Derek Jones, and I had been discussing the prophecies from the Book of Daniel. I put down my teatowel and put a phone call through to the High Commissioner for Great Britain. He answered, and I said . . .

"Good evening, sir, this is Smith speaking."

There was an initial pause which made me think he may not have heard of me, then later I explained what I wanted . . .

"Can you tell me, please, the names of the countries in The Common Market?" Remember, this was 1970 when very few knew anything about it.

Here was his answer:

1. Italy. 2. France. 3. Holland. 4. Belgium. 5. Luxembourg.
6. West Germany.

I hung up disappointed because the Bible had said, 10, not 6.

I said to my wife, I think I'll call him again. Answering the phone a second time on his evening off, the High Commissioner sounded less excited than the first time. I asked him for the names of any countries which were applying to join, and here they are:

7. Great Britain. 8. Denmark. 9. Norway. 10. Irish Republic.

I put down the receiver, did a little dance (which any man is permitted to do in the privacy of his own kitchen), for I had learnt my maths under the old system which taught me $6 + 4 = 10$. Today it takes you 30 pages from the new maths to discover this!

(The new maths, incidentally, is part of a conspiracy to turn the youth of the western world into a lot of illiterate ignoramuses.) — See later under "Mystery of Iniquity."

Main Linking Scripture:

"The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth (prophetically already identified as Rome.) . . ." Dan. 7:23.a. And the 10 horns out of this kingdom (Rome) are 10 Kings that shall arise . . . (E.E.C.) V.24.a.

The official name of the E.E.C. treaty is:

THE TREATY OF ROME signed on the 25th March 1957.

There are four lots of 10's in the Bible which refer to the E.E.C.:

- a. 10 Toes. Dan. 2:41-42. b. 10 Horns. Dan. 7:24.
Rev. 17:12.
- c. 10. Kings. Dan. 7:24. d. 10 Crowns. Rev.13:1.
Rev. 17:12.

Understand this and you have the key to the Book of Revelation.

1981 — Greece will join officially. Other three are still negotiating.

FEET AND TOES OF IMAGE

Here is the challenge:

The total in the future could be 13, yet the Bible declares there will be 10. It also predicts three to be rooted out (see later).

Does the E.E.C. recognise there will only be 10?

- (a) Yes. In 1973 a European stamp was issued showing nine pieces of a jigsaw puzzle with a space left next to G.Britain for a tenth piece.
- (b) In 1973 Britain issued a 50p coin. It was seven-sided and had stamped on the reverse side the nine hands of the E.E.C. When a tenth nation joins a new coin would need to be struck. This coin has been withdrawn from circulation as one hand was slightly smaller in size. Some nations suspected that it may refer to them.

- (c) At the E.E.C. Headquarters in Brussels, Belgium, nine flags fly outside, but there are 10 flagpoles. I have a picture of this.

Notes on E.E.C.:

At time of writing (Feb. 1978):

- There are nine members — Who will take 10th position? Four countries are applying for full membership: (a) Spain, (b) Portugal, (c) Greece, (d) Turkey. $4 + 9 = 13$.
The Bible predicts the final total will be 10. It also says three countries will finally be rooted out. I throw this out as a challenge to you the reader. No man could possibly have known these details in the natural. It takes the Word of Almighty God.
- There are approximately 25 associate members — mainly in Africa.
- There are two nations with preferential trade agreements:
a. Spain b. Israel.
(n.b. Article 237 of The Common Market rules states that only countries in that specific area of Western Europe are entitled to full membership.)
- Free trade now exists amongst member nations.
- They also have a Common Customs Duty.
- The work force is being distributed wherever the need is greatest.
- The E.E.C. Finance Ministers are at present working on the basis for a New World Monetary System.
- As a super-power, the nine have set 1980 as the date for completing the moves towards full economic and monetary union. This will also involve a merging of political powers.
- Law and Order — The E.E.C. are to create their own Police Force. With permissiveness leading to more violent assaults taking place in Europe, it has been suggested that a 500,000 man world Police Force could take the place of all existing armies.
In West Germany, Paramilitary Federal Border Police are now being trained as "Soul-less Killers." These men have been tortured and insulted to toughen them up.

- Regarding the law system of the enlarged Community, readers should notice that under the Communities Bill, Clause 2 (I), not only is Britain committed for the future to the acceptance of regulations, which become law in Britain, without Parliament's approval, but is committed to all existing E.E.C. laws . . .

"Innocent until proven guilty", is on the way out.

. . . Thus the European Court is elevated above the British Courts, and in the event of any clash between British law and Common Market Law, the latter must prevail.

Bible Description of E.E.C.:

- A mixture of Iron (strength) and Clay (weakness).

It could be called Union, but not Unity. Dan. 2:41-43.

Illustration: Take two cats, tie them together by the tails, and hang them over a clothesline. There you have union, but definitely not "Unity"!

The Iron/Clay concept does not initially refer to a clash of religious, or political differences.

The meaning is apparent now, as we note the results of the enlarged communities' meetings — (a) Iron = Strength; (b) Clay = Weakness.

Readers should note that there is strife at almost every meeting.

As a matter of interest, please notice the Religious preference of the nine, up to this point.

Predominantly Roman Catholic: Predominantly Protestant:

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------|
| 1. Belgium | 6. West Germany |
| 2. Luxembourg | 7. Holland |
| 3. France | 8. Great Britain |
| 4. Italy | 9. Denmark |
| 5. Irish Republic | 10. ? |

The daily news clearly shows us who the Iron (strong) countries are:

- West Germany 2. France 3. Great Britain

The majority of countries, therefore, who do not speak up during negotiations for one reason or another may be called Clay (weak) nations.

2. The E.E.C. will finally rule the world through economy — not by war as the previous empires did. (Rev. 13:7) i.e. Babylon, Medo-persia, Greece, Rome.

3. The E.E.C. will be assisted by a World Church based at Rome. (Rev. 13:11; Rev. 17:3-5).

4. The Political E.E.C. once in power will turn and destroy its helper, the Religious World Church. (Rev. 17:16; Rev. 18:11-13).

5. Christ will destroy the E.E.C. "Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain, without hands (The LORD JESUS CHRIST — the Stone which the builders' rejected) and that it brake in pieces, the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver and the gold, the great God hath made known to the king, what shall come to pass hereafter, and the dream is CERTAIN, and the interpretation thereof SURE." Dan. 2:45.

"A stone was cut out without hands" (that's CHRIST) "which smote the image upon his feet" (that's the E.E.C.) Dan. 2:34.a.

HOW LONG HAVE WE GOT LEFT?

I realise as I write these words that many people know all these verses very well. My prayer to the Lord was "Please, help me to put it all together so that it makes sense."

I bear record that night after night I would seek God, come to an impasse, then all light would break forth. I would wake my wife and explain. Sometimes she too would show excitement, but now, let the Bible itself answer the above question:

Point One: Christ will return when the E.E.C. is fully operative. "And IN THE DAYS OF THESE KINGS, shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed." Dan. 2:44.

Point Two: Before the E.E.C. reaches its power stage, it will appoint a strong leader. "And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet" (as I write in Feb. 1978, the E.E.C. has not yet come to full membership, or power with a leader) "but receive power as kings 1 HOUR WITH THE BEAST" (leader). Rev. 17:12.

Point Three: It will run the world through economy, but not for long.

If you learnt your verb tenses at school, you will probably understand this passage.

First, the author of Revelation was God himself.

The man who wrote it down was the Apostle John.

John was a prisoner of Rome, living on an island called Patmos.

Here are the seven World Empires:

- | | | |
|----------------|--|----------------------|
| 1. Chaldees | — Leading into Assyria after Egypt. (Chaldees — Historically No.1) | |
| 2. Egypt | — Historically No. 2. | |
| 3. Babylon | — Historically No. 3. | Prophetically No. 1. |
| 4. Medo-Persia | — Historically No. 4. | Prophetically No. 2. |
| 5. Greece | Historically No. 5. | Prophetically No. 3. |
| 6. Rome | Historically No. 6. | Prophetically No. 4. |
| 7. E.E.C. | — Historically No. 7. | Prophetically No. 5. |

The Apostle John, writing from the 6th Historical Empire writes:

"And there are seven kings (correct),
five are fallen (past tense, Chaldees-Greece, correct),
And one is (present tense, Rome, correct),
And the other is not yet come (future E.E.C, correct)
And when he (E.E.C.) cometh, he (E.E.C.) must continue
A SHORT SPACE." Rev. 17:10. (Emphasis added)

We now put our information together, and here is the answer to the question:

When the E.E.C. is finalised with 10 nations only, and a leader, it will only continue for a short period and Christ will return.

At the time of revision (December 1979) the two following points need to be observed.

1. Greece has signed the "Treaty of Accession" which is like an engagement with the other nine.

In 1981 they hope to join officially. This will be the Marriage to the Community. Please note, Norway broke the engagement, some years back.

2. Mrs Thatcher of Great Britain has warned her partners at a Summit Meeting in Dublin that she is ready "to make life difficult for them, if the Community does not refund Britain $2 billion".

Much of the E.E.C's money is being wasted through the extravagant spending of its commissioners.

They spent $400,000 last year (1978) on "representational expenses" and more than $1m on official travel, much of it on chartered jets instead of regularly scheduled airlines. It cost $160,000 for E.E.C. Vice President, Finn Olav Gundelach to commute between his home in Denmark and office in Brussels.

Other expenses: 1. Flowers for Francois Xavier Ortali = $800 per week; 2. Liquor cabinet kept filled — Roy Jenkins = $4,000; 3. Three days in plush hotel — Wilhelm Hafercamp = $2,000.

"It's dynamite," said one critic of all this spending — "They all look like a bunch of champagne Charlies". — The E.E.C. needs a powerful leader.

ARE YOU READY?

Yes No I don't know

Now lets look at . . .

CHAPTER TWO

A WORLD LEADER SOON

Do you remember our last verse? The next one reads like this:

"And the beast (The E.E.C. Leader) that was (the same spirit that was in Judas Iscariot) and is not (because this spirit is in his place of waiting for a new man to inhabit), even he is the eight (because he comes to power after the E.E.C. which is No. 7) and is of the seven (the leader of the E.E.C. which is one of the seven) and goeth into perdition (which is exactly the same place Judas Iscariot went when his days of prominence were fulfilled.) Rev. 17:11.

It is obvious to any news-watcher that the E.E.C. as it stands is a real mess.

It is clear then that the Biblical description of it should be taken into account.

"The feet and toes you saw, part iron and part clay, show that later on this kingdom will be divided. Some parts of it will be as strong as iron and some as weak as clay. This mixture of iron with clay also shows that these kingdoms will try to strengthen themselves by forming alliances with each other, through intermarriage of their rulers, but this will not succeed for iron and clay don't mix." Dan. 2:42-43. Living Bible.

This is the truth:

Iron (strong

E.E.C. nations)

1. West Germany
2. France
3. Great Britain

Clay (weak E.E.C. nations)

4. Italy
5. Belgium
6. Luxembourg
7. Holland
8. Denmark
9. Irish Republic.

Every meeting of the Council ends in failure. Away back in 1973 the newspapers told us:

"Meanwhile, in Brussels, the enlarged Community got off to a sticky start yesterday, when foreign ministers of the nine member countries failed to agree on the main topic at their first working meeting.

Sources said there was even an argument between the British Foreign Secretary Sir Alex Douglas-Home and his French counterpart, Mr Maurice Schumann on whether the Council, the Community's top decision-making authority should be discussing frozen fish fillets at all."

Did I hear a chuckle from heaven?

Euratom in Jeopardy:

The next article in the same week read: "Common Market ministers experienced failure for the second time this week, when the E.E.C. Council of Science ministers disagreed on a joint nuclear programme."

To cap it off, they decided to introduce a Question Time to promote intelligent discussion.

This is normally reserved as a last resort for a class of naughty children who prefer playing to working.

A comment in another newspaper cutting seems to make very good sense:

"As Europe (the E.E.C.) has lost sight of its original dream, there is only one way to electrify this atmosphere. — A new type of leadership is required, to replace functionaries who have stumbled into a wilderness of nit-picking."

Away back in 1957, Henri Spaak, who was then Secretary General of N.A.T.O. said in Paris, "We do not want another committee, we have too many already. What we want is a man of sufficient stature to hold the allegiance of all people, and to lift us out of the economic morass into which we are sinking. Send us such a man, and be he GOD OR DEVIL, WE WILL RECEIVE HIM."

Committees have been variously described:

1. A group of people who individually can do nothing, and collectively decide that nothing can be done.
2. A group of people who keep minutes and waste hours.

Henri Spaak's words prove to be prophetic.

Leadership Changes Proposed:

"In 1978, for the first time in their history, West Europeans will elect a parliament, replacing 198 European legislators now appointed, supplying what Europeanists believe would be a major and needed impetus to political unity." Daily Post, Rotorua. 23.3.77.

This parliament is stage two, leading on quickly to the final Bible stage — stage three.

At the time of revision (December 1979) this Parliament has been formed, and the newspaper cutting dated 18th July 1979 has the following to say, "The European Parliament, history's first directly elected multi-national assembly, opened its inaugural session today, by electing Simone Veil, a Jewish French woman who survived the Auschwitz death camp, as president".

For the past nine years I have pointed out that a person of Jewish origins will control the E.E.C.

The future leader will be a man, and as we will see, he will also be a Jew.

A World Leader Alive and Well Today:

Is it true that this man is indeed around today? Yes, of course he is. The E.E.C. have made no secret of the fact for some years that they have been seeking the services of such a man.

U.S. News and World Report issued such a statement some years back.

A well known prophetess, Jeanne Dixon, said that "a child born somewhere in the Middle East shortly after 7 a.m. (est.) on February 5th 1962 will revolutionise the world."

Many Christian folk, well meaning in their search for information, have latched on to this prophecy as being the record of the birth of the Bible character who will arise to rule the world.

Careful checking shows clearly that neither Jeanne Dixon nor her predictions are to be relied upon.

1. If her source were God, all her predictions would be correct. In Deuteronomy 18, God's test of a prophet is unfailing accuracy — death was the penalty for failure. Therefore, her source is Satan, who regularly mixes a little truth with a lot of deception (see Jesus' temptations) also Deut. 18:20-22.

2. She is a communicant member of the Roman Catholic Church.

Satan is very religious himself. In fact he used church leaders to bring about Jesus' crucifixion.

3. A snake entwines itself around her lower body, then looks deeply into her eyes. Wisdom is thus bestowed. A simple knowledge of scripture is enough for anyone to know that the snake is a symbol of satan.

Many Christians, on the basis of this vision, did some very simple mathematics:

$$\begin{array}{r} 1979 \\ 1962 \\ \hline 17 \end{array}$$

Therefore, the future world leader must be 17 years of age today.

In the book of Revelation we are told: "The devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." Rev. 12:12.b.

If he cannot prevent one from being born again into God's family, his next task is to bring confusion to the believer.

The man who is to run the E.E.C. is not 17 years of age, but is a mature man with ambitions for world domination.

Bible Description:

He is called by many names, such as, "The Lawless One" in the book of Thessalonians, or "The Little Horn" in Daniel 7:8. For our purpose we will identify him from the Bible record using four popular names:

- | | |
|-----------------|----------------------|
| (a) Anti-Christ | (b) Beast |
| (c) Man of Sin | (d) Son of Perdition |

1. He will arise after the 10 nations

"And the ten horns out of this kingdom (Rome) are 10 kings that shall arise (E.E.C.) and another shall rise (come to world prominence) after them (leader of 10 countries of E.E.C.) Dan. 7:24.a.

One may ask at this point, "How do we know that the E.E.C. is being spoken of here?"

I well remember the day when I called the British High Commissioner's office and asked his secretary for the official name of the E.E.C. Treaty.

She went away and returned to the phone with the following information: "It is called 'the TREATY OF ROME', signed on the 25th March 1957".

Can you see the linkup?

(a) The fourth prophetic Empire was Rome.

(b) The E.E.C. title is "The Treaty of Rome".

This amazes me, because Italy is the most politically unstable country in Europe, and change their Governments as often as a man may change his shirt (as the saying goes).

Yet, God in His wisdom arranges events "that the Scripture might be fulfilled."

Why not the Treaty of Bonn or Treaty of Paris or Treaty of Brussels.

No!! It is the "Treaty of Rome". I can almost hear Him say, "I still deal in simplicity".

2. Three of the 10 will reject him but be forced into submission

"... and he (E.E.C. leader) will SUBDUE three kings." Dan. 7:24.b.

"... and of the 10 horns that were in his head (E.E.C.) and of the other which came up (E.E.C. leader) and before whom three (countries of the E.E.C.) FELL." Dan. 7:20.a. (Emphasis Added)

"... I considered the horns (E.E.C.) and behold there came up among them another little horn (E.E.C. leader) before whom there were three of the first horns (three of the original countries) PLUCKED UP BY THE ROOTS." Dan. 7:8. (Emphasis added)

Please note the three things that will happen when the E.E.C. leader comes to power. Three original members of the E.E.C. will be: (a) SUBDUED, (b) FALL, (c) PLUCKED UP by the roots.

Three Possible Explanations:

(a) Belgium, Luxembourg, Holland (three original members, 1948).

(b) Holland, Denmark, Great Britain (three monarchies). Queen Juliana, Queen Margrethe, Queen Elizabeth.

(c) Some juggling around with Irish Republic, Denmark (not members of the original Roman Empire) and one of the four applicants for tenth position (Spain, Greece, Portugal, Turkey).

This goes out as a very significant challenge to an unbelieving world — watch for these three and ask your friends to watch (prophesied 6th century B.C.).

3. This leader will arise out of the nations:

Just as an impartial referee is chosen for an international sports fixture, so this man will be a non-resident of the E.E.C. invited in to take over leadership.

Rev. 13, as interpreted by Rev. 17.

Author — Holy Spirit of God.

Scribe- Apostle John

Place — Island called Patmos — On beach.

Date — About A.D. 96.

"And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having 7 heads and 10 horns, and upon his horns, 10 crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy." Rev. 13:1.

Rev. 13:

Sea

Beast

7 Heads

10 Horns

10 Crowns

Name of Blasphemy

Rev. 17:

— V.15. Ref. waters. Nations.

— E.E.C. Leader.

— V.9. City with 7 hills (see also v. 18. Rome)

— E.E.C.

— E.E.C.

— Has a connection with religious Rome.

Let us now re-read the verse in simple English:

"As I John stood on the beach on the Island of Patmos, the Lord showed me a vision of the Common Market Leader arising out of the nations. With one hand, he was linked to the European Economic Community (politics), and with the other hand he was linked to the One World Church (religion) based at Rome, and he gave allegiance to a blasphemous religious title." Rev. 13:1 Smith version.

4. One Man — Not a Committee

"Let no one deceive you by any means, for that day shall not come except there come:

(a) A falling away first (many Christians will give up their faith.)

(b) And that MAN of sin be revealed, the son of perdition (E.E.C. leader)" II. Thess. 2:3. (Emphasis added)

Notice, not men (a committee), but MAN (singular).

This verse tells us clearly that Christ will not come tonight, as I write. This statement upsets many people, who, since their earliest childhood, have heard the prayer: "Lord Jesus, you may come tonight."

So we clearly learn that before the Lord comes to meet us in the clouds, we will see masses of believers going back on their vows to Christ. The tremendous pressures which God is allowing in the 1970's and 1980's to sort out (a) the true, from (b) the false — the wheat from the tares — the bride from the harlot — will cause some to curse God. Wise Christians will rejoice because they will recognise who is doing the shaking. Not satan, but the Lord himself.

"... Now He hath promised saying, yet once more, I shake not the earth only, but also heaven, and this word, yet once more signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made" — (WHY?) — "THAT THOSE THINGS WHICH CANNOT BE SHAKEN MAY REMAIN." Heb. 12:26.b-27. (Emphasis added)

Secondly, believers will see Antichrist (the E.E.C.) leader in his first stage. It is a peaceful start to a violent career. Thus, before Satan enters him and he is named the Son of Perdition, just as Judas Iscariot was, he will not appear with horns, barbed tail, and brandish a pitchfork. He will be a highly respected public figure, prominent on the world political scene. Just as Judas was highly accepted as one of the 12, this new leader will be initially admired by millions. Watch for his key word "PEACE".

I was holding a mission in a certain town, and once the meeting had concluded, I "smelt" trouble. Sure enough, there was a woman marching up the centre aisle. She opened up with:

"Do you mean to say that Christ can't come tonight?" I answered:

"No, I didn't say that, but the Bible does!" I pointed to II. Thess. 2:3 again.

She turned and pointed to a picture showing Christ returning publicly to the Mount of Olives, and said:

"The verse refers to that coming, not the meeting of Christ with His Bride in the air."

I then said:

"If ever you have difficulties with the meaning of a verse, simply turn to the context (surrounding verses) and read that. Let us turn to II. Thess. 2:1."

"Now we beseech you brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and by our gathering together unto Him."

"Sister" I asked, "Where do we gather unto Jesus? On the Mount of Olives, or in the clouds, in the air?"

She opened and shut her mouth a number of times and then said: "Well, I think you are a false prophet."

To which I kindly replied,

"The Lord bless you".

The question has often been asked . . . "What is that restraining force which prevents Antichrist being revealed earlier?" II Thess. 2:6-7 gives the answer:

"And now you know what withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time, for the mystery of iniquity doth already work, only he who now letteth will let until he be taken out of the way."

There are two main schools of thought on the meaning of that restraining force.

View A: The Bride of Christ, being the salt of the earth, prevents over-corruption. Once they are removed, everything will go rotten.

I reject this view, as verse 6 says "he", not "they".

View B: The Holy Spirit is the restraining force. When Christ meets His Bride in the clouds, the Holy Spirit will be taken away from the earth, with the same result as View A.

I reject this explanation, as the Book of Revelation clearly shows that multitudes will be saved (converted to Christ) in the midst of great tribulation, and it is impossible to be saved without the Holy Spirit. Therefore He will remain on earth even when the Bride is taken away.

View C: I believe the correct explanation is presented by Dr Ivan Panin, of Bible numerics fame.

The answer is given in verse 6 clearly presented in both the Amplified Bible and Panin's Numeric New Testament:

"And now ye know what restraineth, so that he may be revealed in his own season."

It is Antichrist who restrains himself from being revealed, until he gets the world set up exactly as he wants it — then, watch and see.

His appearance as E.E.C. leader is the Christian's second main clue as to the timing of the Coming of Christ in the air for His Bride.

Clue 1 — A tenth nation in the E.E.C.

Clue 2 — A leader who steps in to control it.

Clue 3 — He will be a man who speaks "Peace".

5. He must be Jewish:

Nowhere in the entire Bible do we read these words, yet it is implied very strongly in a number of passages:

(a) "I am come in my Father's name and ye receive me not, if another shall come in his OWN name, him ye will receive." Jn. 5:43.

This is a word of prophecy.

Our Lord Jesus Christ is of the tribe of Judah (Heb 7:14). The Jews are waiting for a Jewish Messiah, therefore it would be hopeless if a Chinese gentleman arrived on the world scene and expected the Jews to receive him as their Messiah King.

Therefore, Jesus is saying, because they refused the real, they will receive the false.

(b) This passage in II Thessalonians chapter two (which from V.1-12 speaks about Antichrist) says the same thing . . .

"Even him, whose coming is after the working of satan with all power, and signs and lying wonders (Antichrist) and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish, BECAUSE THEY RECEIVED NOT THE LOVE OF THE TRUTH (Jesus) that they might be saved, and for this cause, GOD SHALL SEND THEM STRONG DELUSION THAT THEY SHOULD BELIEVE A LIE" (that the Jewish E.E.C. leader is actually the Messiah.) V.9,10,11. (Emphasis added)

(c) If ever a verse needed careful explanation it is this next one. So many read it, then tell me that the Antichrist must be either a batchelor or a woman-hater.

n.b. This King James translation is partially faulty: "Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers (okay), nor the desire of women (wrong) nor regard any God, for he shall magnify himself above all (okay)." Dan. 11:37.

Let us re-examine the faulty portion. The Amplified Bible brings out the true original Hebrew sense:

" . . . or Him, to whom women desire to give birth" (Messiah). Every Jewish girl had that longing in her breast, to be the mother of the Messiah.

Mary was the chosen one, and the angel said . . . "Blessed art thou amongst women." Luke 1:28.b.

We can now turn back to Daniel and read our verse about Antichrist (E.E.C. leader) showing his Jewishness:

"He shall not regard the God of his fathers (Jehovah) nor him to whom women desire to give birth (Messiah — whom Christians know as the Lord Jesus Christ.)

In other words the E.E.C. leader will be a NON-RELIGIOUS JEW.

(d) This passage tells us, that having successfully misled the Jews, he will seek the worship of men, having his image put up in the Jewish Holy Place.

"When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation (image to E.E.C. leader) spoken of by Daniel the Prophet (not historian as liberal theologians believe) stand in the Holy Place (in the Jewish place of worship, probably the Great Synagogue in Jerusalem) whoso readeth let him understand." Matt. 24:15.

To arrive at the synagogue in Jerusalem and arrange for the unloading of a giant statue from a furniture truck would require the person to be a Jew of very strong standing in the area.

(e) This thought links, of course, with another passage in Daniel:

"And he (Antichrist, E.E.C. leader) shall confirm the Covenant (peace in the Middle East and Jewish Religious Sacrificial System starting up again; also notice the obvious trade link with the E.E.C. presupposed here) with many (the ten nations of the E.E.C. by now a super power — and the nation of Israel who are already linked through special agreements for trading) for one week (Hebrew word "Heptad" meaning a seven year period) and in the midst of the week (after three and a half years) he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease. (Why? Because he then transfers worship to himself in the form of this giant statue) . . ." Dan. 9:27.a.

6. A Man of Boasting Arrogance

"He has a mouth that speaks very great things . . ." Dan. 7:20.b.

Revelation, written hundreds of years later, says the same thing:

"And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months (three and a half years)." Rev. 13:5.

7. There is something special about his eyes

"Even of that horn that has eyes . . ." Dan. 7:20.b.

When you are reading about this man, news correspondents will remark from time to time about his eyes. For example: "He has an owl-like stare"!

8. He is outstanding in His Field

"Whose look was more stout than his fellows . . ." Dan. 7:20.b.

This does not mean that he needs to join "Weight-Watchers" but that in his field of diplomacy, in contrast with his peers, he is regarded as something of a phenomenon.

For further light on our Man, we now turn to the Book of Habakkuk.

The three main headings in this book are:

- (a) A World Condition.
- (b) A Nation.
- (c) A Man.

World Condition:

"Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth, for the wicked doth compass about the righteous, therefore wrong judgment proceedeth." Hab. 1:4.

Describes 1978 perfectly:

Illustration 1:

In Honolulu, Hawaii, there was a man loose who attacked, raped, and murdered young girls. He was apprehended whilst covered in blood, his car seats were torn and bloodstained, identified positively by witnesses who had only just managed to escape. He claimed he was in an accident — result — case dismissed.

Many policemen have lost interest in their jobs, as the law in many cases shows more concern for the criminal than for his victim.

Illustration 2:

The Education System, with its lax attitude to juvenile criminals in the making, their slack disciplinary standards with little or no corporal punishment, have unwittingly prepared a generation of lawless youngsters who will readily receive a man to run things, who is called in scripture "The Lawless One".

"For the mystery of lawlessness — that hidden principle of rebellion against constituted authority — is already at work in the world (but it is) restrained only until he who restrains is taken out of the way." II Thess. 2:7 (Amp.).

It is not by accident that in the book of Thessalonians, this new world leader is called "The Lawless One". Through the ruination of our children with permissive education, a whole generation of young people in this Western world will be ready to accept him when he arises.

I well remember the following incident which took place whilst I was teaching in a certain High School. It was during a school Assembly that one of the female staff members (who was very well built) was called upon to scold a girl pupil.

By the way, I have been told that 90% of women in the Western world are overweight. These are round figures of course.

Back to the story: The girl in question shouted back — "You silly fat old . . .!!?"

I went to the school counsellor after work and asked him what he was going to do about this disgraceful exhibition. He said, "I don't think you understand these children."

We must ask ourselves the question, "Why did the girl do this?"

I replied, "I don't really mind why she did it. I want to make sure she doesn't do it again."

Psychology has become the devil's substitute for the "Rod of Correction" (Prov. 22:15).

So, then a World Condition leads on to . . .

A Nation:

In the prophecies, the reader may find firstly an original meaning, then a hidden future meaning. In this case . . .

"For lo I will raise up the Chaldeans, that BITTER and HASTY NATION, which shall march through the breadth of the land to possess the dwelling places that are not theirs." Hab. 1:6.

The words "That bitter and hasty nation", have a thought built in to them in the original Hebrew language.

It is the concept of a lightening military manoeuvre which catches the enemy off balance.

The nation today in Western Europe famous for their "Blitzkrieg" movement in battle is the nation of Germany. It is thought by some prophetic teachers that this new World E.E.C. leader may rise from Germany.

In a news cutting I recently read the following statement: "Europe needs a man to unite it. If there is a modern Bismark, he may well be German."

A Man:

He is described variously in Hab. 2:4-6. So we continue on with our list.

9. He is not to be Trusted:

"Behold his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him." Hab. 2:4.a.

10. Good People Rely on Him:

"The just shall live by his faith." Hab. 2:4.b.

Please do not confuse this verse with the one in Rom. 1:17. Take note of the words "his faith" (his ability).

11. He is a Party-Type or Swinger:

"Yea, also because he transgresseth by wine." Hab. 2:5.a.

He apparently lets this type of life cause him to do some things which are not in keeping with the dignity expected of such a high office.

12. He Travels a Great Deal and Seeks World Domination:

"Neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people." Hab. 2:5.b.

The Amplified Bible says . . . "He gathers to himself all nations, and collects all people as if he owned them."

In Hab. 2:6, a warning is given him. The people that have been conned by him will ultimately see through his trickery and ask . . . "How long can he last?" He apparently also takes a fatherly interest in the weaker E.E.C. nations, and feathers his own nest taking advantage of their trust.

"To him that ladeth himself with thick clay" (weaker nations). Hab. 2:6.

Well we know already the answer to that question "How long?" — the answer is: 42 months (three and a half years) Rev. 13:5.

13. He Will Think to Change Times and Laws: Dan. 7:25.b.

The reason is obvious. His arch-enemy, the real Christ, was the one who left His mark on the Western World Time System.

Christ divided B.C. and A.D. His reality is attested every time you date a letter, or read the date on a coin. This annoys the E.E.C. leader who tries to change things.

Many other changes have already been made, which will make World Control easier:

- (a) Liquid measure — gallons to litres.
- (b) Distance measure — miles to kilometres.
- (c) Temperature — fahrenheit to celsius.
- (d) Finance — sterling to dollars and cents, etc.

We are living in a lawless age. Men like Freud have contributed to the thought that there are no longer any "absolutes".

I recall the following incident some years ago. I was attending a Christian camp and one afternoon called over to town to have my hair cut. The hairdresser asked me if I was a Bible-banger from the camp. I replied that I was indeed.

He then proceeded to tell me of his own godless philosophy which included the following statement:

"Each man makes up his own rules. What is good for me may not be good for you and vice versa."

I paid him then walked across to his display window and took out his pipes, tobacco, shaving cream, etc., and piled them up inside my jacket.

He shouted, "Hey what are you doing?"

I replied, "This may not be good for you but it is good for me!"

When I felt that he had grasped the foolishness of his argument, I replaced the articles.

God's law is absolute. We tamper with it at our peril.

14. He Will Cause Corruption and Destruction:

"He shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and holy people." Dan. 8:24.b.

The thought of corruption is also included here. Things normally considered immoral and disgusting will be given official sanction. People protesting will be laughed to scorn and considered not "with it".

15. He Will Not Work Alone — Another Will Assist Him:

"And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power . . ." Dan. 8:24.a. His helper will be religious: The False Prophet.

Here is a clue as to the source of his strength. Politics made interesting with a dash of the spectacular and supernatural.

16. He Will Be An Outwardly Peaceful Man and A Flatterer:

"He shall come in peaceably and obtain the kingdom by flatteries." Dan. 11:21.b.

Watch out then, for a smooth-talking diplomat who says one thing but means another.

17. Once Accepted Will Permit an Image of Himself to be Installed in the Holy Place:

The building will probably be the Great Synagogue recently built in Jerusalem.

Christ, at His coming, will build His own Temple. See Acts 15:16. It is unthinkable that He would inhabit a building already defiled by Antichrist.

"And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away three and a half years) and the abomination that maketh desolate shall be set up (an image to the E.E.C. leader) there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days (= 30 days warning = three and a half years tribulation)." Dan. 12:11, i.e. 30 + 1260 days.

Jesus refers to this passage too:

"When ye therefore see the abomination of desolation (image to the E.E.C. leader) spoken of by Daniel the Prophet (not historian) stand in the Holy Place (in the Great Synagogue in Jerusalem) whoso readeth, let him understand" (that this is the warning key to the beginning of the tribulation period). Matt. 24:15.

. . . "The son of perdition (E.E.C. leader — this name given for final stage of his ministry, e.g. Judas Iscariot), who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God." II. Thess. 2:4, 2:36.

The fact that Jesus refers back to Daniel shows the importance of this image. Mainly to show the beginning of the tribulation period.

18. He Will Confirm a Seven-Year Treaty and Will Break it After Three and a Half Years.

"And he shall confirm the covenant with many (probably E.E.C., Israelis and the Arab nations, excluding Egypt (with whom a peace treaty has already been signed)) for one week (Hebrew term 'Heptad' meaning seven-year period), and in the midst of the week (after three and a half years) he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease." Dan. 9:27.a.

The first three and a half years is to establish diplomatic ties between the E.E.C. and Israel, bring a suitable Peace Treaty to the Middle East, and establish himself as a "jolly good fellow" — Only Christian Bible believers will be wise enough not to become sucked in and conned by the world's No. 1 confidence trickster.

Notice: "For when THEY (E.E.C. leader and his pawns, also the Arabs and Palestineans) shall say 'peace and safety', then sudden destruction cometh upon THEM (E.E.C. Leader, his pawns, and the rest of the world's unbelievers) as travail upon a woman with child, and THEY (E.E.C. leader, his pawns and the rest of the world's unbelievers) shall not escape.

But ye brethren (born again, Bible believing, watching, clean, Christians) are not in darkness (like the rest of the world) that that day (of Christ's return) should overtake you as a thief." I. Thess. 5:3-4. (Emphasis added)

How will we know the beginning of this period: N.B. CHRIST- IANS. When this Jewish World Leader arises and puts his seal upon a seven-year PEACE TREATY between the Arab races, Israel and others — start counting. You have just 3½ years left. Get ready. We're going up.

Remember now:

- (a) A tenth nation in the E.E.C.
- (b) A Jewish leader,
- (c) A Seven-year Treaty,
- (d) Peace talk,
- (e) Sudden destruction.

The Christians leave right on the eve of the tribulation (see later for explanation).

19. He will be Destroyed by Christ as his Public Coming at the end of the Tribulation:

"And then shall that Wicked (E.E.C. leader) be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with "(a)" the spirit of His mouth, and shall destroy with "(b)" the brightness of His coming" (unshielded, unveiled light — an essence of God's being.) II. Thess. 2:8.

It is clear that because "no man can see God and live" Jesus was a fleshly veil which covered this lethal light and thus became the only way to God. On the Mount of Transfiguration, Jesus leaked out some of that light and those who came in contact with that glow reflected the same. Cf. Moses converses with God in the Old Testament.

Lesson — Reflected light from Jesus can bring illumination and help, but in its pure state (i.e. God, 1 John 1:5) it will kill. Better hide in Jesus.

As we said before, he will not work alone.

Another chapter deals with his religious counterpart — The False Prophet.

The very two subjects that many say they do not wish to discuss in the morning tea break, are the very two subjects that will shortly be on everyone's lips.

POLITICS AND RELIGION.

Before going on, let us summarise the characteristics of the E.E.C. leader:

E.E.C. LEADER

1. He will arise after the ten nations.
2. Three of the Ten will be uprooted by him.
3. He will arise out of the nations — possibly German origins.
4. One man — not a committee.
5. He must be Jewish.
6. A man of boasting arrogance.
7. Something special about his eyes.
8. Outstanding in his field — peace negotiations.
9. Not to be trusted.
10. Good people rely on him.
11. A party type, or swinger.
12. World traveller who seeks world domination — he is a One Worlder.
13. Will consider changing times and laws.
14. Will cause corruption and destruction.
15. Will not work alone — has a counterpart in religion.
16. Outwardly peaceful and a flatterer.
17. Will allow his image to be installed in Jewish Holy Place.
18. Will confirm a Seven-year Treaty.
19. Will be destroyed by Christ at His public coming.

Relevant Questions:

Q.1. Is he alive now?

A. Obviously yes. The E.E.C. Commissioners are searching for such a man.

Q.2. Is he an apparently evil type of person?

A. No. A respectable diplomat, who has established good relations with many nations.

Q.3. Is it Henry Kissinger?

A. We do not know at this stage.

Having once read the list of characteristics, one's thoughts immediately turn to Kissinger. After most public meetings held on this subject of "The New World Leader", this question is invariably asked.

Warning: It is very unwise to make definite claims until you are positive, that this is indeed the one. The Bible teaches that there are many "antichrists" but only one Antichrist (E.E.C. leader).

CONFER³⁶ = COMPARE

"Little children, it is the last time, and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time." 1 John 2:18.

Other possibilities over the centuries: Nero, Napoleon, Mussolini, Hitler, The Pope.

Since 1970 I have kept a file on Henry Kissinger, along with other suspects. The others have all fallen by the wayside, so I now open my file up to public gaze.

Even now we do not know for sure, as another may suddenly spring into world prominence at any time.

Characteristics — Henry Kissinger:

What is He doing Now? (written March 1978)

1.a. During the past few months he has been speaking widely on European subjects such as "The dangers of Euro-Communism in Italy and France in Particular".

Recently ousted from his office as "Secretary of State" of the United States of America, "he let it be known that he is officially open to job offers — such avenues as Television Commentator, Newspaper Columnist and Academic are among the guesses. Whatever the outcome, it is unthinkable that such a man should drop into relative obscurity.

Few would deny that he has displayed phenomenal brilliance and energy and has been gifted with the ability to gain the confidence of world leaders, who have coldly rebuffed the persistent approaches of others." (Evening Post, Wellington, 13.11.76)

Otago Daily Times, 1.6.77: "He has dropped plans to become a Professor at Columbia University following objections by students and some of the faculty. Many students objected because of Dr Kissinger's roles in the Vietnam war, Chile, and the wire-tapping of certain United States officials. Some teachers also complained that the procedure for hiring Dr Kissinger was against the regulations."

1.b. European Interest:

Even whilst working as Secretary of State, Kissinger had his eyes on Europe. He dubbed 1973 "The Year of Europe".

For years a student of European Political History (a strange hobby for a U.S. diplomat with so much to do for America).

For 20 years he had been an academic, specialising in the study, analysis, and teaching of international relations; for 20 years he had dreamed the dream of all academics — the chance to try out his theories in practise.

Whilst in college, both as a student, then later as a lecturer, he made friends with men who would later become leaders in their own countries — valuable contacts e.g. Valéry Giscard d'Estaing.

For years he studied the policies of men like Prince Metternich of Austria, also Napoleon and Bismark.

Europe has been this man's obsession for years. My daughter recently studied the lives of Metternich and Bismark for her examinations. She loaned me the books to read and I was fascinated.

Much of Henry Kissinger's thinking is drawn from the lives of these two devious and downright deceptive politicians. It would pay the serious student to investigate this further.

At this time of revision (December 8th, 1979) Henry Kissinger is being blamed for the dispute between Iran and the U.S.A. through his lobbying to bring the deposed Shah into America for medical treatment. This resulted in the imprisonment of many U.S. hostages in Teheran.

"A White House official quoted anonymously in the Boston Globe newspaper reacted angrily, 'Henry Kissinger is a devious and dishonourable man.' "

2. He is a German-born Jew, yet concerned that people understand he is not "Religious".

In an article entitled "U.S. Jews Mixed Feelings on their Boy" we read: " 'He is not Jewish', a Miami doctor said. 'He doesn't belong to a temple. He is not identified with any Jewish causes, like Israel or our charities. He is not one of us.' " (Auckland Star, 10.11.73.)

"Kissinger was born to orthodox Jewish parents, and had a Jewish education during his early years in Germany. His parents still go regularly to a Manhattan temple on the Sabbath.

When he became Secretary of State, on a Saturday, Rabbi Cyrus Arfa of Brooklyn's Reformed Temple asked . . . "Did he have to get sworn in on Saturday? There was no danger if he had waited until Monday. It's a small point, but it was the Sabbath."

"Friends say it was a deliberate move, not intended to be insulting to the Jewish Community, but none-the-less intended to show the distance between him, and the religion in which he was raised."

"Kissinger is reluctant to discuss his religion."

On one occasion, however, he mentioned that he did say his prayers at night, closing by asking God if there was anything he could do for him (tongue in cheek, no doubt.)

Henry Kissinger is a non-religious German-born Jew.

3. He is a man of boasting arrogance. When asked by a reporter how people should address him after his becoming

Secretary of State, Kissinger replied: "Your Excellency would be in order."

4. Regarding his eyes, reporters often refer to that "owl-like stare".

5. Is he outstanding in his field?

He closed down the war in Vietnam; settled the Yom Kippur battle in 1973; brought about a peace negotiation between Israel and Syria. He also managed to get the U.S. to recognise Red China, one of its bitterest enemies.

In spite of all his PEACE efforts, however, he does not really seek for lasting peace.

His two key phrases are: "Balance of Power", in which he balances two nations, one against the other, not completely at peace, nor really looking for war. He might be called "A Master Puppeteer."

The second phrase is: "A Global Concept". To Kissinger small nations don't count. He views every set of peace negotiations as an opportunity to create a New World Order, apparently with himself running it.

6. He is not to be trusted. It is important to bear in mind that one of his heroes is Prince Von Metternich, an Austrian statesman who was prominent in Europe from 1814-1848. This man did not believe in democracy, and was known for his deceptive-type negotiating.

In 1813, Metternich convinced Napoleon that Austria was neutral. The very next day, Austria joined Prussia and Russia against Napoleon.

A master of long-sounding words and ambiguous phrases, Kissinger has proved himself an able scholar. A simpler term might be applied to him — very deceptive.

What will happen ultimately in Iran?

There will be much more fighting and the Communist trained "students" will gradually increase their strength over Islamic rule. A letter to the Newspaper Editor recently asked "When do these 'Students' fit in time for study?" Actually they are communist trained infiltrators patiently waiting for the Russians to move in to Iran en route to Israel. Russia will finally take over and will unite with (Persia) Iran and other North African countries for an all out assault on Israel. Yasser Arafat recently said, "The way to Israel is through Iran." Read Ezek 38:1-7. N.B. Persia.

7. Good people rely on him:

One biographer put it this way: "If the voice typifies anything about the man, it is his remarkable ability to argue a point, and to argue it well to make his listeners seize on his views, and want to make them their own. It is the kind of voice that creates sympathy and confidence that the words behind it are wise and correct."

His peace policies are here outlined:

The participating nation states must have armed forces at their disposal. The threat of military action, though unspoken (generally) would play a central part in the negotiating process itself.

Should negotiations collapse, the resort to military action by an endangered power would be permissible as long as the larger sovereign interests common to every nation state were upheld and dutifully recognised.

N.B. To avoid conflict, or arrange a settlement, complex and intricate negotiating strategies would be required, implications and overtones, subtle threats and nuanced exaggerations — and outright lies, all played a central part.

8. A party-type, yes, and swinger certainly. This man can travel thousands of miles, take a shower, show no signs of jet-lag, conduct a full-scale major interview or discussion, then go on to an all-night party.

A news-cutting entitled "Fatigued Casualties of Peace", reads thus . . . "Nearly four weeks of diplomatic shuffling by Dr Henry Kissinger is leaving his aides, reporters, and security guards exhausted and prone to illness. The fast moving Dr Kissinger has managed to escape illness and fatigue." (Herald. 29.5.74)

In April 1976 he was described officially ill for the first time in his career of seven years non-stop diplomacy (due to the eating of spicy food).

He has a history of partying with some of the most beautiful women in the U.S.A. and elsewhere. To name a few: Zsa Zsa Gabor, Judy Brown (an X-rated starlet of porno film fame), Marlo Thomas, Gloria Steinem, Angel Tomkins, Barbara Howar. He married, finally, to a tall girl named Nancy Maginnes.

9. He is a world-traveller extraordinaire and clearly seeks world domination. One of his key phrases "A New World Order" sums it up.

"A New World Order of Peace, that is his goal" said Louis Kissinger, 86, the cabinet officer's father. (Evening Post 21.11.73)

In his maiden speech as the new U.S. Secretary of State, he entitled his message: "A Vision of Peace".

Whilst he was in office, however, some people became suspicious when they looked back on the results of his work.

Henry is a One World Government advocate, and believes Europe to be the most suitable place for a headquarters.

There is a book on the market entitled: "Henry Kissinger Soviet Agent."

Is it possible that this man was a traitor all along?

Kissinger — Achievements

1. Had a founder of the U.N. kicked out of the U.N. i.e. Republic of China, Taiwan, and had Communist China take its position. (Communist Advantage).

2. In Strategic Arms Limitations Treaty, saw to it that the U.S. obeyed the Treaty but allowed the Russians to continue creating new weapons (S.A.L.T.). Russia is now far ahead in the arms race. (Communist Advantage).

3. Supplied masses of technology to Russia, thus helped build their War Machine. (Communist Advantage).

4. Sent masses of U.S. wheat to Russia on very easy terms, thus saving Russian Communism from disaster. (Communist Advantage).

5. Heard of a plan to assassinate Chairman Mao, notified him of the plan and thus saved Chinese Communism a terrible set back. The conspirators were executed. (Communist Advantage).

6. Worked with the North Vietnamese to guarantee victory to the Communists in Vietnam. (Communist Advantage.) He even had the gall to receive the Nobel Peace Prize and kept it when Le Duc Tho returned his.

7. Worked with the U.S. and Russia in the Middle East peace talks. (Had Communist sympathy).

8. Arranged for a reconciliation with Communist Cuba, who later sent troops to help take over Angola. (Communist Advantage).

9. He has made strong suggestions to Rhodesia for the setting up of a black majority government. All his plans culminate in an ultimate Communist Advantage. We can simply sit back and watch Rhodesia go. No doubt South Africa will get similar treatment. (Communist Advantage).

10. He was completely in the grip of another One World Government Man — Nelson Rockefeller, who gave him a gift of $50,000 prior to Henry becoming Secretary of State. This, of course, gave Rockefeller a finger in the Foreign Policy pie.

It is not for nothing that Henry is called "Rocky's Boy" referring to Nelson's brother David of Chase Manhattan Bank fame. (More of this later — under heading "Mystery of Iniquity").

A recent speaker summed up Dr Henry Kissinger as one of the most dangerous traitors of the western world since the end of World War II.

Others, such as readers of the French right-wing newspaper "L'Aurore" away back in 1972 voted Henry Kissinger their top man of the year.

The only way to ultimately be sure of Antichrist's identity is to watch for a Jew to head up the Common Market in Europe, and to bring about a Peace Treaty in the Middle East.

Kissinger may or may not be the man. Watch and see.

Finally — the question is asked, does his name = 666. The answer is "Yes".

"Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast (E.E.C. leader) for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundred three score and six." Rev. 13:18.

Here is your key chart. Add six more to each letter.

a = 6 (the number of man)

b = 12

c = 18

d = 24

e = 30

f = 36

g = 42

h = 48

i = 54

j = 60

k = 66

l = 72

m = 78

n = 84

o = 90

p = 96

q = 102

r = 108

s = 114

t = 120

u = 126

v = 132

w = 138

x = 144

y = 150

z = 156

K = 66

I = 54

S = 114

I = 54

N = 84

G = 42

E = 30

666 which is just short — of perfection.

God's Number = 777.

The Greek language has numerics built into it.
The Greek version of Jesus is: ιησους

ι = 10 (Iota)
 η = 8 (Eta) σ = 200 (Sigma) ο = 70 (Omicron)
 μ η 400 (Upsilon)
 ς η 200 (Sigma)

 = 888 which is God + Man a new order or Perfection + A New Beginning.

Therefore: Antichrist — 666
 God — 777
 Jesus — 888

* * * *

Working along with the E.E.C. leader is the leader of the One World Church. He is called "The False Prophet" or the "Second Beast". Thus, in these days we will see a satanic trinity arise:
 Satan — in the place of — God the Father
 Antichrist — in the place of — God the Son False Prophet — in the place of — God the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER THREE

THE FALSE PROPHET

The leadership of the One World Church, commenced in 1948 under the heading of the W.C.C. (World Council of Churches). Their headquarters is a stone's throw from the E.E.C. headquarters in Brussels, Belgium. This is important, as they will work together.

The W.C.C.'s grants to guerilla organisations have unleashed a flood of protest from around the world.

I have in front of me a cartoon taken from a daily paper showing satan on the telephone and speaking to God.

"Morning God. Devil speaking. My take-over bid for the world is going very well, and the World Council of Churches has defected from your side to mine."

At a recent conference in Nairobi, Kenya, the following groups were present.

- (a) The five negotiating Churches for Union — Anglican, Presbyterian, Associated Churches of Christ, Methodist, Congregational.
- (b) Roman Catholics, Bhuddists, Sikhs, Moslems, Hindus.

These were there as observers at this stage.

As an observer at a previous W.C.C. meeting at Uppsala, Sweden, Malcolm Muggeridge had this to say: "One may be excused for noting that institutional Christianity is inexorably extinguishing itself. At Uppsala, one could clearly see that they agreed on almost everything as they believed almost nothing. They reminded me of a group of drunks that I observed in a country Pub, in my youth. Individually they would have fallen over, but collectively they managed to remain upright."

Bible Description of Leader:

"And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth (arises not from the nations outside the E.E.C. but out of the earth" within the E.E.C. i.e. Italy — Rome — Religion) Cf. Rev. 17:9 and 18, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." Rev. 13:11.

This is a perfect picture of religion.

Lamb = soft, loving, Christian.

Outwardly, apparently the real thing.

Dragon = Identified as Satan (Rev. 20:2).

Inwardly out to destroy.

Religion — taken from the source word "Religare" = To Bind.

FALSE PROPHET

Do not confuse "Religion" with "Christ". Jesus said: "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." Jn. 8:36.

Simply then — If you are seeking to find God, don't become religious or you will find yourself becoming bound up.

Do receive Christ, deep down in your heart. Ask him in, and you will be set free from your old life.

Description of Second Beast (False Prophet)

V.12. "And he (False Prophet) exerciseth all the power of the first beast (E.E.C. leader) before him (E.E.C. leader) and he (the False Prophet) causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast (E.E.C. leader) whose deadly wound was healed." Rev. 13:12.

Assassination? Surely not!

There are three verses in this chapter which refer to this deadly wound. Old-time students of the prophecies thought it to mean a revived Roman empire.

This is not likely to be the correct explanation as verse 14 refers to the image being made to represent the beast (E.E.C. leader) which had the wound by the sword and did live.

Masses of people today are satisfying their longing for the supernatural by delving into occult practices. What better way to gain world headlines and thus gain people's attention by presenting a seemingly miraculous resurrection from the dead by this man called Antichrist. This is simply his fleshly answer to the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

"And all the world wondered after the beast." Rev. 13:3.b.

"And he (the False Prophet) doeth great wonders so that he (the False Prophet) maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth, in the sight of men." Rev. 13:13.

At this stage it is important to specify the role of the False Prophet:

He is the central link in the chain, carrying supernatural power from satan (first person) to Antichrist (second person).

He is the Press Agent, the Business Manager, to this E.E.C. leader.

Therefore, he gains world attention with his miraculous powers, then recommends Antichrist.

This sign of fire from heaven is very significant to the Jewish mind. Any Jew who reads his Prophets knows this verse:

"Behold I will send you Elijah the Prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord." Mal. 4:5.

The sign of Elijah generally was fire from heaven. Now you can see the reasoning.

Although Jesus said John the Baptist was an appearance of a man in the Spirit of Elijah (Matt. 11:12-14), according to Malachi, ANTICHRIST AND FALSE PROPHET (FALSE PROPHET CALLING FIRE FROM HEAVEN AND POINTING TO

there is to be another appearance prior to Christ's Second Coming in Judgment.

The Jews see this man calling down fire from heaven — they say, "This must be Elijah, and the man he is recommending must be Christ (the Messiah)" — they will be fooled.

"I am come in my Father's Name, and ye receive me not, if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." Jn. 5:43. Jesus speaks prophetically here.

Verse 14: "And (the False Prophet) deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast (E.E.C. leader) saying to them that dwell on the earth that they should make an image (abomination that maketh desolate — see Dan. 12:11 and Matt. 24:5) — (i.e. this image to the E.E.C. leader will stand in the Holy Place in Jerusalem for the tribulation period of three and a half years) to the beast (E.E.C. leader) which had the wound by a sword (assassination attempt) and did live."

For many years atheistic communism has led an unbelieving world in a desperate search for the secret of life. Discover this, and they feel they can safely do away with the idea of God.

Problem: Scientists can make a bean, with all the correct minerals etc. They plant it alongside a real one, and in the fulness of time, only one sprouts and comes into view. This is God's bean, of course, as the other one lacks one simple ingredient — Life.

Many in the world believe the ramblings of unbelieving scientists and have their bodies, or parts thereof, deep frozen at death, hoping that one day someone will discover the secret of life, give them an injection which will bring them back to health and vigour. How sad are those who try to do without God.

For example: In a newspaper article we read "Cold Mind awaits Rebirth". The brain of a murdered 15-year-old girl has been frozen because her parents hope that it can one day be used to reconstitute a person exactly like her . . . The brain was being preserved at minus 200°C, in the hope that at some future time scientists will be able to recreate P . . ."

There are many such parlours in the U.S.A. and elsewhere where people can have their bodies preserved. Above the door of one such establishment one may read these words written: "Many are cold, but few are frozen!"

Included in his list of seemingly supernatural feats, this False Prophet not only has an image built to the E.E.C. leader, but gives it the ability to speak. He gives it a life-like quality.

Verse 15: "And he (False Prophet) had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and (the False Prophet) cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast (E.E.C. leader) should be killed."

The killing of all who resist is organised by both the E.E.C. leader, and the World Church leader (False Prophet) using the following methods:

"And I looked, and behold a pale horse, and his name that sat on him was Death (final stage of E.E.C. leader's ministry) and Hell (a helper) followed with him and power was given unto THEM (E.E.C. leader and False Prophet) over the fourth (1/4) part of the earth (E.E.C. countries and trading partners) to kill with (a) Sword (beheading — French guillotine is now being used again) (b) and with Hunger and with Death (without the mark, no buying or selling — result, starvation) (c) and with The Beasts of the Earth" (the days of Nero will be revived again and believers will do battle with beasts to give "kicks" to unbelieving masses.) Rev. 6:8.

The Mark of the Beast — What is it?

1. It is definitely not the keeping of Sunday as a Holy Day, in preference to Saturday.

The reason is clear. After Joshua's long day in the Old Testament, the seventh day of the week ended on Sunday evening, and still does.

Note the diagrams below.

OUR WEEK

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT	SUN
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	1
↓	↓	↓	↓	↓	↓	↓	↓

CHRONOLOGICAL WEEK

DAY	DAY	DAY	JOSHUA'S LONG	DAY	DAY	DAY
1	2	3	DAY — DAY 4	5	6	7

Therefore, because of Joshua's long day, Sunday now falls on the seventh day of the week, and Christians who worship on Sunday worship chronologically on the seventh day of the week.

Our Sunday is the same as the old Jewish Saturday. (Please blame Joshua).

It is clear then, that the mark of the beast must be something else.

Rev. 13:7 tells us clearly that it is to do with buying and selling. It is the old ration card or coupon all over again, this time not in a ration book, but printed on the individual's hand or forehead for quick and easy trading.

Verse 16: "And he (False Prophet) causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

Verse 17: and that no man might buy or sell save he that had the (a) mark, (b) or the name of the beast, (c) or the number of his name."

Rank and position will no longer be of value in this day. The rule will be — take the mark or die, and it is not very far away. See chapter on New World Money System for further details.

We now sum up the duties of the Second Beast:

1. He is called the False Prophet.
2. He is the leader of the One World Church.
3. He looks Christian, but is satanic within.
4. He uses one of Elijah's signs — fire from heaven.
5. This is done in collaboration with the E.E.C. leader — giving the church's blessing to the political takeover of the world.
6. He makes an image to the E.E.C. leader, and has it put in the Holy Place in Jerusalem.
7. He gives life to the image which commences to speak.
8. He commands all to worship the image.
9. He forces all to receive a trading mark, to use in buying and selling.

Some people feel that these two are one and the same person. The Bible shows us clearly that there are two men, led by Satan, which makes up three.

The end of these three is clearly foretold:

Doom to Satan and his Men:

"And the beast (E.E.C. leader) was taken, and with him the false prophet (One World Church Leader) that wrought miracles before him (E.E.C. leader) with which he (False Prophet) deceived them that hath received the mark of the beast (E.E.C. leader) and them that worshipped his (E.E.C. leader's) image. These BOTH were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone." Rev. 19:20. (Emphasis added)

Timing — Right at the end of the tribulation period (three and a half years) during the Battle of Armageddon.

The third member of the party, satan, then falls in the bottomless pit for 1000 years.

"And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent which is the devil, and satan, and bound him a thousand years; and cast him into the bottomless pit . . . and after that he must be loosed a little season." Rev. 20:2 and 3.b.

Anyone who has fallen from a tree knows how long it seems to take before hitting the ground. One would think satan would be reforming himself during this fall, but no, like many jail-birds, he is preparing for his next job once released. Upon being set free

SATANIC TRINITY: SATAN ON THRONE IN THE AIR
ANTICHRIST AND FALSE PROPHET ON THE EARTH

he tries for the final time to come against the Lord in Jerusalem, but fire from heaven destroys his armies. . . .

"And the devil that deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast (E.E.C. leader) and the false prophet (One World Church Leader) ARE (present tense at this time) and (satan, E.E.C. leader, and One World Church Leader) shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever." Rev. 20:10. (Emphasis added)

And then there were none.

The E.E.C. Leader's Reign:

Is portrayed in the Bible as being in four stages. To understand this, is to understand the timing of the coming of the Lord Jesus for His Bride.

In Rev. 6:1-8 there are four horses portrayed. These are the four stages of the E.E.C. leader's ministry. The rider is the same man who changes horses regularly:

Seal One — White Horse — E.E.C. Leader — Man of Peace.

Seal Two — Red Horse — E.E.C. Leader — Man of War.

Seal Three — Black Horse — E.E.C. Leader — Man of Food Distribution in Time of Famine.

Seal Four — Pale Horse — E.E.C. Leader — Man of Death — Kills rebels who refuse mark.

Amplification of Seals 1-4:

Man of Peace — Stage 1:

All over the world there is a growing dissatisfaction with things as they are. Particularly in the Western World, permissiveness has escalated out of control. World leaders in the field of education have sown the wind, and are now reaping a whirlwind — student revolt, strikes, civil disobedience and wars show clearly that democracy cannot last.

Maybe Plato, that old Greek philosopher, was correct when he said words to this effect: "No democracy can last for very long. It will ultimately turn into a tyranny" (dictatorship).

When the E.E.C. leader begins his public ministry, it will be as a peace-maker. The Middle East problem will be brought to a temporary halt. A treaty will be signed, and things will look good.

During this time of peace, Israel generally will disband its armies, defenses will come down, and PEACE will last for nearly three and a half years.

Born Again Christian people will become very excited because this is their cue to get themselves ready.

All the unbelieving world will be watching this White Horse rider — the E.E.C. leader (Antichrist).

Reasons this is not Christ —

FOUR HORSES: WHITE, RED, BLACK, PALE

In Rev. 19, Christ comes on a white horse too. Note the differences:

Rev. 6:

1. Rider unidentified.
2. One Crown (head of one system).
3. Bow in hand (no arrows) — Peace.
4. Chronologically correct for Antichrist.

Rev. 19:

Rider identified.

Names:

Faithful — The Word of God
True — King of Kings
Secret Name — Lord of Lords.

Many Crowns. (Head of everything).

Sharp sword from mouth and rod of iron in hand — will rule all nations.

Chronologically correct for Christ.

In Rev. 6, the first rider then is the E.E.C. leader. The whole section of the world under E.E.C. trade agreements looks to him to solve all problems.

Just as things are looking good, peace in the Middle East, stable trading patterns established. . . .

"For when THEY (unbelievers) shall say PEACE AND SAFETY, then sudden destruction cometh upon THEM (unbelievers) as travail upon a woman with child, and THEY (unbelievers) shall not escape.

But YE brethren (Born Again Believers) are not in darkness that that day (return of Christ for His Bride in the air) should overtake you as a thief." I. Thess. 5:3-4. (Emphasis added)

Man of War — Stage 2.

The rider gets off his peace horse and is vitally involved in killing people (Rev. 6:4). This is the beginning of the Great Tribulation (Big Trouble).

Man of Food Distribution — Famine — Stage 3.

He climbs on to a black horse, and has a set of scales in his hand. He is pictured charging very high prices for small amounts of food.

It is good to note that he is forbidden (by a force greater than his own, i.e. God) to touch the oil (the Holy Spirit who is still around at this time) and the wine (which is the stimulation or joy of the believer). Many will be saved during this Tribulation period.

Man of Death — Stage 4.

His ministry moves from seemingly "good" to "bad" to "worse", to "the very worst". By this time, the New World Money System involving computers and individual numbering of human beings is under way. Many who reject this system (not only Christians, but others who hate the idea of becoming a statistic) will fall victims to this man who really begins to apply the pressure.

Secret police are everywhere and numbering will take place in the streets, using mobile equipment.

* * * *

Note the steps again:

1. Ten Nations finally in the E.E.C.
2. A Jewish Leader.
3. He cries PEACE to the World.

BETWEEN THE WHITE HORSE AND THE RED HORSE,
CHRIST MEETS HIS BRIDE IN THE AIR (I. THESS. 4:16-17).

Can This be Proved from Scripture?

At the time of writing, there is much debate amongst Christians as to the timing of Christ's meeting with His Bride. There are three main views:

- (a) Before the Tribulation — PRE
- (b) After the Tribulation — POST
- (c) In the middle of the Tribulation — MID

One preacher put it this way. "The Post people hope for the best, whilst the Pre people have the best hope."

An ex Principal of the N.Z.B.T.I. called Rev. John Deane was asked: "Are you a Pre or a Post?" to which he replied: "What a PrePosterous question."!

I have learned over the years that the Bible is full of seeming paradoxes (or inconsistencies), yet in most of these paradoxes the answer lies somewhere in the middle, e.g. predestination versus election.

Regarding the question of the catching away of the Bride into the air, the key point, strangely enough, is to find the correct length of the tribulation period.

NOWHERE in Scripture does it say that the Tribulation is seven years in length. The only reference to seven years is found in Daniel 9:27. Even then, it is clear that the Tribulation starts half-way through that period.

Three terms used in Daniel and Revelation:

- (a) 42 months — A 30 day Jewish calendar month is used = three and a half years.
- (b) 1260 days — A 30 day Jewish calendar month is used = three and a half years.

NOAH IN ARK

(c) Time (singular — one year) + Times (plural — two years) + half = three and a half years.

Never, never, never seven years.

The Bride goes on the eve of the three and a half year Tribulation.

Proof Passage:

I realise that most Christians know many of these Scriptures well. My prayer to the Lord has always been, "Please dear Lord, help me to put it all together, so that we may understand." ("The wise will understand" — a promise from Dan. 12:10.b.)

When I came up against this timing question, I met a block wall. Other's ideas could not satisfy, then one night the Lord showed me, very clearly: Here it is:

Luke 17:26-30.

In this passage Jesus is discussing the Kingdom of God and His second coming, first with the Pharisees, then with the Disciples (verses 20-22).

Over in V.26-29 He gives two illustrations of His coming, and in verse 30 the reality.

Understand this and get your timing right —

Illustration No. 1: Noah. Verses 26-27.

"And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be (it will be just like this) also in the days of the Son of man (Jesus);

They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage UNTIL THE DAY that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all."

In this illustration God's chosen was Noah. The Day of Noah was a bad day — THE FLOOD.

Illustration No. 2: Lot. Verses 28-29.

"Likewise also, as it was in the days of Lot, they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded (notice they didn't get married, they were mainly homosexuals) but THE SAME DAY that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all."

In this illustration God's chosen was Lot. The Day of Lot was a bad day — THE FIRE.

These two illustrations point to: THE REALITY. The Bride and Christ's Return. Verse 30: "Even THUS SHALL IT BE, in the day when the Son of man (Christ) is revealed."

The two illustrations, said Jesus, are perfect pictures of His Coming again for His Bride.

Please note: The Bride is made up of individuals from many different church denominations. Jesus is the Heavenly bridegroom. See Mth. 9:15.

Noah, God's chosen, was saved on the eve of THE FLOOD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Lot, God's chosen, was saved on the eve of THE FIRE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Therefore, the Bride of Christ (God's chosen) will be saved on the eve of the TRIBULATION (of which The Flood and Fire are pictures)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FINALLY, Christ always spoke the Truth	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Please tick one.

Noah was Saved — Lot was Saved — The Bride will be Saved.

	Yes	No	I don't know
What About You?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Please tick one.

There are four qualifications to help us be prepared for Christ's coming for His Bride:

1. Born Again.

"Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see (understand) the Kingdom of God." John 3:3.b.

"That which is born of the flesh is flesh (pinch yourself and see if you're real) and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." John 3:6.

Therefore, if you have already been born from your mother, you need to be born again from the Spirit of God.

If you are born once, you will die twice.

If you are born twice, you will die once.

In every birth, a father and a mother are involved. It is just like that in the New Birth.

Agents of the New Birth:

Father — The Holy Spirit of God. (The same Spirit that created Jesus in Mary's womb. Luke 1:35).

Mother — The Word of God. (Seed which will not rot.) 1 Pet. 1:23.

A woman untouched by a man will never bring forth a child. The Bible, read like any other book will not save you. When the Spirit of God (Father) unites with the Word of God (Mother) in your heart, YOU will be Born Again.

Please do not accept any substitutes. Here is a list:

- (a) Church membership — good, but not the New Birth.
- (b) Confirmation — a Church rite, but not the New Birth.

- (c) Communion — A good thing, but not the New Birth.
- (d) Baptism — A good thing, but not the New Birth.
- (e) Good living and good works — good things, but neither of these is the New Birth.
- (f) Becoming a Minister or holding Church Office — not the New Birth.
- (g) Praying and Bible reading — not the New Birth.

There are three initial steps, and then a fourth to be taken . . .

Steps to New Birth:

Are You Willing?

	Yes	No
1. Repent of your sin — Turn away from your sin — turn to Jesus.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Believe with all your heart — Christ died for you — thank Him for that.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Receive Christ — In prayer, tell Him you open your heart to Him. Invite Him in and close the door behind Him.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Please tick one.

Now, take a note of the time and date. Write it down. Read this:

"But as many as received Him (Jesus) to them gave He power (the right) to BECOME the son's of God" John 1:12.

Did you receive Christ just now?

Then thank Him. Close your eyes, look upwards, and breathe His name — Lord Jesus, thank you for saving me. I love you.

Now you have taken the first three steps. That is great. There is one more. You must tell someone . . .

- (a) Your Pastor, Minister, Priest, etc, or
- (b) Your husband, wife, child,
- (c) Your friend or neighbour.

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, THOU SHALT BE SAVED." Rom. 10:9.

Can this be explained a little more? Try this —

"For with the HEART man BELIEVETH unto RIGHTEOUSNESS, and with the MOUTH CONFESSION is made unto salvation." V.10. (Emphasis added)

You cannot keep it inside. I'm sorry. God's conditions are clear. In fact, if you miss out on doing these two things you will be looking desperately for a lawyer when you stand before God.

Look — Jesus speaking again:

"Whosoever therefore shall CONFESS ME BEFORE MEN, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven" — Good,

RAPTURE VIEWED FROM BELOW

but OH-OH! "But whosoever shall DENY ME BEFORE MEN (don't tell anybody) him also will I DENY BEFORE MY FATHER which is in heaven." Matt.10:32-33. (Emphasis added)

If you find you require help in all this, please write to me and I will send you some assistance (see "Preface" for address).

Four Steps to Go On With Christ:

It is one thing to get engaged. It is another thing to stay engaged. Co-operation is the key word.

The Lord, by His grace, has saved you by your faith, if you received Christ as your own Saviour.

1. Buy A Bible — study John, chapter 3, over and over (six times), then read all of John's Gospel. It emphasizes salvation and everlasting life.
 2. Learn to Pray — spend time each day alone with God. Talk to Him as a child with his/her father. Pray with your eyes open too, as you walk, ride, or sit. Thank Him for everything. Let His new life work in your life and bring about change.
 3. Tell others about your new life in Christ, firstly by your actions, then when you become a little stronger, by your words.
 4. Fellowship — find a good Bible-based Church where people believe in being Born Again and get involved. Remember — Birds of a feather flock together.
- The Lord Bless you —
Write and let me know of your new choice.

If still not convinced — READ ON

CHAPTER FOUR

THE NEW WORLD MONETARY SYSTEM

A man goes into a restaurant, sits down, orders his meal, and then pays for it before it is put on the table.

A woman goes out to buy a loaf of bread, pushing a wheel-barrow full of paper money to pay for it.

"Ridiculous" you say, "that will never happen here."

In the 1920's in Germany this is exactly what happened.

Concerning the first story, the man involved knew that had he paid, after having eaten the meal, it would have been double the price.

In the second case, the woman pushing the barrow was also a victim of:

Galloping Inflation: Inflation has been variously described:

- (a) An over-issue of currency without a strong gold based foundation.
- (b) A state where each individual feels that he is worse off, financially speaking, than his neighbour.
- (c) Confusion.

Two other words used repeatedly in our news columns are: "Recession" and "Depression". The difference between these two words has been expressed in this manner:

"When your neighbour loses his job, that is recession."

"When you lose yours, that is depression."

Reasons for Inflation:

These are many. Willard Cantelon in his book "The Day the Dollar Dies" lays the blame at the feet of those who operate in the field of usury (taking of interest).

In many western countries today, the following is true:

One-third of the population attend school or university.

One-third of the population are on Government welfare benefits, i.e. old age, widows, solo parents, unemployed, and loafers.

One-third of the population make up the workforce.

Therefore, the two-thirds are being supported by the one-third.

PROBLEM — The workers won't work.

Can our Country Escape from Financial Collapse?

Answer — No, because we are linked through trade with many other countries who are all experiencing similar difficulties.

"Recently U.S. Senator Jacob Javits warned that unless drastic measures are taken, international economic problems — particularly the massive debts owed by oil-consuming countries could trigger a severe (global) depression perhaps as early as 1979."

"What we are talking about" he said "is nothing short of a NEW WORLD MONETARY SYSTEM. It's too late for palliatives." (Newsweek 3.10.77).

Away back in 1973 we read that the ministers of the nine E.E.C. countries had been asked to lay the basis for a New World Money Solution — already a plan has been worked out and the following is a "leak" of that plan to those who read this book.

What Will Happen?

Whether you have a large bank account, or nothing at all, you will be involved. Please digest this carefully:

1. Inflation will lead to Galloping Inflation.
2. The money system as we know it today will suddenly crash. All funds will be cancelled and people who have saved and invested will lose everything.

This happened before in Germany in 1948.

I quote from Willard Cantelon who wrote "The Day the Dollar Dies".

"I'll never forget that June Sunday in Germany in 1948. The Reich Mark had been inflated but was still in circulation and people were struggling to get back into a normal pattern of life. But in Bonn, as they studied the economy and its inflated values, they decided a stroke of the pen and a cancellation of the old system would be the best approach to starting all over again.

There was no warning to the populace in Germany. The newspaper of Sunday morning in June 1948 was the first announcement to the people. "Reich Mark Cancelled". I knew so many friends in Germany, names I could call one after the other, from Berlin to Stuttgart.

What a tragic moment when coming down that Sunday morning to pick up the daily paper, the German voice was heard to cry, "My God in heaven, our money is worthless."

Stars and stripes, the official organ of the U.S. Army published the statistics; statistics of suicide, showing the Rhine River filled with the bodies of the dead, hair turned white over night, and heartache and sorrow too deep for man to describe. Money, that man lives for, saves, guards, dies, works for, suddenly with a stroke of the pen, it was cancelled."

There is no way to stop it happening, and there is very little you can do to protect your wealth.

I have heard of people sinking all their capital into assets such as crystal, bars of gold or silver, real estate, and so on. The sad part of the whole thing is that most people do not understand the nature of the New Monetary System.

AMERICAN DOLLAR CANCELLED

Thousands of investors in Europe are frantically buying up U.S. gold bars at auctions being held on a regular basis. They laugh all the way to their Swiss Banks — poor people.

Occasionally we see an advertisement like this:

WHY SILVER AS A HEDGE AGAINST INFLATION?
WE CAN TELL YOU WHY —
Send now for information,
etc. etc. etc.

This is one of the last things a "moneyed" person should do. Why? you ask:

Because the New World Monetary System is a CASHLESS one. Money will not be involved at all.

Now we see the relevance of these words:

"Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. Your RICHES are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

Your GOLD and SILVER is cankered, and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire.

Ye have heaped treasure together (in Swiss-numbered accounts and other places) for the LAST DAYS." Jas. 5:1-3. (Emphasis added)

When the money crash comes, you will hear of suicides everywhere.

As you cannot beat the inevitable, read on:

3. Gradually, as the new system is prepared for introduction to the world of finance, your coins, notes, and cheques will disappear. In their place you will see a piece of plastic imprinted with a magnetic code, which will handle all your transactions from buying a house, to a gallon of petrol or a packet of tea. It is called "Universicard" and is currently being tried out with great success by a Group of American Banks.

Credit Card Extension:

This is one definition of this new system. When hooked to a computer network, it will keep a close watch on your assets in the bank, even warning shops and stores when you are running out of credit.

The system does work well, as proved in Arlington, Ohio, where a giant computer combine has co-operated with local banks and 31 shops, garages, hotels, and stores. Housewives claim that shopping is now speedier and more relaxed.

The housewife pays for her goods with her universicard and is debited with the amount by a central computer. When the card is handed to the cashier, she places it in a small box fitted with what looks like a telephone dial. She dials the computer, which then reads off the magnetic information on the card. In a fraction of a second, the computer has checked that the card is neither stolen nor faked and made the necessary debit against the customer's account.

This is a giant step on the way to the New World System, which is a variation of the above.

In 1973, the newspaper read thus:

"Invisible Gold as Basis of Currency"

Special

Drawing Nicknamed Paper Gold or Invisible Gold.

Rights

The invisible international money known as Special Drawing Rights, which was first created out of thin air only three years ago, is already destined to become the basis of a New World Currency System.

What Are S.D.R.'s? (watch your papers for more information)

They are not, in fact, pieces of paper like banknotes, cheques, or treasury bills. They are simple bookkeeping entries made in agreed amounts on the ledgers of central banks, artificially swelling the reserves held by Governments for paying off their official debts.

Unlike currencies, they are not backed by an outside asset. Unlike gold, they have no intrinsic physical or market value of their own.

In short, Special Drawing Rights, or S.D.R.'s as they are popularly described, are: WHOLLY CREATED BY MAN, almost literally WITH A STROKE OF THE PEN.

When Will S.D.R.'s COME INTO USE?

As I write this manuscript, they are being used now in the following ways:

- (a) Suez Canal — President Sadat of Egypt charges in S.D.R.'s.
- (b) Loans — Many countries have borrowed from a central fund in S.D.R.'s.
- (c) OPEC (Newsweek 23.6.75) — "OPEC Oil Producing Export Country ministers announced that when prices go up, they will no longer be quoted in dollars, but rather in S.D.R.'s — a basket of 16 major currencies developed by the International Monetary Fund."
- (d) I.M.F. — "Ironically the issue of S.D.R.'s also preoccupied economists at another international get together last week — this one an interim committee meeting of the I.M.F. in Paris.

More than three years after the world's currencies were officially cut loose from gold, finance ministers agreed that it (gold) should be written off as the foundation of any new monetary system.

Instead they proposed that the new structure, whose broad outlines they hope to have in place by the end of the year (1975) should be tied to S.D.R.'s."

(Why?)

"Because they are less subject to fluctuation, and more flexible than gold.

The I.M.F. ministers agreed to eventually phase out gold and phase in S.D.R.'s."

Post and Telegraph offices in many parts of the world now pay in S.D.R.'s for overseas transactions.

Please Note The Stages

1. International — Trading between nations (happening now).
2. National — Trading within a nation (started already under heading: "Direct Credit").
3. Individual — This is the final stage and most deadly.

Foretold about 96 A.D. by an elderly man who walked in communion with God. His name, John the Apostle. His writings: (a) Gospels, (b) Letters, (c) Book of Revelation.

"And he (False Prophet) causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads." Rev. 13:16.

"And that no man might BUY or SELL, save he that had:

(a) The Mark" Rev. 13:17.a.

A West German trading mark appears from time to time on shoe boxes. Whether this will be adopted by the E.E.C. officially is not yet known. It consists of a square with a black line, in the midst of which is a circle about the size of a penny. It bears the inscription "The Common Market" and beside this name is the number 666.

The most remarkable feature is that, included in that mark is a picture of the head of a lamb with two horns, and the mouth of the lamb is open, as if it is speaking.

"And I beheld another beast (False Prophet) coming up out of the earth (within the E.E.C. — probably Italy) and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon" — "and his number is six hundred three score and six." Rev. 13:11 and 18.b.

When I first heard friends describe this trading mark to me (many have identified it), I was not convinced. The 666 bothered me. Why would they do that?

Answer: When the trade mark was formulated, there were but six nations in the E.E.C. The persons who designed the mark inadvertently offset the three words "The Common Market" with the three numbers, 6 6 6.

(b) "The Name of the Beast" Rev. 13:17.b.

We don't know that name yet, but we will soon. Who is he?

(c) "The Number of his Name" Rev. 13:17.b.

When being marked or tattooed, people will apparently have a choice of these three signs showing their submission to the system.

In Greek, Hebrew and Latin, the numerics are built into, and are thus considered to be part of the alphabet in question.

People's names or titles, therefore, have numeric values. It is of note that using another type of key, Kissinger's name comes to 666. It is the Religious False Prophet who arranges for the marking of humans, verse 16, and Revelation 17 tells us he will be situated at Rome (we will amplify this in a further publication).

The head of the Roman Catholic Church has many titles, but one is outstanding. In the Latin form it is:

V = 5
I = 1
C = 100
A = No value	F = No Value
R = No value	I = 1
I = 1	L = 50	D = 500
U = 5	I = 1	E = No Value
S = No value	I = 1	I = 1
112	53	501

It is significant and important to note that Pope John Paul the first broke with tradition and because he was a Bible believing Christian, refused to wear the Tiara and its blasphemous title, at his coronation. Some have suggested that the details surrounding his death were suspicious. Who really knows?

From the newspaper August 31st, 1978: "Rejecting the triple crown of the Pontiff and the ceremonial chair in which Popes have been carried above the crowd, Pope John Paul I has chosen to walk from Sunday's open air Mass at St. Peter's Basilica."

One who stands in the place of	— Vicarious	— Value	112
The Son	— Filii	— Value	53
Of God	— Dei	— Value	501

666

This is, no doubt, the name of blasphemy referred to in Rev. 13:1. The final characteristic of the E.E.C. leader.

Why?

Because it directly contradicts the written Word of God. "For there is one God, and ONE MEDIATOR (go-between) between God and Men — the man Christ Jesus." 1 Tim. 2:5. (Emphasis added)

I remember conversing with a Catholic Priest on this subject. (I love all men, and hate intolerance. The Lord is doing a new and beautiful thing by His Spirit amongst Catholics and Protestants alike). I asked him . . . "If this be the Word of God, where does the Pope or any other man fit in with "the one mediator, the man Christ Jesus?"

He was honest, and replied . . . "I confess I do not really know, but will need to look into this matter myself."

Now, both cannot be correct, so let us find out the truth of the matter. (Please tick the appropriate square).

All this does not mean that we claim the Catholic Church to fully fit the Bible picture of Rev. 17 and Rev. 18. It is part, but not all of the picture.

Back to these Three Marks —

The S.D.R. new World Monetary System has two parts to consider: (a) A Computer (b) A Mark, or Number.

The Computer World

With such rapid advances in this field, it is difficult for an author to keep fully abreast of new advances, but for the sake of our study, I present:

The Computer, in Three Stages —

Stage 1:

Many business firms, including major airlines, operate a Terminal Computer system. All the information necessary for business arrangements with their customers is firmly imprinted on the computers' memory banks.

Stage 2:

Most countries in the west today have a Central Computer somewhere. Here, statistics on law enforcement, traffic misdemeanours etc, are held on the memory banks.

I was told by a law enforcement officer that the law agencies are eagerly awaiting the day when income tax statistics are included on the data bank tapes.

Many, many criminals will be caught in this way, and it is only a matter of time before this is implemented.

Stage 3: (If you are easily frightened, please do not read this passage).

There is a Giant Computer in Brussels —

"Dr Handrick Eldeman, Chief Analyst of the Common Market Confederacy, announced today from Brussels that a computerized restoration plan is already underway in the aftermath of world chaos.

In the crisis meeting, which brought together scientists, advisers, and Common Market Commission leaders, Dr Eldeman unveiled The Beast.

This is a gigantic computer which takes up three floors at the administration building of the Market headquarters. This monster is a self-programming unit that has over one hundred sensing input sources.

Computer experts have been working on a plan to computerize all world trade. This major plan involves a digital numbering system for every human on earth.

The computer would assign to each citizen of the world a number to use for all buying and selling, to avoid the problems of ordinary credit cards.

The Number would be invisibly laser tattooed on the forehead or back of the hand, and would provide a walking credit card system. The number would show up under infra-red scanners to be placed at all check-out counters and places of business.

Der Eldeman suggested that by using a three, six digital unit, e.g. 437189 652834 725182 the entire world could be assigned a working credit card number."

Credit Cards

There have been a number of them on the market for some years — each one, an "improvement" on the next, e.g. early credit card, Master Card, Visa Card. The Bank Card is notable for the Giant Letter "6" which comes in three colours. Remember "666".

N.B. The card to replace Visa is the dangerous one, and is already printed (time of revision December 1979.)

This next card will be an international one and will be issued without request to two billion people. The word International could be on it. The Zurich banks will back it.

WARNING — It is only a step to the mark on the body.

Destroy and return is the only safe way at this stage.

Any Dissenters?

When one of the market leaders was asked . . . "What would happen to any person who objected to the system and refused to co-operate", he replied rather pointedly . . . "We would have to use force to make him conform to requirements."

Some doubt whether such a computer is really in existence. It is!

A top Canadian computer and space scientist — Dr Patrick Fisher — tells us that in 1979 it had been in existence for four years.

It already has the names of two billion people in its memory banks, and will ultimately include all people in the industrialised trading nations, i.e. any person who —

- (a) Uses credit cards
- (b) Has a driver's license
- (c) Has a birth certificate
- (d) Pays tax to the Inland Revenue Department
- (e) Who travels abroad.

Every move or change of address is being fed into this monster.

There are 20 data inputs in Europe now, with information being continuously collected.

In the days when I taught school for a living, each Friday we would total up the "Attendance Register". Those who were absent on any one day of the week had a neat little red cross placed next to his or her name. At the end of the school term it was relatively easy to run ones finger along the line, look for the offending red crosses, and pick out the "long weekend" regulars.

Thus, when the terminals deliver up their information to the country's central computer, and all the central computers deliver up their information to the Brussels "Beast", who is going to be in charge of our lives?

Big Brother, of course, and when the E.E.C. leader begins to push those buttons, Winston Churchill's words will come alive . . . "There is no place to hide".

Last year I read of a young man who went to renew his driving licence and was arrested on warrant on a charge of being absent without leave from his employer — the Navy. (Herald: 18.4.77)

Computers have long memories!

What Do We Do Now?

If you are not a Born Again Christian, I recommend that you become one right now. (Please turn to the last page for details.)

If you are a Born Again Christian, here are some helpful pointers:

1. Do NOT invest your money, or hoard it in the bank. If it can be done, draw your money out of any investment and put it to work in a Genuine Christian Enterprise, such as Soul-winning (read Matt. 13:44. Remember "he that winneth souls is wise.")
2. Pay off all debts and pay cash from now on. This will help you to learn to look to the Lord for any extra needs (house mortgages are excepted). Rom. 13:8.
3. Continue to tithe and learn a spiritual lesson. "Them that honour ME, I will honour." I Sam. 2:30. (Emphasis added)
4. Don't worry and fret about finance, etc.

There is a time to turn off your T.V. set each evening, and gather your family together after the evening meal. Seek the Lord together. Repeat verses aloud in unison. Put your bills on the carpet, kneel around them, and lay your hands on them in the Name of the Lord.

Your Key Verses Are:

"Be careful for nothing (don't worry about anything) but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God." Phil. 4:6.

"But my God shall supply all your NEED (not wants) according to His riches in Glory by Christ Jesus." Phil. 4:19. (Emphasis added)

Read Matt. 6:19-34 often.

Notice: He looks after (a) The birds, (b) The lilies, (c) The grass. Let the dollar crunch. All is well for the Christian. Jesus speaking:

"Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment." Matt. 6:25.

Here is an elderly believer's testimony:

"I have been young, and now am old, yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken nor his seed begging bread." Ps. 37:25.

In the words of one of the martyred missionaries to the Aucas in South America some years back:

"A man is no fool, who gives up that which he cannot keep, to gain that which he cannot lose."

CHAPTER FIVE

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY

If this chapter "blows your mind" (to use a modern expression), do not be surprised. I have no wish to be dramatic, but present the facts as they are.

With the masses of information, gathered over many years, at my fingertips, I pass on to you, the reader, the bones of the matter, and leave you to fill in the details.

Firstly FIBRE OPTICS (The eye of Antichrist). The computer builders, working in conjunction with the T.V. manufacturers have refined a tiny but deadly weapon. It is a little fish eye camera which is to be built into all T.V. sets. Most of these sets already built have them now.

They are only the size of a pinhead yet they can monitor the reactions of the T.V. watchers. A computer connected to all these fish eye cameras can monitor 10,000 homes with only one man in charge.

It is being advertised in scientific magazines with an ALL SEEING EYE at each end of the fibre optic. N.B. Your T.V. does not need to be switched on. The camera still operates efficiently.

Problem: When the World Dictator takes over, he will be able to monitor all reactions to his speeches. Dissenters will be harshly dealt with. (Tapes are available with Dr Patrick Fisher, a top Canadian computer scientist and satellite specialist giving the most up to date information on these matters.)

"For the mystery of lawlessness — that hidden principle of rebellion against constituted authority — is already at work in the world, but it is restrained only until He who restrains is taken out of the way." II Thess. 2:7 Amp. Bible.

Most people in the West today fear Communism, and rightly so:

- (a) Communism is only a part, however, of a far more dangerous conspiracy that is being organized by the,
- (b) International Bankers. There is a group of men in the world today who are MANIPULATING international events to bring about a One World Government connected with the E.E.C. over which they will be in complete control.

Dr Henry Kissinger is the Public Relations man for this group.

On October 4th, 1973, Kissinger, speaking at a New York dinner he held in honour of United Nations delegates, said . . . "I pledge you that the United States is ready to begin the journey towards a World Community . . . " Code for one World Government.

Please note that this Public Relations man, Kissinger, is acceptable to:

- (a) The International Bankers and Financiers (to be identified),
- (b) International Communism.

It all commenced with a being called Lucifer (Latin — the light-bearer) and his being cast out of heaven. There were two main reasons for this:

- (a) Pride because of his Beauty and Wisdom —

"Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness, I (the Lord) will cast thee (Lucifer) to the ground, I will lay thee before kings that they may behold thee." Ezek. 28:17.

- (b) His diversion of Praise due for the Lord to himself, in his desire for the adoration of mankind.

"Thou (Lucifer) has defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic (diversion of praise to the Lord unto himself). Therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee." Ezek. 28:18.

The fire that will devour him is the Praise of God's people. He who was the original broadcaster or amplifier of the Praises of Almighty God, because of his pride had his position stripped from him.

Today, in 1978 and on to the end, the very thing that he was in charge of in heaven, is the very thing that will destroy him — Anointed Praise of God's people.

Upon being brought down to earth, his rebellious heart devises his future aims in:

Five "I Wills" —

"For thou (Lucifer, satan) hast said in thine heart

- (i) I will ascend into heaven;
- (ii) I will exalt my throne above the stars of God;
- (iii) I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation in the sides of the north;
- (iv) I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;
- (v) I will be LIKE the most High." Isaiah 14:13-14. (Emphasis added)

The Lord, through the Prophets, has declared unmistakably that Lucifer will receive his opportunity to prove himself.

Three and a half years in the latter days is his allotted time, through the medium of two beings who will become Satan incarnate on earth.

- (a) The Antichrist — leader of the ten nations of the E.E.C.
- (b) The False Prophet — leader of the One World Church based at Rome.

Count Down

This rebellious notion has been transferred to godless men and can be described as a Luciferian Ideology which states . . .

- (a) Might is right;
- (b) Those of superior intelligence have the right to rule the masses who don't know what is good for them. It is called today by a word "TOTALITARIANISM", e.g. Russian Communism ruled by the K.G.B. minority.

The Protocols of the learned elders of Zion — a document which has aroused controversy as to its validity. It claims to be a genuine statement of the aims of a sector of Political Zionism.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica writes . . . "Fraudulent document that served as a pretext and rationale for anti-Semitism. The document purports to be a report of a series of 24 (or 27) meetings held at Basel, Switzerland, in 1897, at the time of the first Zionist Congress.

There, Jews and Freemasons were said to have made plans to disrupt Christian civilization and erect a World State, under their joint rule.

Liberalism and Socialism were to be the means of subverting Christendom, if subversion failed, all the capitals of Europe were to be sabotaged."

"Subsequent investigation, particularly by Russian historian Vladimir Burtsev, revealed that the Protocols were forgeries."

However, in a publication entitled "Learned Elders and B.B.C." by A. K. Chesterton, we read . . . "It is, with submission, impossible for any intelligent person, aware of what is happening in the world, to read or listen to the reading of the Protocols of the learned elders of Zion without being astounded by their prophetic insight, their knowledge of the weaknesses in Gentile society and their proposed techniques for exploiting these weaknesses."

Chesterton continues . . . "The Protocols may be a fake, a fabrication, call them that you will — lacking though they be in authority, yet they march in step with the unfolding modern conspiracy, of which they are a prophetic utterance."

Some Examples of the Protocols (for your consideration)

Key Note — The Word GOYIM refers to the less than intellectual masses. The ordinary man in the street as opposed to those in the know.

Economic Warfare — "We shall soon begin to establish huge monopolies, reservoirs of colossal riches, upon which even large fortunes of the Goyim will depend to such an extent that they will go to the bottom together with the credit of the states on the day after the political smash."

Meaning — No matter how much money you possess, when the crunch comes you will crash along with your fortune unless you are one of those on the inside (in the know).

Wage Price Spiral — "We shall raise the rate of wages, which however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities in life.

Industrial Warfare — We shall further undermine artfully and deeply, sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy . . .

In order that the true meaning of things may not strike the Goyim before the proper time, we shall mask it under an alleged ardent desire to serve the working classes and the great principles of political economy . . ."

Meaning — Union stirrers and strikers also pseudo intellectuals at Universities who march against anything (as long as it upsets society) are well named Lenin's useful fools.

When the Communists take over, these fools are some of the first to be put to death. Take warning Anderson, Douglas, etc.

Social Issues — "In order to put public opinion in our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment, by giving expression from all sides to so many contradictory opinions and for such a length of time as will suffice to make the Goyim lose their heads in the labyrinth, and come to see that the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political, which is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret," end quote. e.g. Sterilization, contraception and abortion. My wife said recently, "If I hear those words again, I will scream."

Civil Disobedience — The second secret requisite for the success of our Government is comprised in the following: To multiply to such an extent national failings, habits, passions, conditions of civil life, that it will be impossible for anyone to know where he is in the resulting chaos, so that the people in consequence will fail to understand one another (e.g. Racial tension, gang violence. Often the half-caste people are the greatest racial stirrers. They try to make up for their lack of really positive identity by over-reacting in favour of the side that they feel is in the minority — only Christ can help these people).

This measure will also serve us in another way, namely, to sow discord in all parties, to dislocate all collective forces which are still unwilling to submit to us and to discourage any kind of personal initiative which may in any degree hinder our affair . . .

Education — "We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the Goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false, although it is by us that they have been inculcated . . ." End quote.

In New Zealand we have a group of five or six curriculum organisers in Wellington who continually promote these fruitless educational gimmicks.

- (a) Open plan classes.
- (b) New Maths.
- (c) Putting down of Nationalism. Discouraging the honouring of flag and nation.
- (d) Indoctrination in Socialism.
- (e) Filth sown in children's minds through human relationships studies.
- (f) Thousands of non achievers through removing the old phonics and bringing in "look and read".
- (g) Social promotion. Clever and dumb, workers and non workers, wise and fools, all go up together.
- (h) The removal of all Corporal Punishment from many schools and blaming the teachers for the unruliness of pupils.

The claim is that the lessons are not being presented attractively enough.

- (i) The removal of Christ, the Bible, prayer and ten commandments from most schools.

It is interesting to note that well over 50% of parents want a return to basic Christianity being taught again in the schools.

We are almost at the point of no return in education, short of the starting up of Christian schools, where the curriculum wreckers cannot get at the children.

"THE FEAR OF THE LORD IS THE BEGINNING OF WISDOM". At this point, I quote the words of the world famous evangelist of the 1900's — Billy Sunday: "Don't tell me that this doesn't meet with your intellectual concept of God.

"I suppose that God should have waited until you were born and called you in for advice."

As an ex-teacher of 15 years' experience I maintain it is getting worse daily.

A writer, Harry Conn, chairman of the Board of the Whitney Corp, U.S.A. puts it this way.

"All religious, political, psychological and sociological systems are based on philosophical presuppositions or theoretical bases or assumptions. If these presuppositions are false, then all doctrine and ideology that is based on them will be inconsistent with reality and will produce frustration, confusion and the ultimate disintegration of the society which accommodates them." End quote.

In my country, we have these problems, e.g. equal opportunities for the sexes through crazy new anti-discriminatory laws, we can hire Moslem slaughtermen for our meatworks but cannot advertise for a Christian employee.

Harry Conn continues. "According to the Wall St. Journal there were 1,700 school teachers in the U.S. who were the victims of brutal assaults by their pupils in 1972. Nine teachers were killed by their students.

In 1976 over 7,000 school teachers were violently assaulted by their students. In the U.S. the students are allowed to physically assault their teachers because there is no code of conduct.

At the same time, the teachers are not allowed to spank their students. In the city of Chicago it is common knowledge that it is more dangerous to be a public school teacher than to be a city policeman." (End quote.)

This plot is international. UNESCO is behind it, "to promote international co-operation in education and other fields," Rockefeller and friends are behind UNESCO."

"Liberal Dreamers — The part played by the liberals, utopian dreamers, will be finally played out when our Government is acknowledged. Till such a time, they will continue to do us good service.

Therefore, we shall continue to direct their minds to all sorts of vain conceptions of fantastic theories, new and apparently progressive . . .

When we come into our kingdom, our orators will expound great problems which have turned humanity upside down in order to bring it at the end, under our beneficent rule.

Who will ever suspect then, that ALL THESE PEOPLES WERE STAGE MANAGED BY US ACCORDING TO A POLITICAL PLAN WHICH NO ONE HAS SO MUCH AS GUESSED AT IN THE COURSE OF MANY CENTURIES."

The Objective — Aim — "By all these means, we shall so wear down the Goyim, that they will be compelled to offer us international power, of a nature that will enable us without violence gradually to absorb all the state forces of the world and to form a Super Government.

In place of the rulers of today, we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super Government Administration.

Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers, and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world." End quote.

Further comment on this section would be superfluous — Let us continue . . .

The Illuminati —

There is no doubt whatsoever about the authenticity of this group. It was viewed so seriously that the Baravian Government were forced to shut them down.

Their aims were exactly the same as those stated in the Protocols (which had their origins in the Illuminati).

Founder, Adam Weishaupt was a church-trained Jesuit professor who defected from Christianity to form this society. As a Satanist, Weishaupt and his followers had as their aims, the following:

1. To bring about the destruction of Western Christian Society;
2. To reorganize society, as subordinate to a master race;
3. To set their man "The Bearer of the Light" on the throne of the World — i.e. "Lucifer".

Methods —

1. Use monetary and sex bribes to obtain control of high Government officials.
2. Intellectuals belonging to the Illuminati in universities were to watch for exceptional students to be trained in Internationalism. Scholarships were to be granted, and students educated (indoctrinated) into accepting the idea The One World Government was the answer to recurring international problems.
3. Influential students were to be placed behind the scenes as "Experts" and "Specialists".
4. Illuminati were to gain control of the Press and News media.
5. Their members also moved into certain Masonic Lodges. (This is the reason for much of the secrecy in this Pseudo-Christian Movement).

Important Point — How was Weishaupt financed?

Answer: The money-lenders who had recently organized "The House of Rothschild" at that time paid all expenses.

Founded on May 1st, 1776, Weishaupt adopted this insignia:

PREPARE FOR A SHOCK

Interpretation of this Seal —

1. The date MDCCLXXVI at the base of the pyramid, 1776, was the founding date of the Illuminati (not the date for the signing of Declaration of Independence).
2. The pyramid stands for the conspiracy to destroy the Universal Church and the establishment of a One World Order with a dictator as leader.

THE SEAL OF THE ILLUMINATI. (ONE WORLD GOV'T ADVOCATES.)

3. The all-seeing eye looking in every direction is a symbol of the Secret Police Force, a terrorizing group that Weishaupt called "The Insinuating Brethren". Refer back to note on Fibre Optics.
4. Annuit Coeptus means "Agreement with that which has been started."
5. Novus Ordo Seclorum means "A new social order" or "new world order of the ages". Prepare for it . . .!
6. This seal is found on the reverse side of the U.S. $1 note. Three men proposed it as the reverse side of the Great Seal. Benjamin Franklin, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, who was a keen Illuminist.

Note well, that this sign has never been officially cut as a seal. The U.S. Government uses only the one with the eagle imprinted on it.

7. This Illuminati Seal was first printed on U.S. $1 bills in 1933 by order of President Roosevelt a 32nd Degree Freemason (a relation of John Adams).
8. Most Americans do not know what this seal represents. This really means that the One World Conspirators control the power of the U.S. Government, and simply dictate their policy through whoever happens to be in office.

Is This True? — Yes, as you will now see:

Four Groups to Watch — There are four main One World Power groups on earth today:

1. U.S.A. — The C.F.R. — Council on Foreign Relations — This is the shadow Government of One Worlders who run America through a puppet President and Senate. It is a semi-secret group which does not seek nor like publicity. There are about 1500 members in the C.F.R. who regularly move on to high Government office, and make way for new blood.

If you think I am being over-dramatic, go into any library and seek for information on this group, and their aims — you won't find much.

The Goal of the C.F.R. — To abolish the United States and their constitutional guarantees of liberty. Study No. 7 by the C.F.R. advocates — "building a New International Order which must be responsive to world aspirations for peace, and for social and economic change — a new International Order (code word for World Government) including states labelling themselves as "Socialist" (Communist).

The C.F.R. have men from

- (a) Business World,
- (b) Finance World,
- (c) Political World,
- (d) The News Media.

e.g. Standard Oil, I.B.M. Zerox, Eastman Kodak, Pan American, Firestone, U.S. Steel, General Electric, American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Socialists and Communists are there.

Major foundations have their representatives — Rockefeller, Ford and Carnegie Foundations and the Rand Corporation.

News Media are very significantly to the fore: "Whoever controls the media, controls the thinking of the masses". Here they are:

National Broadcasting Corporation, Columbia Broadcasting System, Time, Life, Fortune, Look, Newsweek, New York Times, Washington Post, Los Angeles Times, New York Post, Denver Post, Louisville Courier Journal, Minneapolis Tribune, etc. etc.

C.F.R. Assist Communism — With almost every move he made whilst in office, our Public Relations man assisted the advance of World Communism. Henry Kissinger, a C.F.R. man, has worked for the Rockefellers for years. He is a One World Government advocate, along with his bosses.

Facts to Consider —

1. Mr David Rockefeller and other international financiers have helped in financing Communism for years.
2. The U.S. has been supplying Communist Russia with technology and materials for a long time.

Anthony Sutton, a Britisher and former professor of Economics at California State University, at Los Angeles, wrote a book published in 1968, entitled "Western Technology and Soviet Economic Development 1917-1930" and later another book "1945-1965". This is what he discovered:

(a) There is no such thing as Soviet Technology. Almost all — perhaps 90-95% came directly or indirectly from the U.S. or its allies.

(b) The U.S. is spending $80 billion a year on defence against an enemy built by the United States and West Europe.

(c) The Soviets have the largest merchant marine in the World — about 6,000 ships. About two-thirds were built outside the Soviet Union. About four-fifths of the engines for these ships were also built outside the Soviet Union. All Soviet automobile, truck, and engine technology comes from the West. The "Gorki Organization" built by the Ford and Austin companies produced most of the trucks used to carry Soviet-supplied military equipment down the Ho Chi Minh trail. Automobile factories can also be used to build tanks.

Sutton then charged that "100,000 Americans had been killed with American technology" adding "the only response from Washington and the Nixon Administration is the effort to hush up the scandal."

United Press International and Associated Press both received copies of the Sutton testimony.

Both suppressed it — Strange — or is it?

Readers can purchase Suttons other book "National Suicide" and read for themselves:

3. The Rockefellers along with other financiers and sympathizers financed both sides of the Vietnam war in which nearly 50,000 Americans died. Because there was no formal declaration of war the Rockefellers and Co. have not been charged with treason, and thus have stayed out of prison.

The Chairman of the Board for the C.F.R. David Rockefeller, is regularly overseas in Communist lands, watching over his investments.

Test This Information — If the policy-makers of the U.S. and other Western nations were genuinely anti-Communist, they could have collapsed the Soviet Empire, in the words of Anthony Sutton, "without using a single gun or anything more dangerous than a piece of paper or a telephone call".

How's this? — When the Soviet dictators were in serious domestic trouble in 1972, resulting from yet one more failure of Communist farming, there was no suggestion of applying pressure to force the release of millions in Soviet concentration camps, or freedom for the "Captive Nations". Dr Kissinger went to Moscow and arranged to provide the massive credits which enabled the Soviets to remove one-third of America's wheat reserves.

Up until the time of revision the U.S. was planning to send the Russian Communists more wheat. This is under the Carter Administration. The hostage situation in Iran changed all this. Yet the U.S.A. has fed its "enemy" for years.

Rule: If you really wish to destroy something — don't feed it.

Please tick appropriate square.

What is Russian Communism?

1. It is not the supposed deadly enemy of the Western World.
2. It was financed, built up, and is now being looked after by the International Financiers of the West, i.e. Western Europe and U.S.A.

Why? — It is their prototype of an Illuminati-style totalitarian Government. It was a test case. If it worked well on a large country like Russia, they can safely use the same methods to take over the Whole World.

Now do you understand why Henry Kissinger keeps using those words over and over again: "A NEW WORLD ORDER".

2. The Bilderbergers Conference in Europe is the counterpart of the C.F.R. in America.

The chairman of this European Secret Society was, until recently, none other than the consort of Queen Julianna of the Netherlands, Prince Bernhard. Unfortunately for him, Prince Bernhard was caught out in the Lockheed Aircraft Scandal, and because of American pressure was dropped from his position. This Conference is held to strengthen West European/American relations.

The newspaper describes their latest meeting (the 25th) of the Group, in April 1977:

"West German Chancellor, Helmut Schmidt, and former U.S. Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger are among more than 100 leading figures assembling in Britain this weekend for a three-day Conference, where they can exchange ideas without fear of being quoted by name — the occasion is the Bilderbergers Conference."

From another article on the same Conference:

"Participants this year are expected to include Mr Dennis Healey, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer, Dr Kissinger, Mr Schmidt, the French President Valery Giscard D'Estaing, and the Chase Manhattan Bank Chairman, Mr David Rockefeller.

N.B. Nearly $\frac{3}{4}$ of the American participants are members of the powerful Council on Foreign Relations which advises on United States foreign policy.

Conference discussions are always kept secret, and critics allege that it is a conspiracy by those in power to stay in power.

The 1976 Conference was cancelled, but this year, the Prince (Bernhard) is to be replaced for the first time by Lord Home, the former British Prime Minister."

3 TRILATERAL COMMISSION

This is the third one world power group and like the C.F.R. is the brainchild of David Rockefeller, chairman of the giant Chase Manhattan Bank.

Things were moving too slowly for David, and upon the death of his brother Nelson (in very suspicious circumstances, in the apartment of a young woman) he has set up this group to act as a catalyst in the speeding up of the Economic CRASH, and the formation of One World Government.

The three main participants are (a) U.S.A. — The Dollar; (b) West Germany — The Mark; (c) Japan — The Yen, with Canada joined up in a loosely-knit manner.

News watchers will notice the money values of these three giants fluctuating, wobbling out of control and finally crashing. The key word is "manipulation".

Two agents used — (a) Oil, (b) Gold.

If the reader does not remember any other facts, please remember these. It will enable you to read your newspaper intelligently.

1. David Rockefeller, Chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank is a KEY MAN in these World Govt. negotiations.

2. He is not an evil living man. He sincerely feels that this is the best way for the world to go, as did many of his predecessors, e.g. Franklin Roosevelt, Cecil Rhodes, etc.

3. New Zealand readers will recall that he was in Wellington the day before our last general elections giving economic instructions to our leaders, including the Head of the Reserve Bank.

He flew in to Wellington Airport in his personal blue and white jet plane. It did not matter to him which party was elected as any country which borrows from the International Financiers signs a document which gives the leaders authority to give strong direction on the internal economic affairs of that country. (The I.M.F. and World Bank are very strong in this way.)

Oil

4. The Rockefeller family, through interlocking directorates, own or control over 30 of the top 100 American Industrial Giants including almost all the Oil Companies.

5. The O.P.E.C. countries do not control their own policies. They are controlled by the oil company directors, e.g. When a top U.S. dignitary wishes to fly over any O.P.E.C. state, he gains permission not from the puppet government but from the Oil Companies.

6. It is not the O.P.E.C. Governments who are responsible for the oil price hikes. The directives come from home base from the Rockefellers and others in high places.

At this point you may ask, "But don't they realize that they are wrecking the World's economy?"

Answer — "Yes, they do". For it is through a wrecked economy that they will establish a New World Monetary System, a Cashless Society, over which they will have complete control through their puppet front man. The Bible calls this man Antichrist.

7. You ask, can this be proven? Answer: Yes. In our newspaper we recently read this: "Why is it that the O.P.E.C. countries insist on being paid for their oil in American dollars?" No one knows. Yes! Some do! I do, and I am going to outline it here.

- (a) David Rockefeller and other bankers in America do not wish to have trouble with exchange rates from these billions of "Petrodollars" — hence the exclusive use of U.S. dollars.
- (b) Because they govern the oil countries through their oil companies, they insist that the bulk of the profits be paid into their giant banks in the U.S.A. the greatest of these being Rockefellers Giant Chase Manhattan banking chain.
- (c) These leading financiers then tell their OPEC investors to deposit these funds in their own U.S. banks on 90 day certificates. This can also be established by reading in the newspapers how Jimmy Carter froze Iran's petrodollars in American Banks because of the hostage crisis.
- (d) These funds have accumulated to such a degree, that the U.S. National debt can be subsidized by them. Thus the U.S. Federal Government has become dependent upon this money.
- (e) David Rockefeller and his friends are out to set up World Government on their own terms including Communist States, and at the expense of the American National Spirit — Mom's apple pie and all that.
- (f) Rockefeller through his C.F.R. and Trilateral Commission have until recently dictated their form of foreign policy to the President and the Senate of the U.S.A. They have done this for many years and almost every President for many years has danced to their tune.

To this point (December 1979) only two Presidents have tried to buck the financiers — (i) was assassinated — in a very odd manner; (ii) was deposed from office.

It is clear to the many who study this World Government that Rockefeller and his C.I.A. were involved in both these events.

It is a serious business when a President tries to run the country his own way.

Some readers will have, no doubt watched the television programmes on the Kennedy assassination and noted that there were definitely others involved with Oswald.

Kennedy's sin — he bucked the financiers by trying to invade a Communist state, via. Cuba.

Nixon's sin — he tried to take over the C.I.A. (Rockefeller private police force).

- (g) You ask — how does Rockefeller control the President and the U.S. Senate?

Answer: He tells them that unless they play ball with the policies of his Council on Foreign Relations (who are avowed One Worlders) and also with his Trilateral Commission's policies, HE WILL TELL HIS FRIENDS AND EMPLOYEES, THE ARABS, IN THE O.P.E.C. COUNTRIES TO WITHDRAW THEIR BILLIONS FROM HIS BANKS WITHIN 90 DAYS.

This would collapse the U.S. economy overnight and the President and Senate would be publically disgraced in the eyes of the whole world.

Thus you clearly understand now that the U.S. Presidents have been held to ransom by the Rockefellers and their co-workers for years.

- (h) You ask — can you prove this statement?

Answer — President Jimmy Carter had been behaving well like a good boy, obeying his boss David until just recently.

He went along with the severing of diplomatic ties with Taiwan and renewing diplomatic relations with Communist China.

My wife and I were in America in March 1979. The American people were still puzzled as to why Carter had allowed such a terrible thing to happen to a former ally — the masses have never had all this explained to them.

The speech-writers wrote him a speech recently, regarding foreign policy and internal affairs. It is clear that somebody tipped Jimmy off that he was just a puppet on a string.

The news media were flabbergasted when at the last moment, he refused to make that speech. Instead he postponed his T.V. appearance and with a burst of "guts" made his own speech, with his own opinions at a later date. Jimmy had cut loose. Remember what happened to the last two who tried that game.

- (i) On with our exciting serial.

The world was next amazed to read that Jimmy had taken the law into his own hands and fired a number of his top staff, whom he felt were manipulating him.

To be exact, he gave them the privilege of withdrawing gracefully.

Here are their names:

- (i) Secretary of the Treasury — Michael Blumenthal

Please note his signature on the front of the American $1 bill. Recently, whilst dining out in a restaurant Blumenthal discovered that his Visa Card had expired. The waiter did not believe that he was who he said he was until he wrote his name on a piece of paper.

The waiter then compared this with the signature on a $1 bill and went away satisfied.

Please note his official title — interesting isn't it.

- (ii) Attorney General — Griffin B. Bell

Let us be fair. He was due to retire in 1979 to return to his law practice.

- (iii) Secretary of Health Education and Welfare — Joseph A. Califano Jr.

Notice the Welfare expenditure in the U.S. is out of this world.

- (iv) Secretary of Transportation — Brock Adams

Here is another link with transport. Important in the light of the energy crisis — fuel and oil also byproducts are essential commodities.

- (v) Secretary of Energy — James Schlesinger

Notice this one please — a Key man.

N.B. Nos. i-v resigned on July 17th, 1979.

- (vi) Ambassador Andrew Young — Special representative to the U.N.

- (vii) Secretary of Commerce — Mrs Kreps

Resigned October 3rd, 1979.

We will now watch with interest and see whether President Carter, who was originally chosen by David Rockefeller to be the new President can make it alone.

He was chosen originally because the One Worlders wanted a new puppet to work with. I do not say this in a disparaging way.

One who espoused religion; one who espoused the family and home; one who espoused the old ideals of America the beautiful.

Please watch and see whether Rockefeller and friends will change their tactics now and bring in unreliable Teddy, the man who left his girlfriend to drown, or another who will fit in with their plans.

The bumper stickers may be changed now from

GOLD

Another method of destroying the economy was to suddenly raise the value of gold — the "foundation money".

The Newsweek reported that the gold rush started suddenly and with no warning. The price fluctuates even now at this time of revision to over $800 per oz. It was significant that no-one could put their finger on the originator of this phenomenon. It appears to be a well-executed plan to startle and upset the international money market.

Agents acting for agents started it all in a concerted rush. These guys really mean business. Readers should note that included in the team who met every few days to peg the price of gold, was a name which crops up too regularly for comfort.

Yes, you guessed it — Rothschilds. This was the group that financed the Illuminati.

The only country that couldn't be wrecked through the O.P.E.C. oil price rises was England who had just begun recovering her own oil from the North Sea.

It was therefore arranged that the Unions would do the dirty work and almost brought this country to its knees — at present, this country has the highest inflation rate in Europe — they even export their Union stirrers to other countries also.

Question: How do you know when a plane load of Unionists has just arrived from Great Britain?

Answer: The whining continues even after the jets are turned off.

4 THE CLUB OF ROME — the fourth group

This is an environmentalists group which appears harmless on the outside but is vitally involved in creating the set for One World Government.

Started in 1973 with over 100 members from many countries.

I well remember a New Zealand man inventing an engine that ran on water. The newspapers were full of it. Then suddenly everything stopped. I made investigations and discovered in a newspaper article that "the Club of Rome" had become interested.

My next informant told me that this man then came into a great deal of money, and soon afterwards died in a particularly nasty accident. By this statement I am not making any sinister insinuations.

It is significant, however, that any alternative form of fuel or propulsion is shelved immediately it is announced — this cannot be by accident.

Please allow me to give some more examples.

Not far off the coast of New Zealand is a newly discovered natural gas well, belching forth its life day after day. The Government does not rush ahead with any plans to have this converted to a useable form of fuel. The cry is always — "We should have it arranged within FIVE YEARS". "Why five years?" you may ask.

Answer: Because, by that time, we should have World Government and the International Financiers will let the countries develop any fuels they wish.

Next — A man invented an electric car, which had been approved as very good. He arranged for Government finance, set up the jigs to build this car in one of our southern cities and suddenly the Government finance was withdrawn. "I can't understand it," he said. He will when he reads this book.

THREE MAJOR PROBLEMS

The International Financiers have set the World up to believe that these are insurmountable, yet they are all false.

1. Monetary Crisis
2. Energy Crisis
3. Food Crisis

By engineering events and using the Media (which they control through their C.F.R. men, the World is fed a continuous diet of innuendo and deceit.

Monetary crisis — We have already explained how this is being deliberately destroyed using the three major currencies — Dollar, Yen, Deutschmark.

Energy Crisis — There is no shortage of oil. In America and around the World there are billions of barrels of oil. Enough to keep us all going for many years. Whilst on our U.S. visit in March 1979, we heard that the Alaskans had front page advertisements in their newspapers demanding to know why the U.S. Government did not dig and recover the vast oil resources in that area — we know why! It is not time yet. Woe to the man who thwarts the plans of the One World Financiers — he is asking for a bullet, or similar treatment.

Food crisis — you may think that there are food shortages in certain areas of the World. This is correct, but it only happens through the manipulation and diversion of food from certain areas of the World.

There are men who are being paid to make sure that millions starve to death in certain places. Wrong distribution of the world's food will be brought under control at a point in history, not too far hence. When World Government is announced. Can you see it now?

By presenting these three engineered problems to the World and magnifying them, the World's population will finally jump at the suggestion — "LET US ELIMINATE ALL THESE PROBLEMS BY HAVING ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT".

Almost immediately, the monetary system will stabilize. Almost immediately the oil and other alternative fuels will appear. Almost immediately, there will be food for all. Clever, isn't it.

Devised in the pits of hell, with the aim of controlling and enslaving all men. I suggest to you. There is a way out — better become a Christian.

God loves us. Let us finish this chapter with one of His promises in Gen. 8:22. "While the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest (food for all) and cold and heat and summer and winter, and day and night SHALL NOT CEASE".

Happy is the man who trusts in the Lord.

C.I.A. Destroyed — The Central Intelligence Agency has been aptly labelled "The Rockefeller Private Police Force". The secret intelligence of the United States has been opened up to public gaze, to "protect the public against domestic spying."

The newspaper item entitled "C.I.A. Panel — Goat Guarding the Cabbage Patch". This was the brainchild of — yes you guessed it — Dr Henry Kissinger. The Commission apparently was discussed in advance with those to be investigated.

Vice-President Rockefeller, who is Dr Kissinger's close friend (who gave him $50,000 prior to his becoming Secretary of State) "patron and one time boss, was proposed for the chairmanship by Dr Kissinger."

You never hear of the Russians investigating their K.G.B.

Imagine Rockefeller, the man who lied about his assets when being investigated for the U.S. Vice-Presidency, working together with Henry, who is not known for his honesty.

In the Watergate affair, the assistant to President Nixon, John D. Erlichman said . . . "It's tough when we go to jail for the Ellsberg break-in and the "expletive deleted" (to use a Watergate phrase) who ordered it gets the Nobel Prize for Peace". The person referred to, of course, was Henry Kissinger.

One man involved Kissinger, however, not just as the innocent bystander he seemed to be, but as the instigator of it all.

Do you remember this?

The newspaper reported . . . "Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger, trembling and white with fury and close to tears — today threatened to resign unless attacks on his honour in Watergate-related wire tapping were stopped.

Dr Kissinger became irate and uneasy when he found to his astonishment last week that reporters were more interested in the wire-tapping controversy than in his spectacular diplomacy that brought about a troop disengagement agreement between Syria and Israel.

Persistent reports, which he cited today, alleged he was directly involved in the wire-tapping despite his earlier vehement denials."

What was it that caused the U.S. Government to cease their investigations on Kissinger, and to hold a Public News Conference in which he was acclaimed as a brilliant negotiator? Do you call that honest dealing? I don't.

Never forget that the C.I.A. is the Rockefeller private police force, and that Rocky's boy Kissinger also has power over the C.I.A. through his boss, David Rockefeller.

Charles Colson was convinced that the C.I.A. organised the Watergate break in, but let his investigations lapse, upon his conversion to Christ and the subsequent writing of his book, "Born Again".

As you will read in the section entitled "Oil", the Rockefellers control the majority of Oil Companies also.

A cutting from the newspaper dated January 18th, 1980 now takes on new significance.

"The world will suffer a shortage of two to five million barrels of oil a day before 1982."

"A C.I.A. (R.P.P.F.) forecast published yesterday said that during the next three to six years, demand for oil was expected to grow, while the supply of oil would increase only slightly, if at all."

A strange forecast for such a group — not so strange however, if you note who is running it. He should know!

He is simply sharing his plans with us.

It is also interesting to note that the Rockefeller family will not permit themselves to be investigated. Even Nelson's very suspicious death was hushed up.

At one investigation of the family and their assets a man was planted in the court room to disrupt proceedings and the whole thing was finally called off. When Nelson R. was being asked questions about his personal wealth, he misquoted his actual wealth by many millions and when caught out, said he had made a mistake.

This was the man elected Vice-President of the U.S.

Detente — (Peaceful co-operation and assistance).

Henry Kissinger uses this obscure word regularly in his writings and whilst he was out travelling in search of "Peace" the newspapers used it too.

Solzhenitsyn warned that "Detente" was a myth.

Could it be that he had read Brezhnev's speech, as reported in the Washington Post, 12 February 1977:

"Trust us Comrades, for by 1985, as a consequence of what we are now achieving with DETENTE, we will have achieved most of our objectives in Western Europe. We will have consolidated our position. We will have improved our economy and a decisive shift in the correlation of forces will be such, that, come 1985 we will be able to exert our will wherever we need to.

We are achieving with DETENTE what our predecessors have been unable to achieve using the mailed fist . . .

We have been able to accomplish more in a short time with DETENTE than was done for years following a confrontation policy with NATO."

The Russian Revolution and the Zionist State of Israel —

Let it be clearly stated at this point that I am a friend of Israel. The prophecies regarding their regathering are clear, yet in the background, one cannot help but see, evil, Godless, money manipulators, some of them Jewish.

Main Points

1. Both were launched in the same month of the same year, i.e. November 1917.
2. Both were financed by the International Bankers.
3. Both put up a false front of hatred one toward the other.
4. There are only a handful of powerful men in both Israel and Russia, who understand the ultimate end of it all.
5. Before Churchill allowed Weizmann to proceed with his plan to open up Palestine to the Jews, Weizmann (a political Zionist) let the cat out of the bag: "You can hasten our arrival, or you can equally retard it. It is however better for you to help us, so as avoid our constructive powers being turned into destructive power (the release or tying up of international finance) which will overthrow the world."

End Result — God's ultimate plans for Israel and the rest of the world are completely the opposite to man's ideas, yet it is decreed that Satan, the Illuminati, the C.F.R. the Bilderbergers, the Trilateral Commission, the Club of Rome, the Communists, the International Bankers, and the Political Zionists will be allotted a short period in the very near future (i.e. three and a half years).

We will see a One World Government emerge, a man of Satanic character leading it, yet he will forever be under the watchful eye of the International Financiers.

Watch the E.E.C.

Watch for a Jewish Leader.

Listen for the cry "Peace — Peace"

Christian, Look Up.

One evening, as I was meditating on all these things, I became a little worried in my Spirit. I turned to the Word of God and read this thrilling scripture:

"And when these things BEGIN TO COME TO PASS, then LOOK UP (not around you) and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh." Luke 21:28. (Emphasis added).

Let's Put It All Together:

To Sum Up —

1. There are four main groups working toward One World Government, along with many helpers: (a) C.F.R., (b) Bilderbergers, (c) the Trilateral Commission and (d) the Club of Rome.
2. Communism will link up with, and be absorbed by this E.E.C. Monster.
3. Other groups are assisting in the Plan: The Federal Reserve (U.S.A.), the Round Table Group, the United Nations, the World Bank, and I.M.F., The Ecumenical Movement, the Masonic Lodges, Witchcraft, etc.
4. World Finance is being manipulated and brought down DELIBERATELY by the International Financiers to make way for the New Monetary System. These same individuals organised the Great Depression of the 1930's.
5. Who are these financiers? Many are Jewish, but "to charge this diabolical conspiracy as a crime against the whole Jewish people and their religious leaders is unjust."
Watch for these names: Rothschilds, Rockefellers, Warburgs, Carnegies, Schiff, Morgans, Kuhn Loeb and others.
6. Watch the O.E.C.D. who issue warnings to various Governments which they have in their power (through loans). The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development have a power struggle at present on their hands. The fight is between three Dutchmen, the present winner being: Johannes Witteveen — Director of the I.M.F.
"He is a member of the Sufi Sect which preaches the ultimate unity of everything. He plans to borrow extra money from OPEC and lend to other poorer countries, providing they agree to "put their houses in order" as he suggests. This would give Dr Witteveen increased influence over many countries, both rich and poor."
7. Inflation, organized by the International Financiers will be greatly accelerated.
8. Education will decline very rapidly. The small group of "curriculum organisers" in each country will continue their Sex Education thrust, with their material becoming increasingly filthy and pornographic. This will fulfil their aim of destroying the morals of their youth. (You personally could find out who these men are in your country. Write to your local Education Department.) "Experts" and "Specialists" will continue to deprive children of the rights to basic education by continuing to press for such subjects as:

- (a) Courses in Human Development (sex studies);
- (b) Social Studies — Curriculum geared to socialistic (Communistic) principles and the breakdown of the family and society;
- (c) New Maths — the subject that baffles most parents, and the majority of school pupils.

From a newspaper cutting in today's paper, even as I write: "About 60% of British School leavers cannot manage simple arithmetic of primary school standard. A test conducted by the Institute of Mathematics on 16 year olds in six areas showed that more than 90% of 8000 pupils surveyed could not get full marks in a test which included simple sums such as 6 multiplied by 79, and 282 plus 43."

- (d) Reading — Phonics have been put down, and now, thousands of children reach high school without any reading ability.
- (e) Trips — To factories, the beach, anywhere but the classroom, assist in this destroying process.

When I was in the teaching field, and the Head Teacher insisted on this type of thing, we teachers labelled it: T.W.A. or Time Wasting Activities!

- (f) Lack of discipline in many schools brings a tremendous pressure of instability and insecurity in the children — this in turn breeds discouragement and rebellion.

Because the syllabus is fuzzy, teachers also have become discouraged and this completes the vicious circle.

Weishaupt and his Illuminists would have been delighted.

Christianity Under Attack —

To bring in the anti-religious aspect of the Illuminists plot, educationalists have grasped at the "THEORY" of Evolution and made it text book material. It is taught as if it is a scientifically proven fact, whilst Bible-believing Christians are laughed out of class.

Evolution is Nonsense, for the following reasons:

1. It has no answer to the origins of life. Pasteur said: "Life proceeds only from life." The Bible claims that God breathed life into man.

2. With a few bones dug up from here and there, men have built up a full plaster model on the subject, which looks half ape and half man, e.g. starting point — a thigh-bone etc.
3. Any child knows that there are no examples around of any crossing over of the species, i.e. Fish-Bird-Animal-Man. The Bible told us that hundreds of years ago.

"All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds." I Cor. 15:39.

4. Hybrids are sterile and cannot reproduce. "The mule stands stubbornly blocking the evolutionary trail."
5. No missing link has been found in spite of widespread searches, nor any beings, in the course of changing into something else. Humans have always been humans.
6. Most of the remains dug up were proved to be apes' bones, e.g. Java Man 1891. Diggers found five teeth, a short piece of thigh bone, and a small section of skull the size of a silver dollar — H. G. Wells wrote later: "It was only an ape."

e.g. Pitldown Man 1911-1953. Believed to be a type of missing link. It was finally discovered that it was a modern ape skull, scraped and treated with acid. The stone axe also found had had the same treatment.

7. Question for children to ask teachers: "Can you please show me examples of creatures that are at present changing into something else? If evolution is correct, there must be hundreds of them." (Get out your page already numbered for the occasion but be prepared for disappointment.)

When I was asked to teach this subject at school, I drew a line dividing the blackboard in half. On one side I wrote "GOD"; on the other I wrote the word "NOTHING". I invited the children to choose which one satisfied them, as being the designer and the producer of this marvellous Creation.

Conclusion —

Choice 1 — This wonderful world of complex design and architecture just grew by accident like it is today. (That is the Evolutionists' view).

Choice 2 — This wonderful world of complex design and architecture was planned and brought into being by GOD, the Master Designer.

"For by him (Christ) were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones or dominions or principalities or powers, all things were created by him (Christ — not chance) and for him. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist (or hold together)." Col. 1:16-17.

Without wishing to be rude, I confess to having grave doubts as to the mental state of any who believe in Evolution. Surely, they haven't considered the alternative.

If, for example, I am to believe that my eyeball came about by chance, I may with equal sincerity believe that an unabridged copy of Webster's Dictionary was brought into existence by an explosion in a printing factory.

Therefore, it is now clear as to why so many scientists of repute have turned to Creation by God (not nature) as the correct explanation for the origins of life . . .

Main Reason Many Still Hold to Evolutionary Theory — The alternative is to believe in God. This they are unwilling to do, as belief in God also brings a man or woman to the knowledge that they are therefore responsible to Him, and His claims on their lives.

Satan is a cruel boss — Sin and their love of it prevents many many people (including High School teachers) from teaching the truth to the poor children under their charge. It is not intellect, but your sin that stands in the way, you who damn the children's minds.

One Final Word — I did not originally intend to include a section on this subject, but was awakened during the night and given what to write here.

I do not publish the foregoing out of spite, anger, or a spirit of wishing to be clever, but that precious souls for whom Christ died may not have the blood of countless children on their heads at the Judgment Day.

"But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me (Jesus) it were better for him (school teacher teaching evolution) that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea."

"Woe unto the world because of offences (i.e. filthy sex education, permissiveness, teaching of evolution, etc) for it must needs be that offences come; but WOE TO THAT MAN by whom the offence cometh." Matthew 18:6-7. (Emphasis added)

Well might you tremble before God.

Evolution — Part of the Plot — The theory of Evolution was thought up by one Charles Darwin. These thoughts were summed up in his world-famous "Origin of the Species". It presupposed that man had evolved over millions of years from a primordial germ through the great apes.

N.B. To get the book-selling under way, a mysterious businessman (could he be an Illuminist?) bought up the first complete edition of the 1500 copies, as an advertising stunt.

Bad News for Evolution Believers — Before his death, Charles Darwin refuted the theory of Evolution as being a false hypothesis. This refutation was clearly set out in the "Preface" to one of his later books.

Question? If Darwin refuted it, why do you continue to hold on to it?

As a result of all the foregoing material, it is little wonder that many concerned Christians are setting up Christian schools. Protest — yes, but:

You will never stop the rot. It is fore-ordained. You can, however, see to it that your children are not enmeshed in all this. I personally, as an ex school teacher, who has looked carefully into this matter, recommend the A.C.E. (Accelerated Christian Education) programme.

Pray for "Lenin's Useful Fools"

This is the way Communism labels their stirrers.

Once these tools of the trade have done their job of sabotage in Trade Union Strikes, Civil Disobedience marches and rallies, the teaching of immoral things in education etc, etc, history shows us that these people are wiped out, immediately the new regime takes over.

e.g. Vietnam: Porno kings and drug dealers are included in this list: Communism uses these things, even assisting with finance, until the takeover, then bans it completely.

If you, the reader, have been an unwitting tool (or fool) in this way, God's mercy and forgiveness, through Christ, is for you. Please turn to the last page of this book and read carefully.

Finally — What about Henry?

The Time magazine reported on December 20th 1976: "After Jan. 20th, Henry Kissinger would spend a restful month at Banker, "David Rockefeller's" home on Bartholemey Island in the Caribbean.

Concluding his farewell appearance in Brussels, Kissinger stopped off in London in an effort to salvage the Rhodesian talks, to dine with Prime Minister Callaghan, and attend a soccer match.

Then he left for Washington to sort out his future plans. There will be a "decent interval" of a year for work on his memoirs.— what then?

When newsmen teased him, Henry Kissinger replied: (Some would say with a Mona Lisa smile!) — "I'll be back in 1985".

Stop Press

At this time of revision (December 1979) what is Henry K. doing now?

Many think he has faded from the scene. Newsclipping March 16th 1979: "He has deliberately maintained a low profile during what he called his two years of "decompression" by declining to criticise President Carter publicly."

But now, quite suddenly, he is back on the front pages.

- (a) He has finished his memoirs and three articles in the Time Magazine have taken a precis of these and presented them to the public.
- (b) He has been working for the N.B.C. vetting the news and letting out that which is appropriate for the man in the street to know. Payment: $1m over a period of five years.
- (c) David Rockefeller, his old boss, has been employing him also in the field of economy connected with his Chase Manhattan Bank.
- (d) He has been giving lectures, and charging phenomenal prices. One group of people waited until late one evening for the late Dr K. to turn up and speak.

Upon his arrival, his host said, "They're still waiting for you Henry. It is almost as if you are the Messiah," to which Henry replied in effect, "Are you implying that I'm not?"

Don't ever forget Henry Kissinger (Rocky's Boy) is the Public Relations man for the One World Government people.

No wonder all this is called "THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY".

THE THREE AND A HALF YEARS OF TRIBULATION

Earlier on in our study we saw the truth from Jesus' words in Luke 17:26-30, that His born again ready, watching, purified Bride would be taken up to meet him in the air on the eve of this terrible period of history.

The Bible has much more to say on this subject which we shall leave until the final chapters.

At this stage in our study, the world has just come under the control of the E.E.C. dominated from the shadows by the International Financiers and their front-man, Antichrist, who in turn is encouraged by his religious counterpart, the False Prophet.

This E.E.C. as a revived Roman Empire is the last of the seven world gentile powers to plague the nation of Israel, and regulate world trade.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| i.e. 1. Egypt | | |
| 2. Assyria (branch of Chaldean Govt. and Religion). | | I |
| 3. Babylon. | | S |
| 4. Medo-Persia. | V | R |
| 5. Greece. | | A |
| 6. Rome. | | E |
| 7. E.E.C. | | L |

Rule — Never let any person convince you that this period is seven years in length, and that the Bride of Christ will go up to meet him before the seven-year period.

The Scripture clearly states that the seven-year period continues on until three and a half years are completed. This first period is called:

The Beginning of Sorrows (not the Great Tribulation)

Matt. 24:8. "All these are the 'Beginning on Sorrows.'"

The Antichrist (E.E.C. leader) breaks his covenant (peace and trade agreement) with Israel and the E.E.C.

"And he (E.E.C. leader — Antichrist) shall confirm the covenant with many for one week (seven years) and in the MIDST OF THE WEEK (after three and a half years) he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease (revived Jewish sacrificial system) . . ." Dan. 9:27.a. (Emphasis added)

Now at this stage, Antichrist (E.E.C. leader) stops the Jewish sacrificial system as he has new plans for them. i.e. Worship of himself in the form of an image, called:

The Abomination of Desolation —

This image will be put up in the Great Synagogue in Jerusalem (already built) and after one month's warning (thus giving time for the Jews to run from the trouble centre into hiding down the Jordan Valley), the Great Tribulation will commence.

"And from the time that the daily sacrifice (Jewish Worship under old sacrificial system) shall be taken away and the abomination that maketh desolate (image to E.E.C. leader) set up, there shall be a thousand, two hundred and ninety days." Dan. 12:11.

i.e. 30 days (A Jewish Lunar Month) Warning — for Jews to flee.

+ 1260 days (Using Jewish Lunar Months) = three and a half years Tribulation.

1290 days — total.

Jesus speaking:

"When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the Prophet, stand in the Holy Place (whoso readeth, let him understand) then let them which be in Judea (the trouble centre — Jerusalem — The Synagogue — the Holy Place — the image) flee into the mountains." Matt. 24:15-16.

Notice Please:

If you don't live in Judea, you will not need to run. It continues on with advice for these Judean folk:

"Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house, neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes, and woe unto them that are with child (pregnant women) and to them that give suck in those days." Vs. 17-19.

Why?

Answer: Because —

1. It is difficult for pregnant women to run.
2. It is difficult to run with a baby on one's hip.
3. It is difficult to wash nappies in a desert, and where would you find any facilities out there?

Ladies hear me —

Please continue on having children, provided you do not live around Judea at this time.

Verse 20 continues the theme . . .

"but pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath Day" — this would, of course, be in direct conflict with God's ruling on the length of a Sabbath Day's journey.

"For then (please understand the timing) shall be GREAT TRIBULATION, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be, and except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved, but for the ELECT'S sake (those thousands who will be converted to Christ during the Tribulation) those days shall be shortened." Vs. 21-22. (Emphasis added)

This passage links with Rev. 12, referring to the Woman and the Man Child.

"And there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars." V. 1.

"And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron, and her child was caught up unto God and to His throne." V. 5.

Identity of Woman —

I am very much aware of the modern day teaching on this passage, and do not criticise those who believe it. Please remember that our fellowship is not on the basis of Prophetic Doctrine, but on our love for God the Father, and His Son Jesus Christ.

However, here is an opportunity for Scripture to interpret Scripture:

The story of young Joseph . . . "And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said . . . 'Behold I have dreamed a dream more (this was his second) and behold the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.' And he told it to his father, and to his brethren, and his father rebuked him and said unto him, 'What is this dream that thou hast dreamed?'"

"Shall I (I = Sun) and thy mother (Mother = Moon) and thy brethren (brethren = Stars) indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth." Gen. 37:9-10.

Therefore, The Woman = Israel.

Now for the Man Child:

"And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it, he (Christ) should smite the nations, and he (Christ) shall rule them with a ROD OF IRON . . . etc." Rev. 19:15.a. (Emphasis added)

- (a) Christ was born of this Woman with the 12 stars. He was a descendant of the tribes of Judah.

"For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood." Heb. 7:14.

- (b) He alone is a Man (singular) Child who will rule all nations with a rod of iron — see above Rev. 19:15. This is still future.

- (c) Before He could rule when He was on earth last time, He was crucified, and caught up to God and to His throne — past tense.

Therefore,

The Woman is Israel.

The Man Child is Christ.

Word of Caution: In prophetic study, be extra careful that you do not over-spiritualise clear teaching. Just because it is new, it is not necessarily correct.

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts, shall they HEAP TO THEMSELVES TEACHERS having itching ears, and they shall turn away their ears from THE TRUTH and shall be turned unto FABLES." II Tim. 4:3-4 (Emphasis added)

I am convinced that it was for this very reason that when Christ was revealed to this world the first time there was no welcoming committee of Bible prophecy buffs.

Where were they? The time, the exact place, were all declared. They must have spiritualised simple truth and missed the greatest revelation of all time.

Christ — God veiled in human flesh.

Only two dear old believers recognised him — Simeon and Anna.

This is not intended to be a rebuke, but a longing that Christians today do not miss, through over-spiritualisation, the time of their visitation.

Now we see how it all fits together:

"And the woman (Israel — having fled from Judea) fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there, a thousand two hundred and threescore days." Rev. 12:6.

1260 days, or three and a half years, hidden in a prepared place, and what is more, fed. It is a beautiful picture.

Same again for added emphasis:

"And to the woman (Israel) were given two wings of a great eagle (speaking of Holy Spirit leading — He is still on earth at this time) that she might fly into the wilderness into her PLACE, where she is nourished for a time, and times and half a time (three and a half years) from the face of the serpent (satan: C.f. Ch. 20:2)." Rev. 12:14. (Emphasis added)

Now can you see it?

Summary —

1. Antichrist (E.E.C. Leader) sets up Jewish worship for first three and a half years.
2. After three and a half years he stops it, and puts up his image in the Holy Place.
3. Jews living in Judea have one month to flee from trouble centre.
4. Matt. 24 mentions mountains. Rev. 12 mentions wilderness. They run south through the Valley of Azal, down the Jordan Valley, across the wilderness to . . .

Petra —

The ancient hiding place of the Jews (Greek version of Hebrew "Sela").

This is a remote chasm down in Edom with an entrance barely wide enough for two horsemen to ride abreast, thus it is quite simple to defend.

The valley is about 4,500 ft. long by 740 to 1,500 ft. broad. The main gorge is called Wadi Musa. A rivulet traverses it through its whole length.

The variegated colours of the rock — red, brown, purple, yellow, add to the beauty of the spot and wild figs grow in profusion here. These cliffs are riddled with caves and other hiding places.

Earlier on in this century, a man of God, William E. Blackstone, in answer to a revelation from God, took boxes and boxes of Hebrew Scriptures to this place. The boxes were copper bound, and the Scriptures especially marked to show the deceit of Antichrist (E.E.C. leader) and the triumphal public coming of the true Christ, their king. These Bibles are still there even today.

Who Will Go Into The Tribulation Period?

As we have established, the Bride of Christ will not. The rest of the world will.

"And it was given unto him (E.E.C. leader) to make war with the saints (those who missed being caught up and were converted during the Tribulation) and to overcome them (many will pay for their faith in Christ with their lives) and power was given him (E.E.C. leader) over all kindreds and tongues and nations; and ALL that dwell upon the earth shall worship him whose names are not written in the Book of Life of the Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world." Rev. 13:7-8. (Emphasis added)

Notice —

- (a) The Bride has gone up — Heaven.
- (b) The believing remnant of Israel are hidden — Petra.
- (c) Only an unbelieving world is left.

ALL, not some, will worship him (E.E.C. Leader — Antichrist).

Those who could not find time to worship Christ will, no doubt, find time to worship this man.

Do you read me? You who on Sundays:

- (a) Ignore God and miss church.
- (b) Cut the lawns and do the gardening.
- (c) Go to the beach.
- (d) Lie in bed recovering from the night before.

Champagne at night — real pain in the morning. Your head will literally be at stake. If Idi Amin can encourage British businessmen to carry him shoulder high on a carrying chair, the E.E.C. leader will have no trouble with you.

Scripture interprets Scripture:

Rev. 13:7-8 says "ALL", and this is amplified in Rev. 6:8.b. "And power was given unto them (E.E.C. leader and World Church leader) over the fourth part of the earth (notice a quarter only — this would be the E.E.C. nations and trading partners) to kill with,

- (a) "Sword" — The French Guillotine:

Under the heading "Guillotine's Shiny Blade Falls Again", the newspaper reads: "M. Andre Obrecht, a stocky 33-year-old widower has returned to work with a fearsome machine that many Frenchmen thought might never be used again.

M. Obrecht is France's Chief Executioner. As such, he is sole master of the guillotine.

Claude Buffet and Roger Bontemps were executed in 1972 under the direction of President Pompidou. The blade fell on their necks at dawn on November 28th in the courtyard of La Sante Prison in Paris.

France and Spain are now the only West European countries to retain the death penalty.

So M. Obrecht remains the only executioner in the nine-nation European Common Market."

Please observe that France is a very powerful member of the E.E.C.

In late 1978, the French Government defeated an indirect move in Parliament to have the guillotine abolished.

The guillotine has been used in France for 186 years, although many of the country's present leaders, including President-Valery Giscard d'Estaing and Mr Peyrefitte, the Justice Minister himself have expressed their opposition to the death penalty.

- (b) "With Hunger and with Death" — No Mark — No Food.
No Food — No Live.

(c) "And with the Beasts of the Earth".

The days of Nero will be revived. Believers, and others who refuse to be marked for any number of reasons, will enter the arena.

Unbelievable, you say. In these days of higher education and gracious living. I feel that if you were living in Kampuchea with Communists all around, you wouldn't find any difficulty in believing it.

Another argues, but that was the East. We don't behave like that in the West — Don't we?

Let's cast our minds back to what happened in New York when the lights went out.

God's Word was accurate all the time: "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked, who can know it?" . . . "I the Lord" . . . Jer. 17:9-10.a.

Now, we have already discussed:

- (a) The Mark;
- (b) Name of the E.E.C. Leader.
- (c) Number of His Name.

"And that no man might buy or sell, save he accepts" . . . one of the above branded on his flesh. See Rev. 13:16-17.

Will People Be Given A Choice?

Answer: Yes. It is sometimes called Hobson's choice.

Take the Mark — Lose your soul forever.

Refuse the Mark — Lose your head and thus your earthly life.

Jesus stated it this way —

"And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul, but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Matt. 10:28.

Married Couples with Children —

This is the worst part of the whole thing. A believing husband and wife, converted during the Tribulation, if having dodged the E.E.C. Leader's secret police, could agree together to enter into a "Fast" before the Lord and fast their way into His presence.

With children, it is a different matter. How does one explain to the children that they are all going on a fast. The cries and screams of the young will break many a heart, and thus cause these ones to accept the Mark and everlasting doom.

What If I Take the Mark and Repent Later —

This question has a precedent.

In the days of the early church, Rome demanded that all people under their dominion offered a pinch of incense to their Caesar, thus acknowledging him as God.

No matter how strong the believer, sometimes pressure caused them to give way, and they secretly submitted to this ruling.

Arriving at the local Christian Fellowship on Sunday morning, they were met at the door by an elder, who very clearly informed them that their membership had just lapsed.

They were from then on described as the Lapsi. The verse of Scripture that was used was:

"For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation which shall devour the adversaries,

He that despised Moses law died without mercy under two or three witnesses,

Of how much sorer punishment suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God and hath counted the blood of the covenant wherewith he was sanctified an unholy thing and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace." Heb. 10:26-29.

Some, of course, will argue that these people were never really born again believing Christians. Please compare this Scripture with II Peter 2:20, which refers quite bluntly to two vivid pictures of a Christian turning back to the old life:

- (a) A dog turning back to his own vomit again;
- (b) The sow that WAS WASHED to her wallowing in the mire. (verse 22). (Emphasis added)

What Happens to Those Who Have the Mark Forced Upon Them?

A valid question. One can easily imagine innocent citizens being picked up by the Secret Police (Antichrist's answer to the insinuating brethren of the Illuminists, The Black Shirts of Hitler's Germany, or the K.G.B. of Russia today), and being branded in broad daylight.

Anyone with a knowledge of the Lord and His ways, knows this verse:

"Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example that ye should follow His steps, Who did no sin, neither was guile (tricky speech) found in His mouth . . . but (Christ) committed Himself to Him (God) that judgeth righteously" I. Pet. 2:21-23.

"But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth . . ." Rom. 2:2.a.

I am satisfied that should this forcible branding happen to you or anyone, God reads the motive or aim of the human heart and judges accordingly.

The story, although purely fictitious at this stage, has a reliable lesson for us.

Because the space on the believer's forehead is RESERVED for another mark:

Make your choice well.

Choose your ruts carefully. You'll be in them for the next 20 miles.

Does the Bible Give Clear Directives to Refuse This Mark?

(a) If any man worship the beast (E.E.C. leader) and his image, and
(b) receive his MARK in his forehead, or in his hand, the same
(that person) shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture (undiluted or watered down) into the cup of His indignation, and he (that person) shall be:

You say, "that's terrible!" Yes it is, but the description is not yet finished:

110

During the month of March 1979, my wife and I visited Disneyland in California.

Upon your return, you place your hand under a little machine on the counter and the invisible mark shows up. I know it to be true, because I asked for a look into the machine and saw the previously invisible mark, show up on the back of my own hand.

The machine is already in production that can do just this. It leaves an indelible mark on the skin, and penetrates right through to the bone of the skull. It is invisible unless placed under ultra-violet light. In some ways, it is similar to your bank or post office savings bank book.

The E.E.C. leader, and One World Church leader are controlling the masses through economy.

Whenever this number is mentioned most people's minds immediately picture one or two folk knocking at their door, trying to sell them books, and commencing with a question on the state of the world generally which leads on to a one-way conversation on their religious views.

Revelation 7

They have seven qualifications which you may use to test any person claiming to be one of this group.

1. They know a new song that no other man could learn. (Ask your visitor to sing a few bars). Rev. 14:3.
2. They are virgins (V. 4). Married folk are immediately disqualified. (I remember in Samoa years ago a dear old man named Pop Rasmussen telling me that he was one of the 144,000. I read him this portion of Scripture, and, with a twinkle in his eye, he said, "Well, that sure cuts me out!")
3. They know the whereabouts of Jesus Christ at all times, for "they follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth." (V. 4).
4. They are not angels, but men "redeemed from off the earth (V. 4) and are special, in that they are the first of their kind, or obviously different.

It is my belief that throughout the centuries, God has taken outstanding Jews and put them to one side to be included in this group in the last days. Even today, as I write, there are others being chosen. As Christ returns for His Bride into the air, He deposits this group on Mt. Zion to fulfil a task during the Tribulation Period. Rev. 14:1.

5. Their lives and speech are completely open in every way. "And in their mouth was found no guile". (V. 5).
6. Because of this transparency, the Scripture declares that "they are without fault before the throne of God". Such people, you will agree, are difficult to find.
7. Most importantly, each of these belongs to one of the 12 tribes of Israel. The list given in Rev. 7 includes 12,000 from each tribe. $12 \times 12,000 = 144,000$. No room here for anyone to creep in unofficially. Notice that the list of Tribes differs from the list given in Genesis:

Genesis 46:8-24

1. Reuben
2. Simeon
3. Levi
4. Judah
5. Issachar
6. Zebulon
7. Gad
8. Asher
9. Joseph
10. Benjamin
11. Dan
12. Naphtali

Rev. 7:4-8

1. Reuben
2. Simeon
3. Levi
4. Judah
5. Issachar
6. Zabulon
7. Gad
8. Asher
9. Joseph
10. Benjamin
- Missing
11. Nephtalim
12. Manasses (Son of Joseph).

Dan missed being included, as his tribe was mentioned prophetically by his father Jacob. How did he know, so long before it all happened?

"Dan shall judge his people
As one of the Tribes of Israel.
Dan shall be a serpent in the way
An Adder in the path
That biteth the horses heels
So that his rider falls backward." Gen. 49:16-17.

Dan did fall backward, and in his place stepped young Manasseh in the same list as his father Joseph (Rev. 7).

Who Are They?

The list of qualifications finishes at Rev. 14:5, and in verse 6:

"And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the EVERLASTING GOSPEL to preach unto them that dwell on the earth and to every NATION and KINDRED and TONGUE and PEOPLE." Rev. 14:6. (Emphasis added)

GLOBE OF THE WORLD: TWO WITNESSES, MOSES AND ELIJAH IN JERUSALEM
144,000 AROUND THE WORLD

Link this with —

"And this GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM, shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come." (The end of the Tribulation, which is the main subject of Matt. 24) Matt. 24:14. (Emphasis added).

Explanation —

Because we as Christians have failed to go into all the world and preach the Gospel, God turns back to His original people and lets them do it.

Their Time—

During the Tribulation.

Their Zeal —

They have discovered that the Lord Jesus Christ is their Messiah. They are fulfilled Jews. (Never call a born again Jew a "Christian". They hate the term and associate it with dead, formal, orthodoxy which is not Christian at all.)

An illustration may assist here:

A friend of mine, named Percy Rea, born in Samoa, and converted to Christ in New Zealand, tells of this incident which took place during his days as a taxi driver. He was carrying a passenger (who turned out to be a Jewish Rabbi) to the airport.

The conversation went like this:

Percy: "Where are you going to?"

Rabbi: "Back home to Israel."

Percy: "Why is that?"

Rabbi: "Because Messiah is coming."

Percy: "You mean for the second time."

Rabbi: (violently thumping the back of the front seat with his hand) "No, for the first time."

Percy: "Oh no. It's for the second time. He's been here once, but you crucified him."

Rabbi: (shouting by this time) "Stop the car". He opened the door, climbed out and asked: "How much?"

Percy told him. He threw the money on the floor and after having slammed the car door, went off muttering.

When Percy told me the story, he said: "I can't understand it brother. Did I say the wrong thing?"!

Did He Say the Wrong Thing? — Certainly not. He spoke the truth. The Word of God confirms it:

"... and they (Israel) shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him (Christ) as one mourneth for his only son ... " Zech. 12:10.b.

"And one shall say unto him (Christ) What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends" (Israel). Zech. 13:6.

"He came unto His own, and his own (Israel) received Him not." John 1:11.

"Behold he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him, and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him." (Christ) ... Rev. 1:7.a.

Special Message:

It is delivered to the 144,000 by this angel. The message given is called by two names:

Everlasting Gospel — It includes salvation through Christ alone.

Gospel of the Kingdom — It has a Jewish flavour. A king soon returning to earth to reign at the end of the three and a half year Tribulation. See Math. 24:14.

These men are so zealous that they go everywhere to every last person. They don't waste time obtaining the E.E.C. leader's permission for preaching permits.

They are Dyn — A — Mite.

The Bible teaches —

"He (God) left not Himself without witness." Acts 14:17. Imagine the thorn in the flesh that these 144,000 are to the E.E.C. leader (Antichrist). They are simply everywhere, and even in the trouble centre (Jerusalem) God sees to it that He has — Two Witnesses — probably Moses — Has power to turn water to blood. Rev. 11:7. Elijah — Has power to shut off the rain. Rev. 11:7.

Both these men had a very unusual exit from this earth. Elijah went up alive in a whirlwind.

Moses died, and God, through the person of an angel, buried him. Jude V. 9.

Why? Because God had further work for both of them to do. They had to come back at least four more times to act as witnesses.

First Return Trip —

Place — Mount Tabor. Event — The Transfiguration of Jesus. On the mountain that day were Jesus, Peter, James, John, Moses and Elijah.

"And behold, there talked with him (Jesus) two men (not angels) which were Moses and Elias." Luke 9:30.

Doctor Luke, who wrote this and also the Book of Acts, can be relied upon to know the difference between a man and an angel.

What did they discuss?

"Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he (Jesus) should accomplish at Jerusalem." (V.31).

Let us listen in to Jesus giving His instructions:

"Moses and Elijah, I have called you both down here today for a purpose. In a few days I am to be crucified and I want you two men to witness my resurrection from the dead on the third day — do you understand?"

"Yes Lord," they reply.

Second Return Trip —

Place — Jerusalem — Outside Jesus' Tomb.

Event — The Resurrection.

The Disciples find the stone rolled away. They go inside the tomb and find Jesus' body missing.

"And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men (not angels) stood by them in shining garments." Luke 24:4.

Third Return Trip —

Place — Outside Jerusalem — Mt. of Olives.

Event — The Ascension of Jesus into Heaven.

Jesus rises up into the air and a cloud hides Him from earth.

"And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold two men (not angels) stood by them in white apparel." Acts 1:10.

"Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven. This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven shall so come in like manner, as ye have seen him go into heaven." Acts 1:11.

Notice: Moses and Elijah also knew about His Coming Again. They will not be surprised then when some day soon, whilst walking the streets of heaven, they hear Jesus' voice calling:

"Moses, Elijah, I realise that you two have done quite a little bit of overtime, but I'm sending you down again. This time there is a man on earth pretending to be me. Your task is to go down now, and speak publicly against this man. Against the worshipping of his image, or the taking of his trading mark in their bodies. It will be dangerous work, but in case of trouble, I have provided you both with a built-in flame-thrower. Use it sparingly but well against any opposition. You will be there right in front of the Jewish place of worship for three and a half years — Be strong."!

The story of this great future event is told in Rev. 11.

Try to imagine how the E.E.C. leader (Antichrist — now in his role as Son of Perdition) feels.

Not only does he receive continual reports of these 144,000 fanatics from all corners of the globe, but the greatest insult to his fear-producing tactics is to have two men preaching away daily on the very steps of the building where his image (Abomination of Desolation) is housed.

The main problem, of course, is having them removed. Lots of little black patches on the pavement are grim testimony to the failure of his Secret Police's efforts to stop these men. Those flame-throwers*! (V.5).

Brief Notes on Events —

- (a) They shut up the heavens — no rain — verse 6.
- (b) They turn waters to blood — verse 6.
- (c) They stand in the key spot to prevent people worshipping the image — verses 1-3.
- (d) At the end of the three and a half years, they are killed — verse 7.

- (e) Their bodies lie in the open streets for three and half literal days — verses 8-9.
- (f) It will be televised — all will see it and rejoice — These Bible-bangers were wrong — gifts are given in happiness — all thrilled — verse 10.
- (g) After three and a half literal days, life returns, great fear on all people — verse 11.
- (h) A voice from heaven says "Come up hither". They rise, and as they go up, Moses turns to Elijah and says . . . "Brother, may this be our last trip!!"

God removes His men just prior to Judgment. Any government does the same when declaring war on an enemy. They always remove their ambassadors first.

Remember The Seals — in Rev. 6

Seal One — Peace — Antichrist on White Horse.

Seal Two — War — Antichrist on Red Horse.

Seal Three — Famine — Antichrist on Black Horse.

Seal Four — Death — Antichrist on Pale Horse.

Seal Five — Souls under the altar — Rev. 6:9 — Crying for Vengeance. (N.B. These are in correct chronological order.)

Now at this stage — Seal Six is Opened — There is a great earthquake. This is God's way of gaining attention. "There are no atheists in an earthquake!"

Seal Seven is Next — This is the Judgement Seal.

When doctors give me medical advice, I listen well, and act on their advice, because they are the experts. Medicine is their field.

Would you please listen to me at this stage?

Prophecy is my field of study, and the events that come next are terrifying. Suffice to say,

"And the Kings of the earth and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond man, and every free man" (including your EMPLOYER, YOUR WORKMATES, YOUR NEIGHBOURS, YOUR UNIVERSITY INTELLECTUALS, YOUR ATHEISTS, YOUR HUMANISTS, YOUR SCHOOL TEACHERS, YOUR MODERNIST PASTORS and all others who fight God) "hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains, and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne (God), and from the wrath of the Lamb (Jesus), For the great day of His wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?" Rev. 6:15-17.

Don't you play with your soul. There is only one place of safety at this time. IN CHRIST, just as Noah was safe in the ark.

How Long Will This Judgment Phase Last?

Back to Daniel 12. During the Tribulation period there are "hot spots" and "cooler spots" to be living. Here is a list of the "hot spots" —

1. Israel — the hottest of all.
 2. The 10 E.E.C. Countries and trading partners.
- These will be forced to receive the trading mark before other people.

Those living in the cooler spots, receiving no mark, living from day to day on home-grown food, or bartered supplies, may well also miss many of the heavier judgments of the seventh seal. To these folk, the following verse will have relevance:

"Blessed (happy, fortunate and to be envied) is he that waiteth (in a cool spot) and cometh to the thousand, three hundred and five and thirty days." Dan. 12:12 (Amp. Bible)

A Breakdown of This Figure —

1335 days = 30 days warning for Jews to flee.
1260 days = Tribulation period.
45 days = A Jewish month and a half of Judgment.

No wonder he is happy. He is still around after all this.

About this time is the great Battle of Armageddon. We will deal with this in a later publication. Then . . . CHRIST RETURNS PUBLICLY TO THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

"And his (Christ's) feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives . . . "Zech. 14:4.a.

Are you sure that you will miss all these judgements? Consider well the words of Jesus:

"Watch ye therefore, and pray always that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man." Luke 21:36. (Emphasis added)

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE MESSAGE THAT SATAN TRIED TO STOP OR PROOF POSITIVE THAT JESUS CHRIST MUST BE MESSIAH

"Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate." Dan. 9:24-27.

About the 5th Century B.C. this prophecy was given, which takes us to 1980 and beyond.

Of all the books I have read on the subject, not one seems to agree with another.

The Prophet Daniel was told "the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end." Dan. 12:9.b. He was also told: "the wise shall understand . . ." Dan. 12:10.b.

With these two things in mind, I set myself to a search which, covering all arguments and loopholes, was to last for eight months. I am satisfied that I have found the answer — my Spirit is calmed at last and I leave it to you, the reader, to say yea or nay.

The Jews had been carried out of their land, Israel, into (1) Babylon, (2) Persia, and were due to return home soon. Daniel could read the Prophets too.

Just as we use Daniel's prophecy today to determine the future, Daniel used Jeremiah's prophecy to determine the Jew's immediate future. (He was also a captive with them at this time.)

"And this whole land (Israel) shall be a desolation, and an astonishment, and these nations (Israel and Judah) shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation saith the Lord, for their iniquity . . ." Jer. 25:11-12.a.

Daniel knew that the 70 years were nearly concluded, so he called a prayer meeting, at which only one attended — himself.

"Yea whiles I was speaking in prayer even the man Gabriel . . . (God's messenger) . . . being caused to fly swiftly touched me . . ." Dan. 9:21.a.

The arch-angel Gabriel told him that there was to be a further period of vital Jewish history lasting for a period of:

490 Years —

It is at the end of this period that Christ will come to reign as King over all the earth from the city of Jerusalem.

"And the Lord shall be king over all the earth, in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one." Zech. 14:9.

The Prophecy Explained:

It was directed towards —

- (a) Israel.
- (b) The city of Jerusalem.

"Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people (Daniel was from Israel) and upon thy holy city (this is Jerusalem)." Dan. 9:24.a.

True False

Therefore this prophecy is not specifically for the Bride of Christ (made up of Jews and Gentiles) but they can learn from it.

How Long is the Period Mentioned?

The Jewish people have a word "Heptad" which, when used in their language, refers to a period of seven years (one week).

The best example of this is found in Genesis 29, where we read the story of Jacob's love affair with a girl called Rachel. He arranges to marry her, but the morning after the wedding he discovers that he has the wrong girl. It is Leah, Rachel's sister that he has married. According to their custom, the eldest must marry first. Naturally, quite upset by this piece of trickery, Jacob listens while the girl's father, Laban, offers him a new deal.

"Fulfil her WEEK (Heptad) and we will give thee this (Rachel) also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years." Gen. 29:27. (Emphasis added)

Poor Jacob worked for two Heptads (2 × 7 years) and gained two wives.

"Seventy Weeks (Heptads) are determined (pre-arranged on God's timetable for Israel) . . ." Dan. 9:24.a.

70 × 7 years = 490 years.

Six Events Will Take Place During the 490 years —

- (a) To finish the transgression (or breaking of God's Law) — still future.
- (b) To make an end of sins (these sins are today on the increase) — still future.
- (c) To make reconciliation for iniquity (Jesus did this later, on the cross) — past — fulfilled at Calvary.
- (d) To bring in everlasting righteousness (when Jesus reigns as King) — still future.
- (e) To seal up the vision and prophecy (the reality will cancel out the shadows) — still future.
- (f) To anoint the Most Holy (Christ will build the temple, dedicate it and sit in it for 1000 years). Acts 15:16 — still future.

When is the Starting Point for the 490 years?

It is extremely important that no room for error is left here. If you build an incorrect foundation, the building also will be out of shape. Let us paraphrase verse 25:

"Messiah will come 483 years after the commandment to rebuild Jerusalem."

Please jot this paraphrase down, as a clear statement to begin with.

7 WEEKS = 49 YEARS.

Who Gave the Commandment?

This is the crux of the matter, and is the main point of disagreement amongst many Godly Bible scholars.

Where to Find this Information?

1. Not in a secular history book at the library.

Professor Blaiklock, ex Professor of History and Classics at the University of Auckland, New Zealand, points out that secular history books dealing with Persia, are likely to give varied and mis-leading dates.

The reason for this is that Persian history was not recorded until five or six centuries after the events took place. Historians such as Josephus and Ptolemy were hard-pressed to decide on valid manuscripts on which to base their works.

Such confusion has arisen as a result that some over-zealous students of Bible prophecy have put a date on "Messiah" and working backwards have committed the unpardonable sin of setting their own date for the commandment to rebuild Jerusalem.

2. The true man of God has no recourse but to obtain his dating for this important event from the Bible itself, using a "Bible Chronology". I recommend one in particular, difficult to obtain, yes, but well worth the effort, written by Russian-born Ivan Panin of Bible numeric fame.

A study of Ezra and Nehemiah will give the student a full list of information on this event.

I list my findings here:

Three Medo-Persian Kings Involved —

1. Cyrus — Temple Ezra 1:1-2.

2. Darius — Temple (Reinforces the Decree) Ezra 6:1 and 12.

3. Artaxerxes — Wall and City. Neh. 2:1,2,5,8.

Three Jewish Leaders were Involved —

1. Zerubbabel — Temple — Ezra 2:1-2.

2. Ezra — Wall and City after the Temple. Ezra 7:1. Neh. 8:6.

3. Nehemiah — Wall and City. He was appointed Governor. Neh. 8:9.

I also discovered that DANIEL was there as an eye witness. (Neh. 10:6). He knew what he was talking about.

Therefore, we have three Kings who could all be one we are looking for:

CYRUS DARIUS ARTAXERXES

Darius comes on the scene a little later on, so that narrows the field down to two only:

CYRUS ARTAXERXES

As a young man I heard arguments for both sides, and changed my view regularly, depending on who put up the better argument.

Arguments Used —

1. It couldn't be Cyrus, because he did not specifically mention the city (Jerusalem) but made a proclamation, in writing mind you, to build him a house at Jerusalem. Ezra 1:2.

Not the city, Jerusalem, but the Temple in the city.

2. It couldn't be Artaxerxes, because he didn't make a proclamation that Nehemiah should go and build the city of Jerusalem, but simply saw Nehemiah looking sad and gave him his permission to go. Notice — no written commandment, or proclamation.

Artaxerxes wrote him letters to help him gain supplies, and apparently letters of introduction to the Governors, but no commandment. Neh. 2:1-5. 7-8.

3. It must be Artaxerxes because only he mentions the city of Jerusalem, in spite of the fact there was no specific commandment.

I confess I felt very humbled to be in the search, along with all the great Bible scholars of history. I do not claim originality for all of these findings, and before God, gratefully acknowledge the findings of Dr Ivan Panin, in my search for truth:

The Wise Will Understand — Dan. 12:10.b. — At the Time of the End V.9.

It was CYRUS all the time!

Proof — Cyrus was King of Persia at this period of history. He had an old uncle whose name was Darius. This old man was so decrepit that they entered into a gentleman's agreement, that Cyrus would do all the fighting and hard work and have it all written up in the name of Darius. The old man thought that this was a very good plan. Hence, when you read in the Bible of the capture of Babylon, Cyrus, not Darius must receive all the credit. Dan. 5:31.

Background — One day as King Cyrus sat in his throne-room, one of his scribes brought in a copy of the Jewish Old Testament Scriptures.

He said: "Oh King, I wish to read to you a passage from Isaiah in the Jewish Scriptures."

King Cyrus replied: "Why should I, a Persian King, wish to hear the Jewish Scriptures read?"

"Because, your Majesty" he replied, "Your name is in here. I have done some research into the matter, and have discovered that this passage was written about 150 years before you were born."

Cyrus then became very interested and leaned forward so as not to miss a word.

"That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure, even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built, and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid." Isa. 44:28.

"That is really something," said Cyrus. "Read that again and explain what the Prophet says I will do."

Here are the two things:

- (a) Issue a Commandment for Jerusalem to be built.
- (b) Issue a Commandment for the Temple foundation to be laid.

True False

Up to this point, please tick the appropriate square:

Now link this with:

"Now in the first year of Cyrus, King of Persia that the Word of the Lord, by the mouth of Jeremiah (concerning the 70 years soon closing down) might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, King of Persia (obviously through the reading of this Isaiah passage) that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying . . ." Ezra 1:1.

Notice —

- (a) Proclamation — Commandment.
- (b) In Writing.

This was the only King who did these two things. There are still records of this Proclamation.

Problem — "Thus saith Cyrus, King of Persia, the Lord God of heaven (not a bad statement for a heathen King) hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he (God) hath charged me (Cyrus) to build him an house (Temple) at Jerusalem, which is in Judah." Ezra 1:2.

Here there is no definite mention of the city of Jerusalem, as Cyrus knew quite well the two phases of the Commandment. He also knew that to a Jew the Temple was the key issue. The city part is presupposed here and is obviously covered in this proclamation.

Proof — Read the list of those who went up to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel and Nehemiah — a total of 42,360, plus servants and maids, totalling 7,337, plus 200 singing men and singing women.

Overall total = 49,697 persons.

Also they took along 736 horses, 245 mules, 435 camels, 6,720 asses.

I want you to picture them arriving in the city area, probably with their children and luggage, including tools.

Do these almost 50,000 persons camp outside for many years while they build the Temple, merely because it is not recorded in the Book of Ezra — The women wouldn't put up with it!

Actually Ezra, chapter four, records clearly that the city and the walls were also involved. Enemies living in the area tried to stop the building programme. They wrote false letters of accusation to four Kings involved, chronologically speaking:

- 1. Cyrus
- 2. Darius
- 3. Ahasuerus
- 4. Artaxerxes

At this point we can state clearly the following:

Now for the Date the Commandment was given:

Dr Ivan Panin, in his book "Bible Chronology" shows that according to the Scriptures, the date was clearly: 486 B.C. (or year 3517 from Adam).

Some Other Interesting Prophecies Fulfilled at this Time —

Before Cyrus, King of Persia, could possibly send the Jews home to commence building, he had to bring them out from under Stage Two.

They were in captivity in Babylon for most of the seventy-year period, under two Kings. Firstly Nebuchadnezzar, and later, his grandson Belshazzar.

Babylon (Stage Two) — A Backward Look:

This was a vast city with the following measurements: Wall = 60 miles in length, surrounding the city. It was 200 ft. high and 87 ft. thick. There was a moat all the way around. The city had giant brass gates in the walls.

The River Euphrates flowed through the city, and was bordered on both sides by high walls.

A bridge across the middle provided access to both sides of the city, and at each end of the bridge were giant gates which were locked each night for security.

Party Night in Babylon — Things were going beautifully. Nebuchadnezzar was dead, and his grandson, Belshazzar, sat on the throne.

The laughter and gaiety from the crowd made the King feel very happy. To liven things up a little, he ordered that the Sacred Jewish Cups of gold and silver be brought out and filled with sparkling wine. Things were just getting under way.

Suddenly, there was a deathly hush as some strange words were written on the wall of the banqueting room by a man's hand, apparently not attached to an arm or a body:

"MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN" (See Dan. 5.)

It was translated by God's man, Daniel, who was brought in for this very purpose, and Belshazzar's knees knocked together.

Please notice that Daniel, God's man, was not at the party itself, as these events normally lead on to Judgment and misery.

Christian's would do well to take note.

The interpretation was Judgment indeed:

Meanwhile, up the river, and outside the city, Cyrus of Persia had diverted the waters of the Euphrates into a large pond, dug especially for the occasion. He and his troops marched under Babylon's walls, along the dry river bed.

Reaching the bridge in the centre of the city, they noted with some satisfaction that the gate men, in their drunken stupor, had left the gates open.

Cyrus moved straight into the party-room, and Belshazzar was killed. Read it here:

"That night was Belshazzar the King of the Chaldeans slain, and Darius, the Median (that is Cyrus' sick uncle) took the kingdom, being about three score and two years old (62)". Dan. 5:30-31.

The Jewish prisoners — about 50,000 of them — were then ruled (still in Babylon) by the Persians and soon heard that wonderful proclamation, telling them to return home to Israel.

Turn to Isaiah 44:

All these events were predicted over 100 years before Cyrus' birth:

1. Verse 27: "That sayeth to the deep, be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers." e.g. The Euphrates.
2. Ch. 45:1-3. "That sayeth of Cyrus, he is my shepherd" etc. etc. All true.
3. "Thus sayeth the Lord to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him." i.e. Babylon.
4. "And I will loose the loins of Kings." i.e. Belshazzar.
5. "To open before him the two-leaved gates, and the gates shall not be shut" — i.e. Babylon's gate-keepers drunk.
6. "I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron" — i.e. Security smashed.
7. "And I will give unto thee (Cyrus) the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places." i.e. Cyrus took great riches from Babylon = $353,427,200 in silver, gold, and precious stones, etc.

The Reason for all these prophecies being fulfilled in Cyrus:

"That thou (Cyrus) mayest know (not speculate) that I the Lord which call thee by the name, am the God of Israel." Isa. 45:3.b.

No Excuse — History proves the prophecies to be correct to this point. If you have read and understood the afore-written, you have no excuse to doubt the Word of God.

"The Word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day." John 12:48.b.

Have you read of King Herod? (Matt. 2:2-8) — Wise men from the East came to visit him. They told him "The King of the Jews" had been born, and that they had followed His star.

Herod was troubled — V.3 — Why?

Herod asked his scribes — V.4 — Where? Christ should be born.

They answered: "Bethlehem of Judea" — Vs.5-6.

Herod then asked: "What Time? the star appeared." (V.7.)

How did they know?

Answer: From this Daniel 9 prophecy.

This is their only source.

Any Jew living today can discover the same thing, positively. Remember the Paraphrase? Dan. 9:25.

"The Messiah will come 483 years after the Commandment to rebuild Jerusalem."

God's Seal, showing this to be the correct interpretation.

Many students, in a frustrated attempt to work out this prophecy using secular history as their guide, have come up with the following:

- (a) Christ was revealed as Messiah as He rode into Jerusalem on a donkey;
- (b) Christ was revealed as Messiah at His baptism;
- (c) Christ was revealed as Messiah, at the Crucifixion;
- Using Bible chronology, here is the correct version:
- (d) Christ was revealed as Messiah at His Birth.

Never can I forget my daughter Rachel asking me this question, "Dad, How can Christ be born four years before Jesus?"

I answered, "This is only useful in the realm of Bible prophecy. Otherwise we'll leave the calendar alone.

Christ was born in 4 B.C. (Bible chronology — Panin)

Now to check the paraphrase:

The Commandment — Given by Cyrus: 486 B.C.
—483 years

Christ Messiah Born 4 B.C.

Error in Dates? No! The Bible does not specify His birthdate. Correct quote: i.e. "unto the Messiah".

Point A: If Jesus was born late in 4 B.C. it would take him 12 months until late 3 B.C. when he had his first birthday. For example: If born Dec. 30th 4 B.C. he would have his first birthday on Dec. 30th 3 B.C. — Remember B.C. works backwards.

Point B: Also to be taken into consideration here, is the month of the year when Cyrus gave the Commandment in writing. i.e. Late or early in the year.

Summing Up: The Commandment given in 486 B.C. with 483 years of Jewish history following, brings us to the birth of Messiah, Jesus, in 4 B.C.

Thrilling Confirmation —

In the year 487 B.C. God sends Gabriel to Daniel, to declare the period allotted to Israel.

In the year 5 B.C. God sends Gabriel to Mary to declare:

- (a) The end of the 483 years, and
- (b) The Birth of Messiah.

JESUS BIRTH

ANGEL GABRIEL TALKING TO DANIEL

"And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a virgin, espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David and the virgin's name was Mary.

And the angel came in unto her and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women.

And when she (Mary) saw Him she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be, And the angel said unto her, Fear not Mary, for thou hast found favour with God,

And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus (Saviour)." Luke 1:26-31.

Here It Is —

1. "He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest." — That is Messiah.
2. "And the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of his father David." — That is Messiah.
3. "And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever." — That is Messiah.
4. "And of his kingdom, there shall be no end." — That is Messiah.
5. "Therefore also, that holy thing that shall be born of thee shall be called, The Son of God." verse 35.b. — That is Messiah.

Final Note on This Section —

Unless, therefore, the end of the 483 years is at the birth of the Lord, we have no dates from the Bible for:

- (a) The birth of the Lord;
- (b) The baptism of the Lord;
- (c) The crucifixion of the Lord;
- (d) A single event for which the prophecies of Daniel were given to be foreknown by God's people (Panin — Bible Chronology).

* * * *

At the Birth of Christ, the 490 years clock stops. Some object to this view and say that the final One Week (Heptad of seven years duration) has already been fulfilled. However, no event which was to have happened during this seven-year period can actually be found to have already happened. Check your history books.

A Gap Period —

As we have already stated, when dealing with Bible prophecy, always allow for the gaps, otherwise confusion is the result.

The last seven years of the prophecy is still future.

ANGEL GABRIEL TALKING TO MARY

This gap period is a very important one, as far as we Gentiles are concerned.

In 1980 we are living at Stage Two on God's plan.

There are two vital references to this period in Scripture:

- (a) The Times of the Gentiles — Luke 21:24.b.
- (b) The Fulness of the Gentiles — Rom. 11:25.

Note the Three Groups — Paul speaking: "Give none offence neither to

- (a) The Jews — including all from the 12 Tribes (i.e. 10+2)
- (b) The Gentiles — including all non-Jews (e.g. British, Chinese, Eskimos.)
- (c) The church of God — made of living stones, Born Again, transformed Jews and Gentiles who do not major any longer in national pride, but in their unity as members of Christ's Body. 1 Cor. 10:32.

The Times of the Gentiles —

God often uses Israel as a clock, depicting the time in world events. This is particularly for the benefit of genuine Christians who are eagerly awaiting Christ's return. He says . . . "Watch Israel, and you will know where you stand."

A tremendous fulfilment of prophecy took place during the six-day war in the Middle East in June 1967.

A well-known Christian, at the conclusion of this war, rushed to the Post Office and sent telegrams to his Christian friends all around the world. The telegram read:

TELEGRAM ZK4321
"Luke 21:24.b Fulfilled Today
Sam."

"And Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles (Arabs in particular) until the TIMES OF THE GENTILES be fulfilled." Luke 21:24.b. (Emphasis added)

From 1948, Jerusalem was divided in two:

ARABS	ISRAEL
-------	--------

In 1967, the whole city was in Israeli hands for the first time in 2,500 years.

- (a) This sign tells us that Christ is returning very shortly for His Bride.
- (b) Anyone who wishes to miss the terrifying Great Tribulation had best make his/her way to God, right now.

God always gives a warning space before any major event, and always brings a clear verbal warning also.

"Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants, the prophets." Amos 3:7.

The Fulness of the Gentiles —

Turn back for a moment, take a brief look at the chart showing God's timetable for the world, then read this verse:

"For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that blindness IN PART is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in." Rom. 11:25 (Emphasis added).

Interpretation —

God has turned away from His original people Israel. This does not mean completely turned away, as it is "In Part", therefore some Jews are being blessed also at this time.

This is your day whether you be Gentile or Jew to "Come In".
In Where? Into the family of God by an experience called the New Birth.

This period has a beginning = i.e. The Birth of Christ.
This period has an ending = i.e. The Meeting of Christ with His Bride, in the air.

Do not miss your opportunity.

During this period then, the following things will take place:

- (a) Ten nations will be established in the E.E.C.
- (b) A Jewish Leader will be appointed.
- (c) A Great World Church will be established.
- (d) A Leader, given to supernatural signs will be appointed.
- (e) A New Monetary System will come into being.
- (f) Computers will be used in Trade and Commerce.
- (g) Many will reject the World Church and become members of Christ's true church, which is a spiritual house made from living stones.
- (h) Christ will come and take this group (Bride) away from earth for a three and a half year period whilst the Tribulation is on.

The Final Seven Years —

As we have learnt, these are still future. They are divided into two sets of three and a half years each. This is definite, as the Tribulation period starts in the Middle of the Week (Heptad of seven years) with the setting up of the "Abomination of Desolation" (Image to E.E.C. leader).

Some believe that the first three and a half years is already over, having been fulfilled during the public ministry of Christ. However, Jesus Ministry was not three and a half years in Length

Dr Ivah Panin has clearly established that Jesus' public ministry lasted not a fortnight longer than three years:

The Lord Born — 4 B.C.

Year one of ministry — 27 A.D.

Year two of ministry — 28 A.D.

Year Three of ministry — 29 A.D.

The Cross, Resurrection, Ascension, Pentecost — 30 A.D. I quote the writings of Panin:

"Now it is from John's Gospel alone that we learn that the ministry of our Lord was more than one year, since he names three Passovers.

The three synoptics (Matthew, Mark, Luke) leave one with the impression, though not necessarily, that the ministry covered only one year.

Now it is clear, three passovers only, and the utmost length of the ministry not a fortnight over three years.

And even thus, it must begin exactly on Nisan 14 of 4032 (years since Adam)."

Therefore, as Christ could not have fulfilled the first three and a half years, and the second lot of three and a half years is definitely the Great Tribulation, we must now identify the first lot.

The Beginning of Sorrows —

Just prior to the Great Tribulation we read of this period of history. This is a foretaste of that which is to come, yet it is not part of the Great Tribulation.

Illustrating Story —

A man was seen beating his donkey over the head with a large length of 4 × 2 timber (for American readers, 2 × 4 lumber). A friend, upon seeing this violent exercise proceeding, enquired: "What is the problem. Won't he go?" The first man replied: "It's not that he won't go. I'm just attracting his attention!"

When this period comes upon the earth, God will see to it that everyone has their attention attracted.

"All these are the beginning of sorrows." Matt. 24:8.

A friend may have loaned you a copy of this book, and if you have reached this point without being absolutely convinced that I am speaking factual truth, please be sure that these events, about to be outlined, will fully convince you.

Jesus is seated upon the Mount of Olives (Matt. 24:1-3) and the disciples ask him three questions:

- (a) When shall these things be?
- (b) What shall be the sign of Thy coming?
- (c) And of the end of the World?

Note, first of all, that the Coming of Christ is not the end of the world. It will continue on for a least 1,000 years after Christ comes publicly at the conclusion of the Tribulation period (three and a half years — second period).

Signs—

Believer and unbeliever alike will see all these.

1. False Religious Systems, each claiming their "man" or "woman" to be the Saviour of the World. Some even teach that adherence to their religion is the way.

"Take heed that no man deceive you, for many shall come in my name (false Christian organisations) saying, 'I am Christ' and shall deceive many." Matt. 24:4-5.

Jehovah's Witnesses, Bahai, Divine Light, Moonists, Hari Krishna, Armstrong's (Plain Truth), Mormons, and others, all claim to be "The Way".

Christ said "I AM THE WAY" John 14:6.

2. Wars

"And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, see that ye be not troubled for all these things must come to pass, but the END IS NOT YET (i.e. the Tribulation), for nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom." V.6-7.a. (Emphasis added)

The newspaper tells us that "since September 1945 there has not been a single day in which the world was free of war. In fact, 12 wars were being fought on any average day."

I have often wondered how it is that one war is barely over and another is commencing somewhere else. Someone is starting them.

Problem: How do you motivate one group of people to attack, viciously wound, torture, or kill another group of people, with whom they have never before come into contact.

When the immediate battle is over, normal trading patterns resume. The nations that lost are assisted by those who won to build up their cities, and their economies, until they are amongst the leaders in world manufacture and finance, e.g. Germany, Japan.

Vietnam closes down, with the Communists taking all, and immediately Cambodia starts — then over to Africa and so on.

It is similar to the strike pattern in any given country. They seem to take their turn, and strike in order. It is almost as though someone is ticking off a list somewhere.

I wonder if the Rockefellers and their friends know anything about all this.

3. Famines —

Only one-third of the earth's peoples will go to bed tonight with their hunger completely satisfied. Even this one third through droughts, floods, snap frosts, etc, will experience famine conditions shortly.

Hard to believe? The man riding the Black Horse with scales in his hand with which he will ration out the food, may help to convince you.

"It will never happen here" you say — We'll see!

4. Pestilences —

A while back, the Time magazine did a series on this subject. On the cover it showed a large BUG with bulbous eyes. The heading was entitled: "The Bugs are Coming." e.g. Killer bees, ants, beetles, leaf mould, etc. etc. are on the increase, and this will culminate in the Beginning of Sorrows period.

Other Problems —

Even important minerals are running out. Scientists are almost going crazy with worry because of what they consider will be the result of all this.

A friend of mine, Reg Highsted, (a coal mine owner, and a very fine Christian), said to me: "Scientists are worried about the world's mineral supplies running out, but the Lord saw to it that we have just enough to carry us through until He comes."

I remember, in this regard, an amusing story told by a vigorous elderly Christian named Mr Dashfield. He was in Moscow at Lenin's tomb, mocking the guards by saying that Lenin was dead, but in contrast, that Jesus Christ, His Saviour, was alive. He spoke also about the resurrection from the dead. The Communist replied, laughing as he pointed out that the whole thing was a hoax: "For a start" he said, "there isn't enough phosphorus to go around." Mr Dashfield quickly retorted, "The Bible teaches that the dead in Christ will rise first, then you communists will need to scratch around for your own phosphorus."!

Jesus continues His list:

5. Earthquakes —

These have always terrified mankind. The tremendous increase in these death-dealing shakes has been likened to the earth experiencing birth pangs. The Kingdom of God is about to be born on earth, and the contractions are coming more regularly and closer together.

1982 will be the end of another 11 year cycle of solar flares or sun spots. Each time this happens (the last was in 1971) the following phenomena occur:

- (a) Strong rays, or impulses from the sun strike the North and South Poles of the earth, creating drag or stress. The earth, held back by this drag, still endeavours to spin in a regular way, but the terrible strain exerted sets off earthquakes.
- (b) Radio and television waves go crazy. A cab driver may call through on his radio telephone, and instead of picking up his home office, he may be answered by an operator as far away as 2000 miles.

1977-1982 is the frightening one. Commencing in 1977, all nine planets in our solar system begin lining up on the same side of the sun. This happens once every 179 years, but in 1982 the nine planets will not only be on the same side of the sun, but will be aligned in a curved shape.

Probable (not possible) Effects:

- (a) A disturbed magnetic activity in the sun, producing huge fire storms.
- (b) The ionosphere of earth will be changed.
- (c) That radio and television communications will be disrupted.
- (d) There will be weird lighting effects from the Aurora Borealis
- (e) There will be vast changes in wind patterns.
- (f) Rainfall and temperature patterns will change.
- (g) Earth's rotation and length of days may change.
- (h) Many EARTHQUAKES will occur.

California will probably receive its big one then, if not before 1982.

From the 1974 World Almanac: "There have been more earthquakes in this century than in all recorded history."

Who's Looking Forward to 1982?

In 1973, a man of God in America saw a series of visions which he recorded in a book entitled "The Vision". David Wilkerson, the author of "The Cross and the Switchblade" has a message for this generation.

I applied the Bible test to his predictions and find them to be genuine. (I cannot say the same for Jeanne Dixon.) Although not claiming to be a prophet, David Wilkerson must be included under that heading.

"And if you say in thine heart, How shall we know the Word which the Lord hath not spoken?" Deut. 18:21.

Here is the Biblical answer:

"When a Prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously, thou shalt not be afraid of him." Deut. 18:22.

Beginning of Sorrows List, plus Additions:

1. False Christs and Religions.
2. Wars.
3. Famines.
4. Pestilence.
5. Earthquakes.

Plus Wilkerson's List (Please buy the book and read it. Available at your nearest Christian Book Store).

6. Monetary Confusion and Crash — remember the three major currencies: dollar, yen, deutchmark.
7. Weather patterns going crazy — in March 1979, whilst we were in Hawaii, Hilo had 23" of rain in one day.
8. Flood of filth on T.V. and elsewhere — it creeps up on us, getting worse all the time.
9. Hate the Parents crusade by disillusioned youngsters — permissiveness versus the Rod of Correction.
10. Persecution against Christians — it is starting already.

It would be superfluous for me to add any more comments to this latter section. These things will surely come to pass.

Non-Christian's Reactions —

All this is God's way of letting earth's people know that He is fed up with the arrogance and rejection of His claims on men's lives. Everyone will know that the earth is under a Divine Siege.

Some will still play the fool with their souls, blind to the warnings from God's Word. Even today, some non-Christian folk in America know something is amiss. Throughout the world, whole families are joining up with or organising small communities in a "Back to the Soil" march.

Others, although not claiming to be Bible believers, are, as one newspaper cutting read: "Getting ready for Doomsday."

"Springing up in the northern California mountains is a different type of country club — A Doomsday Retreat for the wealthy.

It lacks swimming pools, tennis courts, and golf courses, yet it costs $12,800 cash for a lifetime membership, plus $300 annual subscription.

It is so exclusive that prospective members, who must make advance reservations, are blindfolded before entering and leaving the 712-acre pine covered Scott Meadows Club.

Expulsion, with no refund is the penalty for giving directions to an outsider.

Each member is required to maintain a year's supply of dehydrated food in a community building for each family member . . .

Visitors and guests are not welcome, and the club could be especially unpleasant on Doomsday.

All but one of the 18 members owns fire arms. "I'd shoot to kill, to protect my food and family," says Mr Hollis.

Part of his sales pitch is an explanation of how easily he could dynamite the road to bar intruders.

"Two sticks would close that road off. It would just drop down in the canyon," he says.

On January 18th 1974 this was the heading from the front page of the "Peking Review".

WORLD IN GREAT DISORDER EXCELLENT SITUATION

The Communists, World Financiers, and others on the inside feel quite comfortable, but even they will be forced to take notice.

The Bible sums it up like this:

"And there shall be signs in the sun (1982 and before) and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth, distress of nations, with perplexity (Governments not knowing where to turn) the sea and the waves roaring (massive spring tides and tidal waves), Men's hearts failing for fear (a dramatic increase in heart seizures) and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of heaven shall be SHAKEN." Luke 21:25-26. (Emphasis added)

Christian's Reactions:

Should be completely the reverse to those of the Non-Christians. It is their Father God Himself who is doing the shaking.

David Wilkerson brought a word of comfort at the conclusion of his book "The Vision". He was told, "GOD HAS EVERYTHING UNDER CONTROL."

This will be one of the most fruitful times for the Christians in the history of the world.

Why is God Bringing this Shaking? —

He is forced to. In our little country alone, over 94% do not attend any place of worship on Sunday, and of the 6% who do, very few are the genuine twice-born type.

I was working down below in the bottom paddock on the farm just two years ago. The Lord spoke strongly to my spirit — "There is going to be a shaking". I knew it was a Bible verse, so I ran inside to look it up. Unable to find my Bible concordance, I returned to work. The same thing happened three times. I searched in vain. The next day, a camp was due to commence and the main speaker arrived on the property. Calling to me out of the window of his car, Graeme Cruickshank said: "I have a very strong Word from the Lord. When is the first meeting?" I told him.

Next morning, as he stood up to address the campers, Graeme said: "Let us turn in our Bibles to Hebrews 12:26-27" —

"Whose voice then shook the earth (Mount Sinai at the giving of the Law) but now he hath promised saying, Yet once more, I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. And this word Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, THAT THOSE THINGS WHICH CANNOT BE SHAKEN MAY REMAIN."

God will do the shaking, so do not blame Satan. (Emphasis added)

Fallacy —

Christians will come out with their possessions untouched. I thought this might be the case until the Lord showed me otherwise.

I was on a Gospel-preaching Mission in the Pacific and had just returned from Hawaii to American Samoa, via Tahiti (Christmas 1976). Within a few days of arriving back to be reunited with my wife, May, my son Andy, and a friend Dennis Clunie, who had stayed on in Samoa, we experienced a hurricane which battered away one night, went out to sea, and returned in full force the next night.

It was a frightening experience to see people in their open-type homes desperately holding on to any possessions that had not been blown away. The lights failed as the power wires came down, and whole families stumbled into shelter in the little concrete church where we were sleeping. The wind built up and up until it actually seized up the anemometer (a machine which measures wind velocity) at the Research Station.

Awaking in the morning, in this back village, what a scene of desolation and destruction met our eyes. The bus crept along the almost totally destroyed road that led back to town. On the way we passed a large church which had a very non-spiritual type pastor. This man had instructed his flock in the arts of "Bingo" more than in the practise of prayer and evangelism. The hurricane had taken its toll. Half of the roof from this man's house was missing.

I murmured within myself, "that will teach you, you ungodly man. Perhaps you will now turn back to your correct responsibility, that of leading the people back to God through Christ, and forget about your Bingo evenings."

Imagine my surprise and even horror when, after another night of hurricane fury, in which trees whistled past our sleeping quarters like match-sticks, to rise in the morning and hear the news . . . The dear Christian pastor, with whom we had stayed the first night, who loved the Lord, was faithful in his work for Christ, had had his whole house destroyed.

I had to apologise to the Lord for my attitude.

A Clear Lesson —

I have discovered, even up to this point in history, that many Christian businessmen are having terrible experiences in their business life, etc. Sickness is rife amongst Christians — where is the healing?

Explanation —

In many cases, the Lord is putting the Christian's through, difficulties first so that, when the Beginning of Sorrows starts, we can feel with those non-Christians who will then suffer, and second introduce them, not in a condescending manner, but in all humility to our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who said:

"I am the way, the truth and the life." John 14:6.

Christian —

"Beloved, think it not strange, concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some 'strange thing' happened unto you." I Pet. 4:12. (Emphasis added)

It seems strange to those of us who have known prosperity and the healing power of God.

A Word of Encouragement to Christians —

"For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with GREAT MERCIES will (near future) I gather thee." Isa. 54:7. (Emphasis added)

"The time is come that judgment must begin at 'the house of God' (with the Christians) and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?" 1 Pet. 4:17. (Emphasis added)

Explanation —

We Christians are getting ours now. God is shaking our:

1. Business Life,
2. Family Life,
3. Health,

4. Relationships with our neighbours,

5. Church fellowships,

6. Attitude to our Pastors.

Why? "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ." 1 Pet. 1:7.

Notice that all these trials have to do with the coming of the Lord. I understand this verse very well, as my father, Ted Smith, was a jeweller. Many a time I would call into his shop after school, hear the roar of the furnace and watch the scum form on top of the molten gold. This scum was later scooped off.

This lesson I learnt:

No Fire — No Cleansing, Or Purifying.

Attitudes to Purifying —

1. Complaining, miserable, sorry for oneself.
2. Accusing God of lack of understanding and compassion.
3. Accusing God of not fulfilling His Word to bring deliverance, OR
4. Praising your Father, that it is for your own good.

This No. 4 type Christian is a thorn in Satan's side. How frustrating to bring problem after problem to a person and to hear him/her saying:

"Thank you Lord for this wonderful problem. Like Job I pronounce with my lips . . . 'Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him'." Job. 13:15.

Rule: We love God for WHO HE IS, not for what He does.

"In EVERYTHING give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." I Thess. 5:18. (Emphasis added)

"Thank you Lord for this wonderful headache."

"I praise you Father for the news of my husband being sacked."

"Lord bless my touchy neighbours — I love them and pray for them."

"I've just got a puncture in the front tyre, Hallelujah!"

Ridiculous you say — Try giving thanks.

It works, I know. I do it regularly.

In this way you:

- (a) Conquer satan.
- (b) Keep your own spirit sweet.
- (c) Keep all around you cheerful.
- (d) Glorify God.

Remember — even a headache comes under the heading "everything".

We invited a team from overseas to minister at one of our Christmas Camps. The leader of the group, and main speaker, lasted only one day on his feet, and then was confined to bed very ill with pleurisy, for the rest of the visit.

He said, "Brother, I have never been ill in my life before," to which I replied: "Then I thank God that you are sick now. How can you, as a Pastor, possibly hope to have any understanding or feeling for those of your flock when they too are ill." He nodded weakly.

Do you now understand? Jesus proved this to be true.

"For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour (help with sympathy, feeling and understanding) them that are tempted." Heb. 2:18.

What Will be the Results of the Shaking?

Negative: Many well-known Christians will give up their faith in Christ. (No-root Christians who existed on froth and bubble).

"That day (the coming of the Lord) shall not come, except there come a FALLING AWAY (of believers) first . . ." II Thess. 2:3. (Emphasis added)

"And because iniquity shall abound, the LOVE OF MANY (Born Again Believers) will wax COLD." Matt. 24:12. (Emphasis added)

We know what you appear to be in Church.

God says, I will now see you under pressure.

Sad, but true. The pressure is on, and they are falling like flies.

One day after Church a man rushed into the building and told me that my eldest daughter had just been struck by a motor car. Rushing out on to the road, I beheld the poor driver standing there trembling from head to foot, white as a sheet, holding my unconscious daughter in his arms. She was bleeding freely through the mouth, nose and ears.

I took her from the driver and said, "Don't worry. Just get in your car and drive off home".

He couldn't believe his ears, when he heard me say these words.

We drove in to the hospital to have her X-rayed, and sang together as a family, with only the alto part missing — that was usually Becky's part.

Imagine our joy, when, nearly at the hospital, we heard the sixth voice join in and complete the harmony.

X-rays taken proved that there were no bones broken, so we all drove off home. The very next week, during a Bible Study group, a man stood to testify.

"For over nine years I have heard Barry Smith preach. Now I have seen him under stress I fully believe that what he says, is the truth. Had I been the father in this case, I would have punched and dropped the driver of the car."

Positive:

(a) This pressure will put back-bone where our wish-bones had been.

(b) It will make us radical and determined.

(c) We will be forced to forget ourselves in our longing to help others.

(d) We will need much more fellowship.

Referring to the coming of the Lord in the air for His Bride, we read:

"Wherefore comfort one another with these words." I Thess. 4:18. (Emphasis added)

Which Words? Christ is Coming — Be Strong.

That is why this thought is further amplified in the Book of Hebrews:

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is (who stay at home in the pretence of baby-sitting, either because there is a good programme on T.V. or they are just too lazy to give God any time) but exhorting (encouraging) one another, and SO MUCH THE MORE as ye see the day (Coming of Christ) approaching." Heb. 10:25. (Emphasis added)

Babies, children, and parents will need to revert to the ways of our Christian ancestors, in this regard. Everybody will go, and will carry a rug, and pillow to be placed on the floor.

Protest: "But my baby is different". He/she is not, you know.

Someone says, "Brother Smith, you are rubbing the cat up the wrong way," to which statement I reply, "Then let the cat turn round."!

Daisy Osborn, the wife of T. L. Osborn was given a glimpse into the near future. She described what she saw in a tract entitled: "I saw the Face of the Earth Changing". I herewith include extracts from that tract:

"Most Christians I saw in this visitation were amazed that we were experiencing the terrible day of the Lord, and witnessing His wrath and Judgment.

Many social Christians were ill prepared. Their frivolous, unwatchful, imprudent lives had been gambled on mercy which they thought required no reckoning — ever.

I saw them — hordes of them — lost among the rebellious and rejectors of Christ . . .

All but very few were full of remorse. Lamentations could be heard everywhere, such as:

1. 'Had I known the end was so near, I could have done more to influence my family to follow Christ.'
2. 'I never realized things were so urgent.'
3. 'I planned a life of full-time service — eventually, but I thought other matters more important now.'
4. 'If I could live this last year again, I'd be facing today differently.'
5. 'And to think I've saved everything — only to lose it all.'
6. 'I thought someone would let me know about such a terrible happening as this. Didn't anyone know?' "

This vision was a similar one to that seen many years before by George Washington of the sudden destruction coming upon the U.S.A.

Daisy Osborn continues:

- “(a) Those who had been lukewarm, cast aside besetting sins and sought identity with true believers.
 - (b) I saw cigarettes being discarded, pills being tossed, social drinkers lamenting their indulgences, marital cheaters seeking to make amends.
 - (c) A new sense of values gripped the conscience of believers. The 'new' morality standard and modern licence for laxity was like a remorseful hangover.
 - (d) Sometimes, in large families, a sudden death or tragedy will reknit broken ties. And so it is in the Christian family; doctrinal prejudices have divided God's children — there's dissension, reprisal, jealousies, strife, offence;
- But after the terrifying cattaclysm which the Lord allowed me to see, all of the evils of sectarianism and apostacy vanished amidst the Christians' desperate struggle to draw strength from one another.”

Pray for the Shaking to Come —

This will be the best thing that ever happend to our churches. It will be exciting. The churches will be packed out — Hallelujah!

I quote from a newspaper article written just after the terrible earthquake in Rumania. One of the worst countries in the Communist Bloc for the repression of Christianity.

“Orthodox church officials reported that the earthquake had had a great positive effect on the personal faith of many Rumanians.

Similar remarks on the numbers of new faces crowding into church buildings were made by leaders of other churches. Pentecostals, Baptist, and Brethren alike agreed that THEY WERE NOT ABLE TO COPE with the increased interest in the faith, since the earthquake.”

ALL THESE ARE THE BEGINNING OF SORROWS

BRIDE MEETS BRIDEGROOM

I confess that I have deliberately kept this "Best Wine" until the last.

The Event Described —

"For the Lord himself (not the Holy Spirit) shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the arch-angel, and with the trump of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first, then (after that) we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." 1 Thess. 4:16-18.

Please note later the name of this arch-angel, and the timing of his arrival.

The Great Argument —

1. Is there such an event as The Rapture?
2. If so, when does it occur?

I have deliberately shunned all previous reference to this word "Rapture" up to this point and read most books available on the subject. Some, I regret to say, have been written in bitterness. This spirit is evident, and is not generally regarded as a fruit of the Spirit of God.

I have endeavoured, with the Lord's gracious assistance, to find out the true state of the matter without being swayed either to the PRE or the POST view. At this point you may think that I'm a fence-sitter, but please read on:

Statement —

I believe that the Bible teaches this event will take place after three and a half years of the Beginning of Sorrows, on the eve of the Great Tribulation for the following reasons here outlined:

Reasons — "The wise shall understand." Dan. 12:10.b.

The ancient Jews and their modern ancestors could not clearly see the two phases of Messiah's coming, as it applied to them.

Phase A — The Suffering Servant.

Phase B — The Reigning King.

In spite of the fact that the same Prophet, Isaiah, wrote of both events, they did not know (as we do today) that there was a gap of approximately 2,000 years between the two. "He is despised and rejected of men . . . surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows. He was wounded for our transgressions . . . All we like sheep have gone astray . . ." etc. etc. Isaiah 53:3-6.

"For unto us a child is born . . . (2,000 years later) . . . and the Government shall be upon His shoulder . . . and His Name shall be called, Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." Isa. 9:6-7.

True False

The Jews did not see the two stages

Please tick the appropriate square.

The reason for this is clear. Old Testament Theology did not reveal such a period as:

The Church Age —

In our last chapter we learnt that God temporarily stopped His dealings with the majority of Israel, while he dealt with the Gentiles.

Romans 11 uses the illustration of:

Israel	= Natural branches.
Gentiles	= Branches grafted in.
Christ	= The Root.

Warning — God is quite within His rights to reinstate the natural branches, Israel, if we Gentiles don't watch our step.

"For if God spared not the natural branches (Israel) take heed lest He also spare not thee (Gentiles)." Rom. 11:21.

The Church Age is a definite period called:

- (a) The Times of the Gentiles;
- (b) It will continue until the Fulness of the Gentiles comes in to God's Kingdom through repentance and faith in Christ.

Daniel links the beginning of the Tribulation (three and a half years) period with the Resurrection:

"And AT THAT TIME, shall Michael stand up the great prince which standeth for the children of THY (Daniel's) people" (Israel) — NOTICE — "and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was, since there was a nation even to that same time (this is definitely the Great Tribulation's beginning).

This links beautifully with the coming of the Lord in 1 Thess 4:16-18. Here the arch-angel is mentioned.

Now to make doubly sure that we get the timing of the event correct: "And AT THAT TIME (the beginning of the Great Tribulation) thy people shall be delivered (how?) every one that shall be found written in the book (the lamb's Book of Life)". There is a book in heaven. If your name is not in it, you will be in Hell, forever. We know a girl who has seen her name in this book whilst in a vision. What a beautiful privilege.

A further amplification of this event: "And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life (and a gap of 1,000 years later) and some to shame and everlasting contempt." Dan. 12:1-2 (Emphasis added). Read also Rev. 20:5.

Isn't God wonderful. He even gives us the timing for the resurrection.

This resurrection is placed at the beginning of the Great Tribulation (three and a half years). Michael the Great Arch-Angel — the Protector of Israel — stands up for them during this whole period:

If this was at the end of the Tribulation, all the Jews would be wiped out —

	True	False
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Paul agrees with this teaching regarding the timing of the resurrection:

"For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, WITH THE VOICE OF THE ARCH-ANGEL" I Thess. 4:16.

Reading both in Daniel and in I Thess. 4. We Learn Two Things —

- (a) The Coming of Christ to meet His Bride is linked with,
- (b) The Resurrection from the dead, i.e. The First Resurrection —

Paul's writings then amplify Daniel's prophecies.

Link the two thoughts together and you have the following:

- (a) The Coming of Christ to meet His Bride, is linked with,
- (b) The Resurrection of the dead, i.e. The First Resurrection.
- (c) The Arch-Angel who accompanies Jesus to the clouds carries on down to earth where He protects Israel for three and a half years:

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- (d) His name is Michael and his job is defender of Israel —

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- (e) Daniel speaks of a Jewish resurrection. Paul speaks of a mixed Jewish and Gentile resurrection. They both agree. (Notice that Paul had dual nationality. Although he was called "The Apostle to the Gentiles, he also won Jews to Christ.)

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- (f) The timing for this event is at the beginning, not at the end of the Tribulation —

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

NOTE — If you marked false for question f, then the following applies:

- (a) Michael the Arch-Angel comes at the end of the Tribulation, and Daniel is wrong in his timing —
- (b) Michael comes at the end of the Tribulation, but unfortunately he is too late and there is no-one left amongst the Jews for him to protect —

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Now for Some More Witnesses —

We have dealt in depth already with the two examples in Luke 17:

- (a) Noah — Saved before the Flood (illustration No. 1).
- (b) Lot — Saved before the Fire (illustration No. 2).
- (c) Bride of Christ — Saved before the Tribulation (Reality).

Statement — Any other view regarding the timing for this event makes Jesus' Words either:

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- (a) Unreliable,
- (b) Downright lies.

Again — The passage found in I Thess. 4:16-17 which was our initial verse in this chapter links with I Thess. 5:3. i.e. The Tribulation is preceded by the words "Peace and Safety". The world will be fooled,

"But ye brethren are not in the darkness that THAT DAY should overtake you as a thief (Christian Believers). (Emphasis added)

"Sudden Destruction" here is the beginning of The Great Tribulation — verse two is the context.

"For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night." I Thess: 5:2.

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Lesson — A thief comes quietly, secretly — This carrying away of the Bride will happen secretly:

N.B. This is the beginning, not the end of The Tribulation.

Once More — The catching away of the Bride is preceded by two things:

True	False
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- (a) The Great falling away from Christ (Apostasy — Greek derivation) —
- (b) E.E.C. leader (Antichrist revealed). 1 Thess 5:3-4.

The context of V.3 is V.1, which amplifies this thought:

"Now we beseech you Brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto Him." I Thess. 5:1.

(N.B. The gathering to Christ takes place in clouds, in the air, not on the Mount of Olives.)

Statement — The Bride of Christ meet Christ before the Tribulation period, in the clouds, in the air, and not on the Mount of Olives. This takes place at the beginning of the Tribulation period of three and a half years:

True False

A Mystery — It was given to the Apostle Paul to know and understand nine mysteries, which were to be:

(a) Preached.

(b) Known.

(c) Understood by the Bride during the Church Age.

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 1. The Mystery of the Gospel. | Eph. 6:19 |
| 2. The Mystery of Israel. | Rom. 11:25 |
| 3. The Mystery of Faith. | I Tim. 3:9 |
| 4. The Mystery of Godliness. | I Tim. 3:16 |
| 5. The Mystery of His Will. | Eph. 1:9 |
| 6. The Mystery of the Wisdom of God. | I Cor. 2:7 |
| 7. The Mystery of Iniquity. | II Thess. 2:7 |
| 8. The Mystery of Christ and His Church. | Eph. 5:32. |
| 9. The Mystery of the Resurrection. | I Cor. 15:51. |

Extremely important for our study.

To verify the statements just made, it is important that the reader understands:

(a) The Bride is a Mystery Group.

(b) Their catching away is a mysterious thing.

(c) God has given us a beautiful picture in the Old Testament — Enoch is his name — the seventh from Adam.

The Obituary Column of the Old Testament — Genesis 5:

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| 1. verse 4: Adam | verse 5: And he died. |
| 2. verse 6: Seth | verse 8: And he died. |
| 3. verse 9: Enos | verse 11: And he died. |
| 4. verse 12: Cainan | verse 14: And he died. |
| 5. verse 15: Mahaleel | verse 17: And he died. |
| 6. verse 18: Jared | verse 20: And he died. |
| 7. verse 21: Enoch | verse 24: "And Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him." |

Understand please — Six generations of death, and No. 7 goes up without dying.

Peter tells us that one day with the Lord is as 1,000 years. II Pet. 3:8.

Adam — Christ	=	4,000 years
Christ — Today	=	1,978
		5,978 years of natural history from Adam until today.

On God's timetable we are almost at the end of the sixth day — Six generations of death (the Seventh Day = 7,000 years, will be spent reigning with Christ). Rev. 20:6.

From Adam until today every last person on earth has died, with the exception of two persons:

1. Elijah (in a whirlwind to heaven)
2. Enoch (walked in).

The Bride of Christ would do well to learn some brief lessons from Enoch, their "type".

Lessons to Learn — There are only three passages in the Bible dealing with the life of Enoch: Gen. 5:21-27; Hebrews 11:5; Jude V.14.

1. Enoch did not always walk with God — he was probably as bad as you are/were if not worse.

One day God gave him a fright. A son was born to Enoch and his wife, who was named Methuselah which meant "When he dies, it will come", or to lengthen or draw out. Enoch knew he had a limited time left and he only started walking with God "after" the birth of his boy.

To those of you readers who are not yet fully convinced of your need, your day will come shortly. Once you get your "personal shock", walk carefully with God. Methuselah lived 969 years (just short of a thousand). History tells us, the day he died the flood came. 2347 B.C.

You say, things are good. I don't need God yet. How God puts up with us and our arrogance, I don't know. Perhaps this verse will help:

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise (as some men count slackness) but is longsuffering (patient — oh so patient, but there is a limit) to usward (who need salvation) not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." II Pet. 3:9.

Here is an addition:

"The long-suffering of our Lord is salvation . . ." II Pet. 3:15.a.

Illustration —

Larry Flynt, the editor of the pornographic "Hustler" magazine turned to Christ for salvation, and vowed to change his magazine into a Christian publication. His wife's nagging, and pressure of friends, caused him to renounce Christ and his good intentions.

Result — nearly dead with a bullet-wound. God is not mocked, make no mistake.

Moral — Don't play with the mercy of God. He is too big for you. Take your opportunity while you may. Enoch did.

Lesson 2 —

Enoch knew he was going up before the Judgment — "By faith, Enoch was translated that he should not see death." Heb. 11:5.a.

In order to have faith, God must have told Enoch that this was the case. He was wise enough to listen and act on it.

"Blessed and holy (happy and clean) is he that hath part in the First Resurrection."

Warning to Believers —

Don't play the fool with God's mercy. The Christians in the early church paid with their blood, to make sure that they were included in this first resurrection.

"Women received their dead raised to life again, and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance that they MIGHT OBTAIN A BETTER RESURRECTION." Heb. 11:35. (Emphasis added)

It is a great privilege to be in this group.

Lesson 3 —

Enoch raised a family in a corrupt and perishing world. Gen. 5:22. Advice to all parents — place books by Dr Spock and others like him, into the rubbish tin, or the fire, and use the Book of Proverbs to raise your children by. Love, together with the rod of correction, will give rest to you and your visitors.

Lesson 4 —

He kept himself busy — walking with God. It is possible that you can be so involved in legitimate activities, and on so many committees, that you have no time for your family, but most important, your relationship with the Lord suffers.

"No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life (school committees, sports, Rotary, Lions, Clubs, Drama, Business, local Govt. — all good things no doubt, but if they crowd God into a corner, they become evil for you) THAT HE MAY PLEASE HIM (Jesus) WHO HATH CHOSEN HIM TO BE A SOLDIER." II Tim. 2:4. (Emphasis added)

"They made me the keeper of the vineyards, but mine own vineyard have I not kept." Song of Solomon 1:6.b.

Watch your personal walk with God.

Lesson 5 —

He spoke up for the Lord, and warned of His Second Coming: "And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with 10,000 of His saints to execute judgment . . ." etc. Jude 14.

He warned sinners, verses 14-16. No doubt people mocked, but at least they received an opportunity.

Lesson 6 —

"He was not found." Heb. 11:5. e.g. Elijah.

Enoch was no doubt the object of a great man-hunt. The type is clear. This mystery group, The Bride, have a mysterious exit from this earth.

The E.E.C. leader (Antichrist) and his religious helper, the False Prophet, will be hard-pressed to provide an explanation to the news reporters.

Perhaps U.F.O.'s will be blamed.

Notice —

No matter what explanation is offered, you, the reader, will remember this book. The headlines will attract your attention: "Millions Missing" all over the world.

There is then three and a half years of trouble ahead. Whatever you do, turn to Christ, refuse the mark, and pray for a quick release. As a friend recently remarked, "The beheading part would be fairly quick. The waiting for it, would cause some anxiety."

There Are Two Comings of Christ Ahead:

- (a) The translation of The Bride into the air;
- (b) The public coming on the Mount of Olives.

The translation of The Bride will occur like this —

Here is a literal Greek (word for word) translation: I Thess. 4:16-18.

"The dead in anointed will be upstanding before most on thereafter.

We the living ones surviving simultaneously together to them shall be being snatched in clouds into meeting of the master into air, and thus, always together to master."

Breakdown of the Passage —

- | | True | False |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| (a) The Lord Jesus descends from heaven, with a shout (to call the waiting Bride). He stops in mid air: | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| (b) The voice of the Archangel is identified in Dan. 12:1 as being that of Michael, the protector of Israel, who will look after them during the three and a half year Tribulation period: | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

- (c) The trump of God is directed towards Israel. The Bride has gone. Israel always marched and stopped on the trumpet blast. The Fulness of the Gentiles has come in, i.e. The last Gentile believer. ☐ ☐
- (d) The dead in Christ rise first — not up into the air, but stand up on the earth. I checked out the proto-type for this Resurrection and discovered the following to be the case: ☐ ☐

It is interesting to note that the Dutch word for Resurrection is "Opstanding" (to stand up).

At the Resurrection of Jesus, i.e. The First fruits (or the first of many).

Jesus . . . yielded up the ghost . . . veil in the Temple rent in twain . . . earthquake . . . rocks rent.

"And the graves were opened and MANY bodies of the saints which slept arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection and went into the holy city (Jerusalem) and appeared unto MANY." Matt. 27:51-53. (Emphasis added)

Notice the time lapse: At Jesus' death, the graves opened. However, the bodies of the saints did not come out until after His resurrection, i.e. three days later, and appeared to many who were living.

The same word in Greek for "arose" in Matt. 27 brings us the same thought in the word "rise" in 1 Thess. 4.

Therefore, it seems apparent that the dead (in Christ) will visit the living (in Christ) and reunions will take place on this earth.

Notice "many", not all the dead. The rest rise after the 1,000 years' reign of Christ. These are the unconverted. Isn't the Lord good? "Then (after that) we which are alive and remain, shall be caught "UP" (not out into the desert) together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1 Thess. 4:17. (Emphasis added)

We go on to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, and stay away from earth for three and half years whilst the Tribulation is on. When Christ returns, some return with Him, as Enoch has already told us:

"Behold, the Lord cometh with 10,000s of His saints." Jude V.14.b.

The remainder come down later and reign with Christ for 1,000 years.

Two Groups —

- (a) Before the Tribulation;
(b) Out of The Tribulation.

RAPTURE (IN THE CLOUDS)

Group A — Before — “Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection, on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God, and of CHRIST, AND SHALL REIGN WITH HIM A THOUSAND YEARS.” Rev. 20:6. (Emphasis added)

Group B — Out Of — “And I saw thrones, and they that sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them, and I saw the souls of them that were:

- (a) beheaded for the witness of Jesus and for the word of God,
- (b) which had not worshipped the beast,
- (c) neither his image,
- (d) neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands, and THEY LIVED AND REIGNED WITH CHRIST A THOUSAND YEARS.” Rev. 20:4. (Emphasis added).

Obviously saved through the preaching of the 144,000 Jewish evangelists — Group B joins Group A.

Which one for you — Group A, or Group B?

The two future comings’ differences outlined:

Differences:

Translation (Catching Up) (Before Tribulation)	Public Coming (After Tribulation)
1. Believers taken up.	No translation (catching up).
2. Translated saints go up.	Translated saints come down.
3. Earth not judged.	Earth judged by King Jesus.
4. Will happen after “Peace” call.	Will happen after Battle of Armageddon.
5. Not shown in O.T. Only in Type.	Shown clearly in New Testament.
6. For Believers only.	All mankind involved.
7. Before the day of wrath.	After the day of wrath.
8. No reference to satan.	satan bound.
9. Michael protects Israel.	Protection no longer needed. Jesus on earth.
10. Mystery Bride goes to Marriage Supper of the Lamb.	Mystery Bride returns to reign with Christ.

Who Will Go Up?

Those who are Born Again — Accept no substitutes.

A travelling preacher who regularly took as his text the words from John 3:3 . . . “Ye must be born again”, noticed a young man who listened intently and took notes at each service he conducted.

One day, his curiosity aroused, he got into conversation with the young man, who asked him the following question: “Sir, I love your preaching style and have followed you for four months now. However, why is it that you always preach on the same text, John 3:3, Ye must be born again?”

Fixing him with a solemn gaze, the old preacher replied . . . “Young man, I always preach on the subject, Ye must be born again, because Jesus made it quite clear that to enter heaven, ‘Ye must be born again’.”

Remember, that the price of blood has already been offered and in the words of Scripture:

“For God so loved the world * . . . that He gave His only begotten Son (Jesus) that whosoever * . . . believeth in Him (Jesus) should not perish (or go to hell) but have (not wait for, hope for, or think about) everlasting life.” John 3:16.

* Put your name here.

It is as clear as that.

The Bible teaches that there are three steps, plus one, to possess this life from God.

Find a quiet place;

Kneel down, or get into an attitude of prayer.

(Sit if necessary);

Start praying;

Here are the three steps —

- 1. Repent of your sin. Turn to Jesus.
- 2. Believe that He died for you.
- 3. Receive Him — Invite Him into your heart. Plus —
- 4. Tell someone what you have done.

If you find that you do not know how to pray, here is the Prayer of Salvation:

PRAYER OF SALVATION

Part One

(Say out Loud)

“Lord Jesus Christ — I come to you now — because I am a sinner.

Today Lord Jesus — I repent of my sin — I turn away from my sin — and I turn to you.”

Part Two

“I believe, dear Lord — that you died for me * . . . I thank you Lord — because your blood covers all my sins. No one else can save me — only Jesus.”

* (your name)

SINNER GETTING SAVED

Part Three

"Right now — I open the door of my heart (put your hand to your chest and open outwards) — Come into my heart Lord Jesus — Wash me — Cleanse me — and make me your child — I receive you now by faith.

Help me to live for you every day until you come again.

I close the door (use your hand again, bring it back towards your chest) and Jesus is on the inside.

I thank you Lord Jesus, because today, by faith, I have received you — and you have received me.

(Pause.)

Amen".

A FINAL WORD TO CHRISTIANS

Three Other Qualifications to Be Ready —

1. Co-operate with the Holy Spirit of God.

"The marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready." Rev. 19:7.b.

There are many things in your life and in mine that are not pleasing to God. Through circumstances arranged by the Lord, He will allow you to be tested in these areas. Once revealed, let that evil thing be stripped away.

The weeds must go, that the plants may grow. e.g. Temper, pride, foolishness, smoking, wrong friends, laziness, addiction to alcohol, drugs, pills, wrong music or literature, etc.

2. Watching for His Return:

"Unto them that look for him, shall He appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation." Heb. 9:28.b.

This does not mean that you walk around gazing up into the heavens. An injury would be your reward! It means that you start to study the World news. You watch for each prediction to be definitely fulfilled.

Had the Prophets been on their toes at Jesus' first coming, the stable, at the back of the Inn, would have been crowded out.

3. Clean:

"And every man that hath this hope (Christ's Second Coming) in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure." I John 3:3.

A dear friend of mine from California, Maurice Luce, who was for years a missionary to American Samoa, told me the following story:

He was standing with a group of businessmen on a busy intersection one day, when a well-known man about town joined the group. The newcomer started out with . . . "Hey, guys, stop me if you've heard this one."

My friend, Maurice, immediately cried out . . . "Stop!" "What do you mean by that?" asked the newcomer. "Well, it has a dirty ending doesn't it?" said Maurice. The man replied: "As a matter of fact, yes it does, but you won't be hearing it." He stalked off in a rage.

One of the other men turned to Maurice and asked . . . "Why did you do that?"

"I'll tell you why," said Maurice. "God has given me a mind, and my mind is like a tin. You can put good things or bad things into your tin, but I have chosen to put only good things into my tin."

Clear isn't it.

Choose well, in these last days, what goes into your tin.

Postscript to The Mystery of Iniquity — FREEMASONRY

The Founder of the Illuminati Adam Weishaupt, and his cohorts infiltrated the Masonic Lodges. It is important to notice that the eye in the triangle is a portion of the jewellery worn by the GRAND MASTERS in the Lodges today (see article on Jewels).

Most Saturday nights, we minister on the subject, "The Mystery of Iniquity". It is significant to notice that during the deliverances that follow, some of the most powerful demons are those which inhabit Freemasons, their wives, children and relations.

Any person connected in any way to a Freemason (in N.Z. blue or red lodge) requires a complete deliverance in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, for the following reasons:

- (a) In order to learn the secret of each degree, the candidate is bound to secrecy by an oath.
- (b) From the taking of the initial oath in the apprentice (1st) degree the candidate puts a DEMONIC CURSE on himself. It is for this reason that no Freemason can receive an experience called "The Baptism in the Holy Spirit".

Their families immediately come under the same curse.

- (c) It is not Christian. From "The Charges of a Freemason" page 13, "Let a man's religion or mode of worship be what it may, he is not excluded from the Order provided he believes in the glorious architect or heaven and earth and practices the sacred duties of morality. Masons unite with the virtuous of every persuasion. . . ." end quote.

This is completely anti-Christian as seen in II Cor. 6:14.

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers. . . ."

Also Jesus' statement in John 14:6 "Jesus said unto him, I am the way, the truth and the life, NO MAN cometh unto the FATHER, but by ME." (emphasis added)

True ☐ False ☐

Please tick appropriate box

- (d) It is really Syncretism (the joining together of all religions) e.g. Buddhists, Moslems, Christians, Hindus, etc.

From "Art. XXX Admission of Candidates" — "I . . . being a free man, and of the full age of twenty-one years do acknowledge my belief in a supreme being . . ." (end quote), i.e. God, Allah, Buddha, etc.

This is anti-Bible. See Isaiah 45:5 "I am the Lord and there is none else, there is no God beside me. . . ."

True ☐ False ☐

Please tick appropriate box.

- (e) It is against basic human rights and the equality of all men in the sight of the Lord. From "Craft Lodges Pt.V. N.B. A person who cannot write is consequently ineligible to be admitted into the order" (end quote).

True ☐ False ☐

Please tick appropriate box.

- (f) Please read Acts 10:34 "God is no respecter of persons."
- Freemasonry is witchcraft. Their prayers end with the phrase "So Mote it Be".

Initiation:

Apprentice Degree

- (a) Candidate is blindfolded;
- (b) His trouser leg is rolled up;
- (c) A noose is placed around his neck;
- (d) His left breast is bared over heart.

He is told that if he tries to run away forwards, he will be stabbed. If he tries to run backwards, he will be hung.

The candidate is pricked with a knife over the heart while he takes a fearful oath, i.e. "My throat will be cut across, my tongue torn out by its roots, and be buried in the rough sands of the sea at lower water mark, where the tide flows twice in the course of a natural day." (end quote)

From "First Degree tracing Board" page 75, "Our rites and ceremonies correspond in a great degree with the Mysteries of Ancient Egypt. Their Magi or philosophers, like ourselves . . ." (end quote). This is pure heathenism.

Please read Matthew 5:34-37 N.B. v34 "But I say unto you SWEAR NOT AT ALL." (emphasis added)

- (g) The Freemason's way to heaven is up Jacob's Ladder. From "First Degree first Tracing Board" page 84-85: ". . . This circle is bounded by two great parallel lines, one representing Moses, the other King Solomon, on the upper part of this circle rests the V.S.L. supporting Jacob's ladder, the top of which reaches to the heavens." (end quote).

Please read John 14:6. Jesus said . . . "No man cometh unto the father, but by me."

- (h) 2nd Degree Oath:

"My breast will be torn open and my heart will be plucked from there and fed to the ravenous birds of the air."

- (i) Third Degree Oath:

"My Body will be severed in twain. My bowels taken from thence, and burned to ashes and the ashes are to be scattered to the four winds of heaven." (N.B. These oaths are abbreviated herein.)

In a darkened room, the candidate is dealt three symbolic death blows to the head and falls into a coffin (sometimes designed on a canvas sheet). He also kisses his holy book.

When a man is delivered in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (at a true Christian gathering) the demonic spirit will normally come out through the centre of the forehead.

Is it any wonder that these secret oaths (or curses) are not told to the wives and families.

- (j) The Royal Arch Masons Trinity is Jah Bul On — this is the secret name revealed to him at his initiation.

i.e. Jah — Hebrew God "Jahweh".

Bul — or Baal — Assyrian deity.

On — the Egyptian Sun God.

This is a further step on towards the final secret.

- (k) It is riddled with heathenism. "Morals and Dogmas" page 277 by Albert Pike says "The first Masonic Legislator whose memory is presented to us by history was Buddha" (end quote).

- (l) It gradually supercedes all religions.

A quote from their literature states, "A man is never closer to God than when he kneels at the sacred altar of Masonry" (end quote)

- (m) The Final Secret:

Copy of instructions issued by a 33rd Degree Mason and Grand Pontiff of Universal Freemasonry, on July 14th 1889 to the 23 Supreme Councils of the World.

This will show you who the God of Freemasonry is —

Albert Pike (Sovereign Pontiff of Freemasonry) said, "That which we must say to the crowd is, we worship a God but it is the God which one adores without superstition.

"To you Sovereign Grand Inspectors General, we say this, and you may repeat it to the brethren of the 32nd, 31st and 30th Degrees; the Masonic religion should be by all of us initiates maintained in the purity of the LUCIFERIAN DOCTRINE. If Lucifer were not God, would Adonay, God of the Christians, bother to spread false and harmful statements about him. YES! LUCIFER IS GOD." (end quote — emphasis added.)

What to do:

"Come out from among them and be ye separate. . . ."

Read II Cor. 6:14-18. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT. READ IT ALL — NOW.

1. Turn to the Lord Jesus Christ. Be converted.
2. Renounce Freemasonry.
3. Hand in your resignation officially.
4. Seek Christian exorcism (deliverance).
5. Have your wife and family also delivered.
6. Burn your gear — all of it. Deut 7:25-26.
7. Join up with a genuine Christian men's fellowship. I highly recommend the FGBMFI (i.e. Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International). Read Heb 10:25.

Oddfellows and other secret societies are out for the Christian.

Please note the satanic eye at the top of the Oddfellows Membership Card. It is the same as the eye on the U.S. $1 note. It is the same eye as the one included in the Grand Master's Jewels. It is the same eye that is imprinted on the walls of some Lodges.

Yes. It is indeed the eye of God — the Freemason's God — his name is Lucifer.

But finally, never forget JESUS CHRIST IS LORD.

STOP PRESS — NOVEMBER 16th, 1980

The U.S. elections are over. As we reprint this book, please note the following points:

1. The World Government plans are quickly being fulfilled.
2. Carter has been voted out (see p. 90) and another — Reagan — has been voted to power by those behind the scenes. Proof — Websters Dictionary listed Reagan as the 40th President of the U.S. even before the elections were held.

An old Indian curse says that he will not complete his term in office, i.e. every President elected in a year divisible by 20 will die in office. This has been fulfilled in the deaths of the U.S. Presidents elected in 1840, 1860, 1880, 1900, 1920, 1940, 1960, and now we watch the important date 1980.

This author believes that all demonic curses can be cancelled out in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, but if this is not done, there is little to prevent the curse from being fulfilled.

We note with anticipation that the Presidential running mate George Bush was introduced to the world by Walter Cronkite as "our future President" and strangely enough, by another radio commentator as being "a heartbeat away from the Presidency."

Obviously, it is all planned that Reagan was chosen to be nought but a stepping stone for George Bush, the next One World Government man to ascend the throne of power.

Who is George Bush?

- (a) The Ex-Director of the C.I.A. (Rockefeller's private police force, financed by the Rockefeller family).
- (b) A member of the Tri-Lateral Commission (see p.86-87) the powerful group led by David Rockefeller, which is pushing strongly for World Government.

WHAT ELSE IS NEW?

According to the newspaper, amongst contenders for the top U.S. Foreign policy post would be Henry Kissinger and General Alexander Haig.

From the Seattle Times, April 27th, 1980. Quote —

"Few observers would deny (indeed, he himself has remarked on this more than once) that power — a certain kind of vibrating, psychological force-field radiates from the Kissinger presence.

From the beginning Henry Kissinger has enjoyed a reputation for personal duplicity.

He has often been regarded as a man who would say or do whatever was required in order to consolidate or expand his personal power.

It was clear that if Reagan wins Dr Henry Alfred Kissinger will be returning to the centre of the stage.

A LOT OF OTHER PEOPLE ARE MEANWHILE WONDERING EXACTLY WHO HE IS." End quote.

(emphasis added)

NOTICE

Leading contenders to become Secretary of the Treasury, the top economic post include DAVID ROCKEFELLER and others.

It is important to note that David Rockefeller has recently resigned from his position as Head of the Chase Manhattan Bank, that he may concentrate on OTHER MATTERS.

Remember Kissinger's quote: "By controlling energy, one can control nations. By controlling food, one can control individuals".

A Bill has been passed in almost all of the Western World countries, excluding Canada and Australia (at this time of revision). It is called P.B.R. or PLANT BREEDERS RIGHTS.

This Bill gives the breeders the rights to doctor SEEDS and make them into HYBRIDS allowing only one good season of growth.

N.B. Therefore masses of people who had hoped to be self-sufficient, can no longer be sure of doing so, as the breeders may also insist on the purchasing of their fertilisers to make these seeds grow.

This DIABOLICAL BILL was passed in New Zealand in 1974. Australia is to vote on it, early in 1981 and will pass it unless someone protests. One State's refusal of this Bill would cause it to be thrown out.

Next, the Fisheries Acts are tying up the catching of certain types of fish, in certain areas using rigid controls on fishing zones, nets, etc.

These laws are steadily being added to, thus tying up the world food supplies.

Eligible voters in N.Z. are at this time of revision being encouraged to MAKE YOUR GOOD NAME COUNT, by filling in a Parliamentary Roll revision form which requires the filling in, amongst others things, one's date of birth. This information had previously been solicited without authority.

The Electoral Act until it was revised recently made no such provision for this information. Therefore, one may safely assume that this is a tricky manoeuvre aimed ultimately at setting up computer files in the form of a unique personal identification system. Other countries have already done this, using birth dates as a basis.

It has been pointed out that about 117 people in N.Z. share the same birth date. When divided into electorates, it is unlikely there would be more than one or two people in each electorate with the same birth date. It then becomes a simple matter to find an individual through a personalised computer system.

The One World Government manipulators may think that their plans are going well, but they have not taken the following points into account:

Public Opinion: This book, and others like it, are showing the people exactly what is happening.

The WORD OF GOD shows us the end result, i.e. A World completely dominated by satan and his two stooges.

(a) One running a World Government

(b) The other running a World Church.

We Christians know exactly what is going on as it was written down for us in 586 B.C., then again in 96 A.D. by the Great God of Heaven.

We are not as few in number as some may suppose and will not submit to this system.

God's Foreknowledge: THOSE WHO ARE WISE, WILL JOIN US IN OUR NEW BIRTH EXPERIENCE AND LET IT BE KNOWN, "WE ARE ON THE SIDE OF ALMIGHTY GOD, AND HIS SON JESUS CHRIST, WHOSE PROMISES ARE CLEAR".

"BEHOLD I GIVE YOU POWER OVER ALL THE POWER OF THE ENEMY, AND NOTHING SHALL BY ANY MEANS HURT YOU." Luke 10:19.

"MY GOD SHALL SUPPLY ALL YOUR NEEDS ACCORDING TO HIS RICHES IN GLORY BY CHRIST JESUS." Phil. 4:19.
